THE EDITOR'S MAIL

GUILTY PARTIES NOT BROUGHT TO JUSTICE.

DEAR SIR,—In a recent issue of THE GUARDIAN appears an article referring to an outrage perpetrated upon an innocent Indian in the usually quiet and peaceable settlement of Chelton, and up to the present no steps have been taken to bring the guilty parties to justice, notwithstanding that rumor has it that the parties are known and the authorities are pretty well conversant with the facts. Can it be possible that in this land of boasted equal rights, that because the victim chances to be a poor helpless Indian, that the authorities are going to allow such a crime to pass unpunished? If it had been the home of one of the white men long before this steps would have been taken, and the guilty parties in all probability would today be enjoying a vacation behind the iron bars.

Yours,
EQUAL RIGHTS,
Farmers and Freight Rates.

This week's issue of THE FARMING WORLD is a particularly valuable one. A most able and convincing editorial dealing with the transportation problem should be carefully studied by each one of our readers. This article deals especially with high freight rates and in a concise way summarizes the evidence gathered during the past year or two as to discrimination in rates against the Canadian farmer. Farmers' Institutes and other organizations are urged to take the matter up and endeavor to crystallize public opinion along definite aggressive lines in connection with this subject. Other matters of importance to farmers are dealt with. The issue also contains the official list of the Farmers' Institute meetings for January and February. THE FARMING WORLD is an up-to-date weekly agricultural paper and should be read by every farmer. Our readers will remember that they can receive THE FARMING WORLD and THE WEEKLY GUARDIAN both for $1.75. The remainder of this year free to new subscribers.

President Roosevelt refuses to grant an army commission to any man mean enough to jilt a girl whom he has promised to marry. In this, he will be endorsed. But a man not decent enough to dangle a sword might do well enough behind a gun. Put him in the front rank, and send him to the Philippines. A bullet or a bolo might put him in such a position that he would not do any more jilting.

CAUSE OF PEACE WITH THE INDIANS.

Are You Aware That MALT BREAKFAST FOOD

Nourishes the Brain as Well as The Body!

Malt Breakfast Food, owing to the fact that the starch and gluten of the Wheat are changed into forms that are quickly absorbed by the stomach, is the best blood enricher. The enriching and nourishing of the blood builds up all the important nerve centres, and keeps the brain clear and strong. It is for this reason that physicians and food experts recommend Malt Breakfast Food to business men, who depend largely on brain work and effort for success in their respective callings.

Malt Breakfast Food is fast becoming the favorite morning dish with all those who are called upon to sharply exercise brain power. Business and professional men will find in Malt Breakfast Food virtues for the production of sustaining energy and strength that oatmeal and other grain foods can never afford. Your Grocer recommends it.
