"IT PAYS to buy in this Province"

"STORE IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. W. W. Jenkins, General Merchant, Georgetown has painted his store.—G.

GEORGETOWN'S NEWSPAPER

The Guardian correspondent was shown recently a copy of "The King's County Advertiser," published at Georgetown, bearing date December 20, 1877. The "Advertiser" was a four page, weekly journal, edited and published by Mr. Peter McCourt, the present editor of the Watchman, and contained the local and foreign news of the day, editorials, selected articles, correspondence, and a goodly share of advertising, chiefly from King's County patrons. It is worthy of note, that of the Georgetown advertisements of that day, only the old reliable firm of Macdonald Bros., corner of Kent and Water streets, remain in business, the others including Hon. Daniel Gordon, James Easton & Son, R. Munro, Macdonald & Westaway, Michael Hesston and many others have long since gone out of business, and nearly all of the partners have joined the silent majority. Winter communication was at that time carried on by the steamer North Light, the pioneer boat, the service which had just begun plying on the Georgetown-Pictou route, although the ice had not yet put in an appearance, and the arrival and departure of several vessels to and from Georgetown is noted. Of interest to the pupils and teachers of the present Georgetown High School is a report of an examination of the High School, of that time, which had an enrollment of 120 pupils, with only two teachers. The examination was conducted by Mr. S. S. Peterson, school inspector for King's County, and it was recommended that in view of the large number of pupils in attendance, the trustees should engage a third teacher, an eminently practical suggestion, one would think, considering the circumstances. Prohibition of the liquor traffic was then unknown the sale of liquor by the hotels and some of the dealers being advertised. Some stirring events were transpiring, both in local and Dominion affairs. The Halifax Fishery Award had just been made and the leading editorial expressed the hope that the island would receive its just share of the award—a hope which after the expiration of forty years, has not yet been realized. The Davies Coalition Government, led by Hon. H. L. Davies, (now Sir Louis Davies) which then ruled the island, had recently passed an obnoxious Assessment Act, known to history as "The Davies Tax Curse" and public opinion was highly inflamed against the unpopular measure. The agitation which resulted in the defeat of the Davies government, was just beginning, and the Advertiser contained reports of indignation meetings at De Gros Marsh and Baldwin's Road, King's County, held for the purpose of protesting against its most recent legislation. The late Cyrus Shaw, for many years one of the leading members of the Provincial Legislature, was a speaker at the Baldwin's Road meeting in opposition to the Government that tax collectors were not any more popular than they have ever been, is shown by a rather humorous epistle addressed to a certain collector, who, it would seem, was inclined to employ the "mailed fist" in enforcing his demands on recalcitrant ratepayers. It is worthy of note, in view of the present earth shaking conflict, that a great European war was raging at that time, between the allied Russians and Roumanians on the one side, and the Turks on the other, and the telegraphic despatches announced the capture of Plevna, which the Turkish commander, Osman Pasha, had successfully defended for many months, against the Russians, until provisions having utterly failed he made a furious attempt to cut his way through the besieging forces, but was defeated and compelled to surrender, with his whole remaining army. The most remarkable contrast is seen in the market prices prevailing at that time, beef selling at 4 cts. per pound, pork 1 to 5 1/2 cts, mutton and lamb 6 cts, eggs at 14 cents the dozen, and potatoes 20 cents per bushel. For the old copy of the Advertiser, the Guardian correspondent is indebted to Mr. John McKinnon, the courteous and popular grocer of Kent street. The Advertiser was the second journal, the venture in Georgetown, a newspaper named "Ross's Weekly," having been previously published by the late John Ross, who took an active part in advocating the rights of the tenantry, and whose journal was the organ of the Tenant League. &

GERMAN OUTRAGES TOLD BY PREACHER

NEW YORK—The Rev. E. M. Bysche aroused the city's Methodist preachers at their regular weekly meeting yesterday to a high pitch of indignation by telling of his knowledge of poisoned candy which he said the Germans manufactured and ordered distributed by soldiers in Northern France and Belgium. He said he had seen both the candy and its effects upon children, especially in the towns of Northern France recently vacated by German troops. "Such conduct," said the Rev. Mr. Bysche, "is not war. The Germans claim their Kaiser to be very near to God; to be doing what He would have them do. I ask you what would be left for followers of the devil to do?"

"This is boiled down barbarism of the worst, of the most contemptible type. It merits death. There can be no doubt about who made the candy or who put it into secret places where children would be likely to find it. I speak of things I saw."

"Only a little less the doings of the devil were the going into vaults in cemeteries, throwing out bodies of the dead and making of the places scenes of revelry and drunkenness. One can charge off to war the burning of buildings, the blowing up of bridges, the destruction of towns; but the poisoning of wells, the ruin of fruit trees, the torture of animals, these are the acts of minds diseased of people who must be curbed in the interest of the rest of us."

PUBLIC ENQUIRY.

MONTREAL.—Judges McLeod and Teller publicly state that any evidence in the Galt Commission enquiry will be taken in public.

APRIL 1st, CASH BUYING

THE DAWN OF A NEW DAY IN OUR BUSINESS

The Cash System which we introduced on April 1st, enables us to offer you immense values in our different departments.

Our customers and the public in general, have been big enough to see that our somewhat severe terms are no reflection whatever on the financial standing of any customer.

If you knew there was a $5.00 bill between the pages of a book, you would look mighty careful, even if there wasn't a picture on every page. Lack of space prevents us from illustrating every article, but a careful inspection will disclose many opportunities for profitable purchases.

Our early buying enables us to offer you excellent values in our Millinery, Dry Goods, Boot and Shoe and Grocery Department.

We have just received two cars of Woven Wire from the N. B. Fence Co. which we are selling at the old price, and as there has been an advance of 15c per chain, with the probability of $2.25 for next year, we would advise early purchases for your future requirements.

- WE HAVE ALSO RECEIVED:—
- 500 LBS. ROBIN HOOD FLOUR.
 - 300 BAGS STANDARD MIDDINGS.
 - 300 BAGS GERMAN MIDDINGS.
 - 300 BAGS OIL CAKE.
 - 300 BAGS BRAN.

We wish to call the attention of all dairymen to "Germ Middlings," which has a better analysis than Oil Cake and is an ideal feed for your dairy cattle. Give it a trial and be convinced.

Special prices quoted on quantities of Feed and Flour. Freight paid on woven wire to all stations. Highest prices paid for washed or unwashed wool. Ask or write for prices.
