I., was united in marriage to Mr. Nelson E. McDonald of Oyster Bed Bridge. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Hayter. The bride wore a suit of blue with hat to match and was unattended. After the ceremony the happy young couple drove to North Milton, their future home. Both are estimable young people and many wishes are theirs for a long, prosperous and happy wedded life.

A quiet but pretty marriage took place at St. Joseph's church, Halifax, on the morning of Nov. 12th, when Miss Loreta Steele, daughter of Mr. Peter Steele, of Tracadie, P. E. WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet but very pretty wedding took place in the parsonage at New Glasgow, P. E. The bride's evening costume was of white silk crepe de chine daintily trimmed with satin ribbon and bead fringe. After the evening was spent in music on the Gramophone and organ the guests took their departure wishing the bride and groom many happy years of wedded life. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful brown fur coat. The costly presents received by the bride and groom testified to the esteem in which they were both held by their many friends.

Our obituary list today records the death at the residence of her son, New Westminster, B. C., of Mrs. Jane C. Macgowan, widow of the late John Macgowan, Esquire, aged 92. Having outlived all her contemporaries there are few remaining who can recall her in her prime when she filled a prominent place in the social life of that day. Her sparkling wit and rare conversational powers, graced as they did a strong personality impressed strongly any person with whom she came in contact. In early life she resided at Souris, where she reigned supreme, but spent much of her time in Ch'town. She took an active interest in the politics of her day and exerted no small influence. She was a staunch friend and was held in most affectionate regard by a large circle of acquaintances. Of late years she has resided with her son Daniel Hodgson Macgowan at New Westminster, where she died on the 19th inst. Of immediate relatives there survive her, her son, and a daughter, Mrs. Percy Pope, together with a large circle of grandchildren, among whom are Messrs. John and Thomas Morris, of this city.

RECEPTION AND PRESENTATION.—The St. Stephen, N. B., Courier says:—Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Ramsay, who, a few months ago, were the principals in a happy event, were guests of honor at a social function held at the home of Miss Mildred McCurdy in Milltown on Wednesday evening of last week. A large and representative delegation from the J. W. Scovill Co., St. Stephen, were present and added greatly to the evening's entertainment, which included music, vocal and instrumental. Miss Berla Smith presided at the piano. Games were also enjoyed, and the fortune teller, "Zubella," proved a most enjoyable feature in telling the past, present and future history of those present. Covers were laid for thirty-five and a sumptuous supper was served, at the close of which J. W. Scovill in behalf of the employees of the company, presented Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay with a handsome electric reading lamp, and also in behalf of the Oak Hill Co., made the happy couple the recipients of electric irons. "J. W." made happy reference to the many friends that Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay have made since coming from Charlottetown, P. E. I., and expressed the hope that their married life may continue to be one long and happy one, as smooth as the iron presented. Mrs. Ramsay briefly replied with thanks, and was followed by Mr. Ramsay, who expressed surprise, but found words sufficient to convey at present, the thanks of both himself and Mrs. Ramsay, in being remembered by their friends. The gathering motored to their respective homes at the midnight hour.

FRIDAY
WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage was solemnized Wednesday evening at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. G. C. Taylor, of Miss Beatrice Hicox, of Fredericton, and Mr. Philip McInnis of Charlottetown, recently returned from overseas. The marriage was a quiet one, only the attendants, Mr. Vernon McDonald, groomsmen, and Miss Alice Weeks, Fredericton, being present. The young couple were the recipients of many valuable presents from friends, including a valuable parlor clock from Messrs. Benjamin Poole and Murdoch McLeod, and a beautiful parlor lamp from Mrs. George Douglas, of the Arlington Hotel. The groom's present to the bride was a set of lynx furs. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McInnis and party repaired to the Arlington Hotel, where a sumptuous supper was prepared for them and which all heartily enjoyed. They will reside in Charlottetown. The Guardian extends congratulations and good wishes.

A sad death occurred in Charlottetown early yesterday morning, about 7 o'clock, or shortly before that hour, a telephone call was received at the Police Station stating that a man was lying on the street at the corner of Prince and Sydney Streets. Officers Allan and William McInnis at once proceeded to the place and were called to the Victory Hotel near by where they found Mr. Peter Keenan lying on the hall floor. They telephoned Large Bros. for a team and had the man removed to the station, where upon their arrival they at once telephoned for Dr. Jenkins. The doctor who came soon afterwards examined the unfortunate man and found him dead. Word was also sent to deceased's brother but he also arrived too late. Dr. Dewar, the coroner was next notified and after examining the body decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

The unfortunate man was first noticed lying on the street by Rev. P. F. Hughes, who happened to be passing and had him removed to the Victory Hotel. The Police officers declare that the man was living when and after his removal to the station. Deceased was a well known truckman and much sympathy is felt for his brother, Mr. Patrick Keenan, of this city and other relatives. Surprise has been expressed in different quarters that no inquest was held over this fatality. Reports of various kinds have been in circulation and in the public interest it is desirable that the fullest open investigation should be afforded so that there may be no doubt whatever as to the accidental nature or otherwise of the death of the unfortunate man.

Mrs. Samuel Casely died suddenly at her home in Kensington, Sunday morning, aged sixty-one years. She had been enjoying the best of health up to Friday at noon, when she was acutely stricken with paralysis. She died without regaining consciousness. Her funeral was held on Monday, Interment taking place in the cemetery of the Methodist Church, Margate. The pall bearers were her three sons, William H. Edward C. and Stanley, and three sons-in-law, John D. McLeod, John W. Hogg and G. H. Barbour. Rev. Mr. Ives was the officiating clergyman.

The funeral was large and was representative of the classes and creeds with whom Mrs. Casely, husband, and family are deservedly popular. Mrs. Casely was the daughter of the late Henry, Moses, New Annan, and the surviving members of her family are William Moses, New Annan, Herbert R., and Robert T., Kensington, and one sister, Mrs. John Palmer, Kensington.

Forty-nine years ago she was married to Samuel Casely, and settled near Kensington. Here she lived until five years ago when Mr. Casely retired from farming and settled in Kensington. She was a faithful wife and devoted mother and she reared a family of whom any mother might justly be proud. Her spirit was buoyant and her disposition kindly cheerful.

There are left to mourn her sudden death besides her three sons her disconsolate husband and her daughters, Mrs. J. D. McLeod, Coleman, Miss Bertie and Mrs. J. W. Hogg, Summerside, Mrs. G. H. Barbour, Howland, and Mrs. Alexander McLean, Peace River, Alta.

Her memory will be fondly cherished by the many friends who enjoyed the sunshine of her cheering acquaintance.

To the bereaved ones the sympathy of a sorrowing community is extended.—Y

HAVE YOU SCROFULA?

Now Said to Be as Often Acquired as Inherited.

It is generally and chiefly indicated by eruptions and sores, but in many cases it enlarges the glands of the neck, affects the internal organs, especially the lungs, and if neglected may develop into consumption.

It causes many troubles, and is aggravated by impure air, unwholesome food, bad water, too much heat or cold, and want of proper exercise. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the medicine that has been used with so much satisfaction by three generations, is wonderfully successful in the treatment of scrofula. Give it a trial.

If a cathartic or laxative is needed, take Hood's Pills,—there is nothing better for biliousness or constipation.

Through the pores of your skin must come every day two pints of waste matter. If the pores are not kept clean this waste matter stays in the system to poison it.
