WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday, January 18th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Crosby, Cornwall, when their daughter Marie Helena was married to Mr. John Gordon MacLean of Charlottetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. E. Atken, B. A., of Cornwall. The bride wore a gown of ivory georgette and velvet over shell pink crepe de chene and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Miss Peris Crosby, who was dressed in pink chiffon tulle and carried pink carnations. The wedding march was played by Miss Bessie MacLean of North Wiltshire, sister of the groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond and platinum brooch, to the bridesmaid and accompanist, silver compacts, and to the best man a diamond scarf pin. Mr. and Mrs. MacLean left Charlottetown Thursday morning on a trip to Montreal, New York and Boston. On their return they will live at 55 Upper Prince Street, where they will be at home to their friends after the second week in February.

SEARLETTOWN NOTES

Friends of Mr. Harry Sobey are sorry to hear of his being confined to his home with a slight attack of pneumonia.

Miss Clara Gallant returned home Saturday from an extended visit to her home in Mayfield.

Mrs. Irene Wood, Tryon, is spending the winter with her brother, Judson Blackmore, Searlettown.

Friends of Mr. Frazer Silliker are glad to see him around again after suffering a severe attack of blood-poisoning. Mr. Silliker has installed a beautiful radio, and his friends hope he and his family will spend many pleasant evenings listening in.

A very successful bean supper was held in the new Searlettown Hall on the 20th. There was a crowded house, everybody had a real jolly time, hoping the ladies of Searlettown would cook some more beans soon.

Mr. Roy Campbell, Hamilton, was a recent visitor to Searlettown and Bedouque.

Miss Jessie Heffel has returned home after spending a pleasant visit with friends in Cape Traverse.

The stork visited Searlettown on the 14th and presented Harry and Mrs. Sobey with a bouncing baby boy. Congratulations.

Mr. Horace Sobey and Mr. Glenn McLean, our enthusiastic potato-growers, are busy loading a car for Mr. Austin Scales at Albany.

Searlettown school is progressing rapidly under the very efficient management of Miss Ethel Holland.

UPS AND DOWNS IN TRYON AND VICINITY

The sudden drop in the temperature during the past few days was welcomed by most people, especially the younger set, who have been anxiously awaiting skating ever since the yuletide season. The last few days have undoubtedly been the coldest of the season. Old man weather has "struck his stride" at last—and I don't mean maybe!

Miss Mildred Smith returned to her home in Tryon, after a pleasant week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Macdonald of Crapaud, P. E. Island.

His comrades and friends are very glad to know that Master Asher Howatt is progressing favorably after undergoing an operation in the Prince County hospital, and hope to see him able to resume his studies at School again soon.

The friends of Mrs. Donald Bell, Tryon, are sorry to learn of her recent illness and hope it may not be of long duration.

Visitors to Victoria on Wednesday, January 18th, were the Messrs. Fred Leard, Bowley Leard, D. Bell and Camden Holland of Tryon.

The airplane carrying mail between Moncton and the Magdalen Islands has been noticed several times flying in the vicinity of Tryon. The sound of the motor can be heard quite plainly and markings on the body seen with the naked eye. The people here consider it quite a novelty to see the airplane, looking like a huge bird passing over, as many of them have never had the privilege of seeing one before.

The Misses Gertrude S. Howatt and Marion Howatt were visitors to Tryon North on Saturday, January 21st.

Messrs Thomas Allen and Jim Jeffreys, smelt fishermen on Tryon River, spent the week-end at their respective homes in Cape Traverse.

Mr. Austin Smith of Tryon was a recent visitor to the adjacent community of Crapaud.

Rev. George N. Somers, pastor of the United congregations of Tryon and Crapaud, recently was pre-seriously ill. It is rapidly gaining strength and hopes to be about within a couple of weeks.

The North Tryon rink, which was recently opened is providing lively recreation for the young and old in this vicinity, who enjoy the beautiful pastime of skating. This fine up-to-date rink, which was erected last winter and is being managed by Mr. "Bill" Pooley, is a very spacious one, besides being well lighted by electricity. It has a fine canteen, promenade along one side and one end and two warm dressing rooms, one for the ladies and the other for the gents. Just you watch "Bill" make it go, he is a genius with old cars, so why not sinks?

The indisposition of Mrs. Howard Francis of Branch Roads, is very much regretted by the community here, who hope she may continue to recover and be as well as ever again.

Master Elder Dawson of Arkustine Cove, made a flying visit to Tryon on Saturday, January 21st.

Brooklyn School Concert. On Wednesday, Dec. 21, a very enjoyable Christmas Tree and Concert was held in Brooklyn school. Each number on the program was well presented, showing the careful training of the pupils by their teacher, Miss Belle Bruce.
