The Kindergarten will reopen on Wednesday next at 9.30 a. m.

The tide will be this morning at 9.45 and tomorrow morning at 10.41.

Miss Susan J. Mitchell, Village Green, is visiting Daniel and Mrs.
Wood, Hazelbrook.

A horse and rubber tired wagon will be sold at sale of late R. J.
Woods on Euston St., today at one o'clock.

Capt. McLeod, of the steamer Constance, was a passenger east to Georgetown Saturday en route to the mainland.

Mrs. James Tait Jr., Brighton received the sad intelligence on Saturday of the death of her mother Mrs. John Scott of Fredericton.

The Grand Worthy Patriarch, Rev.
E. S. Weeks of Biddeford, will pay an official visit and install the officers of Victoria Division this evening.

The inward freight by the Minto to Georgetown Saturday from Pictou consisted of one car mixed freight besides the mails and twelve passengers.

Miss Sadie R. McNeill, who has been visiting friends in Charlottew during the past week has returned to resume her duties as teacher of Hamilton School, Lot 18.

The Dead March in Saul was rendered by Prof. Watts at the close of the services yesterday morning in the First Methodist Church out of respect to the memory of an old and honored official, James Hodgson.

Capt. A. McPhail, of the S. S.
Cosah, was presented with a handsome chair at his residence, Main street, a few evenings ago by a number of his friends.—Sydney Post.

Capt. McPhail is well known in this City.

The average price given in Saturday's issue for the draft mares sold on Thursday afternoon was $281 when it should have been $302. This is a high average price for horses in this Province but such excellent stock deserve a good price.

The funeral of the late James Hodgson took place Saturday afternoon the following gentlemen acting as pall-bearers:—Henry J. Cundall, John McEachern, William A. Weeks, Sr., Colonel F. S. Moore, Henry Smith and Robert Palmer.

A large congregation was present at St. Paul's last night and the Rector gave a very forceable and practical sermon. The Xmas music was repeated by the excellent choir, and the service throughout was bright instructive and impressive.

Immense crowds gathered at this house Friday and Saturday evenings to enjoy the exceptional pictures presented there.

Chief among the pictures that deserve special mention shown Saturday night was the Song of the Shirt, it was a picture showing the sweat shops in which women wear their lives away for a mere pittance.

The pictures at this cosy house are always clear, steady and distinctive.
The announcement for tonight will be given in the evening papers.
Admission five cents.

In spite of the rain, a most enjoyable time was spent in Roseberry hall on Christmas night, when the temperance people of that vicinity together with a few friends met to celebrate the occasion. At seven o'clock the meeting was called to order by Frank W. Paton, who, acting as master of ceremonies, in his usual jovial manner made a few opening remarks, not forgetting to draw the attention of those present to the highly decorated and well loaded tree which adorned the platform. After a short program of songs and recitation, appropriate to the occasion, tables were spread by the ladies, and the wants of the inner man were amply satisfied at the bounteous repast provided, bounteous and elaborate in every sense of the word, and for which the ladies in charge deserve the highest commendation. As ten o'clock approached the jingle of bells was heard and a few minutes later Santa Clause appeared and was given a hearty reception by everyone as he presented gifts, useful and ornamental, from the heavily laden tree. After a liberal distribution of apples, nuts and candy, Santa bade goodnight, wishing all "A Merry Happy Christmas" and "A Prosperous Glad New Year."

The League of the Cross Society will hold their annual meeting on Sunday Jan. 10. Every member is requested to attend. 12-431.8.9.

The Guardian has received from Foster, Bond & Co., proprietors of The Hotel Dufferin, St. John, N. B., a copy of their Christmas menu. It is one of the daintiest books imaginable, with a delicate dove colored soft leather cover, set off with the words "Hearty Greeting" and "Christmas" in embossed gold. It is an elegant piece of job printing which displays the exquisite taste of the designer. To preserve the leather is a pretty paper cover resembling white watered silk, while the most fetching of little green satin bows keep it in place. The menu itself, printed in green and red, is one of the finest ever prepared for the guests of any Canadian Hotel. Every conceivable delicacy is on the list, served in elaborate style, and that they were appreciated is without a doubt, as the travelling public are keenly alive to the excellent repasts served by the Dufferin's unexcelled chef.

The following additional routes have been applied for Rural delivery:— Charlottetown and Cherry Valley, Augustine Cove and Cape Traverse, Cape Traverse and Searlton, Cavendish and Hunter River, Hunter River and North Rustico, Charlottetown and Victoria, Cherry Valley and Sarncliffe, Kensington and Sea View. And it is expected that the system will spread very rapidly.

In the Police Court Saturday the case of James Doyle was again adjudged one week. The witnesses Saturday were Philip Doyle and R. H.
Ramsay. An assault case of Thomas Zagrib against Joseph Basha and George Full was settled between themselves. Another assault case between Ella McCabe and Ernest Car-nody was also settled between themselves.

William Gibson and Peter Brodie of Marshfield who represent Marshfield and York Farmers' Institute, leave Monday morning to attend the short term of the Truro Agricultural College. This is the second term for Mr. Brodie, who is taking a special branch in judging a dairy cow and the selection of seed corn. The above gentlemen are also delegates to the Stock Breeders Association to be held in Truro on January 9th. There are forty-four farmers going to this term of the College from this Province.

The schooner Thoburn, which was towed into this port the day before Xmas by the Minto, is at present discharging her cargo of coal.

J. R. McNeill, Village Green, was in the City Saturday.

Miss Alice Holroyd, City, left last week on return to Montreal.

Hugh McInnis and H. M. Baker, Summerside, were in the City yesterday.

J. F. and Mrs. Profit, Hampton, were in the City Saturday and favored The Guardian with a pleasant call.

James and Mrs. Sample, Peakes Station, spent New Year's day with John and Mrs. Weatherbie, Village Green.

In the last number of "The Bookman," the leading American literary magazine, there appeared an excellent portrait of the talented provincial writer Miss L. M. Montgomery.

Miss Margaret McMillan of the Lenox, has returned home from a four months' trip to Vancouver, B.
C., and intermediate points, including Winnipeg and Sydney.

The Arena was the centre of attraction Saturday afternoon and many enjoyed a good skate to fine band music. On the previous evening the ice was crowded and everyone had a splendid time.

Prof. McVey, the well known horse jockey has returned to the city from Cape Traverse where he has been in charge of Mr. Irving's horses. He shipped the trotting stallion Israel Tarte to Halifax Wednesday.

Messrs. Carter & Co. Limited, the well known seedmen and booksellers, have The Guardian's thanks for one of their artistic Calendars for 1909.
It represents a typical farm scene, and in keeping with bountiful crops harvested last season in this goodly land.

The youthful sport of Village Green are not without their place of amusement. They have made a large outdoor rink in a nearby field and have provided a building where they can put on and take off their skates in the warmth. They intend organizing a hockey team and if weather favors them they may be heard of in some hockey league before long.

"Red Tag" Sale of fine winter dress goods

OUR DRESS GOODS BUYER has been getting ready for "stock taking" by going carefully over his showing of dress goods. And of course he found numerous pieces sold down to small lengths—quite a few lines in which the range of colourings was not complete—and some few lines that—for one reason or other have not sold with the speed that we demand of all goods here. We have marked each with a "RED TAG"

and that means a price cut that will clear them in a few days. Sometimes the red tag means a third off—and sometimes it means a great deal more in all cases it means a price that you will think cheap.
Come in early while the selections are good.
