POLITICAL CHANGES OF THIRTY-SIX YEARS.

Thirty-six years ago the Conservatives were in power in the United Kingdom, led by Disraeli with a majority of 46 at his back.

In 1880 the Liberals came into power, led by Gladstone, with a majority of 62.

In 1885 the Conservatives returned to power under the leadership of Lord Salisbury in June, were succeeded by the Liberals under Gladstone in February 1886 and in August of the latter year the Conservatives led by Salisbury, again came in.

In 1892 the Liberals under Gladstone came back to power with the small majority of 39. The party was made up of 273 Liberals, 12 Anti-Parnellites and 9 Parnellites.

In 1890 the Unionists obtained a new lease of power and in 1902 Mr. Balfour became Premier. The majority was 134. The Opposition was composed of 186 Liberals and 82 Nationalists.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure.

The election of 1906 brought in the Liberals again with far the most sweeping majority of the generation. The ministerial party was made up of 387 Liberals, 84 Nationalists and 41 Laborites.

In the face of this record the alliance between Liberals, Nationalists and Laborites appears to have been fairly steadfast during a long term of years, whether in power or in opposition.

It will be noted that in seven of the eight general elections since 1874 and excepting only that of 1906, the average majority of the victorious party has been but 103.

Some results will follow. The budget will pass and with it the much controverted land tax and the increased taxes upon the liquor traffic will become law without delay.

The Ottawa by-election on Saturday last which resulted in the return of Mr. Allard, the ministerial candidate by a majority of 658, shows no change in the political complexion of that city.

LADIES' STRENGTH RESTORED

Terrible Weakness Caused By Shock.

"My baby was only two months old, and I was not very strong, when a telegram reached me that my husband in leaving one car in a Western City had been run down by another."

"My husband came home and made me take 'Ferrozone.' He had used it himself for nervousness the year before. Ferrozone is a good medicine all right. I took six boxes in all."

You'll find Ferrozone a tonic of wonderful potency—it's really surprising what nourishment, what strength-giving and nerve building qualities it contains.
