FROM the St. John Sun of May 15th A Charlottetown letter of May 12 says: "Sorrow, sincere and unaffected was the prevailing feeling in Charlottetown on account of the death of Mrs. Malcolm McLeod. For many years she was our sweetest singer. She was known and respected by all. A talented, refined and cultured lady has passed away in the midst of her years. She was formerly Miss Florence Rankin."

IN Charlottetown on the 15th inst., to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Strang, a son.

At Pleasant View Cottage, on the 9th inst., the wife of Thomas D. Lyle, a son.

At Spring Valley, on May 2nd, 1899, Margaret Reid, relict of the late Mr. Angus McNeil, after a brief illness in the 86th year of her age.

On April 25th, in Central New Annan, N. S., George E. McKenzie, formerly of South Grayville, aged 15 years and 10 months. "I love the Lord because my voice and prayers He did hear."

At his late residence, New Argyle, on Sunday the 14th inst. 1899, Duncan McKinnon age 68 years, leaving four daughters and one son to mourn the loss of a loving and respected father. "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."

Fell asleep at Marie, on April 12th, Fred. G. Webster, aged 19 years, youngest and only surviving son of Margaret and the late Theo. Webster. For the third time in less than one short year, has death entered this home and deprived the widowed mother of her treasures one by one and left her alone. His sweet voice will be missed from the Sunday School, of which he was a member; but we trust he is now singing in realms of endless joy, where death can never come. To his mother we extend our sincere sympathy in her heavy bereavement.
