REMAIN ON THE STAND!!

In reference to the games being played here today and Monday, it might be a good suggestion if the Abergweits officials would find some way or means to keep the fans on the grandstand during the course of the games, also out of dressing rooms, which are crowded with "buttnies" at half time.

TRAINING CAMP FOR OLYMPIC ATHLETES

(Canadian Press) TORONTO, Nov. 9.—At a meeting of the Canadian Olympic Committee held here, it was decided that a training camp be established in Montreal under the auspices and direction of the Canadian Olympic Committee early in June 1924, to condition men for the final Olympic trial, which will be held in Montreal on a date to be fixed later between June 14 and 20.

OPEN AIR RINK FOR OLYMPIC HOCKEY GAMES

CHAMONIX, Nov. 9.—Arrangements for the fortnight of winter sports which are taking place here in connection with the Olympic championships next January are going ahead rapidly, and the big events promise to be held under ideal winter conditions that will be very much similar to those in the vicinity of northern Quebec where there is plenty of ice and snow and the winter sports can be staged without the aid of artificial ice or other assistance.

Chamonix, where the sports will be staged, is situated in the valley of the same name and lies in the shadow of Mont Blanc, it is from here that the trips to the summit of the high mountain begin. But a short distance away are the ever moving glaciers that creep down the mountain side into the valley and provide a never ceasing source of interest to the visitors. The town is one of the most charming winter resorts in Europe and consequently boasts of the finest accommodation in its hotels and other appointments.

The Canadian hockey team will be playing under rather strange conditions in some respects inasmuch as the games will be staged in the open air and it will probably be necessary to give the men plenty of time to get used to the rink before they have to enter the championship games. The town in which the rink is situated is high up in the mountains and also have the change in climate will also have to be considered by the foreign aggregations.

THE YOUNGER GENERATION

"I have a mind to give you a whipping," exclaimed the exasperated father. "Well, dad," replied the athletic youth, "maybe you can; but if you succeed it will be some item for the sport page."

University Football Captains

By Wood Cowan

Out in the Badger State they have a new man coaching at the State University this fall. While in the East new coaches plead for time to establish a "system," the West expects its coaches to deliver the first year.

Jack Ryan who has taken up the job at Wisconsin seems to have jammed a lot of his winning methods down the throats of his charges, judging by the way they have been playing the grand old gridiron game.

Ryan has been actively connected with football as a player, scout, official and coach for over 20 years. In 1910 he graduated from Dartmouth, where he played quarter half and end. Ryan has so successfully coached his teams that they have never been beaten by over 14 points, and in 10 years his clevers have piled up 1598 points to their opponents.

ST. F. X. WINS FROM PICTOU

ANTIGONISH, Nov. 9.—St. F. X. High School defeated the Pictou Academy team, football champions of Pictou County, here today by a score of 3-0. The game was fast and snappy throughout and furnished some of the best football seen here in years. In the opening period the visitors carried the play into St. F. X. territory with great vigor and only the great work of the St. F. X. tackles prevented their half back from breaking through. Though the Saints forwards succeeded in relieving the pressure on their line and carrying the ball into Pictou territory, the visitors' line was never much in danger in the first session.

The second period, however, told a different story. St. F. X. used its superior weight to good advantage in this session and had the Academy boys mostly on the defensive. With eight minutes to go, McLeod, the Pictou fullback, kicked a slippery return punt into the arms of Preston, the St. F. X. wing, who was thirty yards out and who promptly tore through for the only touchdown of the game.

er, half and end. Ryan has so successfully coached his teams that they have never been beaten by over 14 points, and in 10 years his clevers have piled up 1598 points to their opponents.

Ryan has had a big task on his hands at Wisconsin, for he has had to develop a team from practically new material. One veteran that he can rely on is Captain "Marty" Below, who was picked by all critics last year as the best tackle in the West.

Although weighing 195, Below is fast as a streak and handles himself well. He is shifty and one of the fastest charging forwards in the game. Time and again in the Chicago game, and later against Michigan, Below broke through and smeared the enemy for losses. He out-thinks his man and manages by some hook or crook to get through the line and get down on punts.

"Marty" hails from Oskosh, but he is no joke to his opponents or he has managed to live that handicap down, as far as football goes. It was at the Oskosh High School that the Badger leader received his football training.

By the way Wisconsin has been showing up, the coming meetings with Illinois, Michigan and Chicago should be gridiron classics.

ARGENTEUIL ACCLAIMS ITS WINE OF LONG AGO PARIS, Nov. 9.—The famous wine of Argenteuil has disappeared from the memory of living men, but there remains in France so keen an appreciation of what it once was that the people of this French town, a few miles outside Paris, recently celebrated the first making of this beverage a thousand years ago. Lacking even a single bottle of the wine they had, champagne was substituted by the merrymakers who met to toast a dead industry.

History abounds in references to the excellence of this product of the Argenteuil vineyards, and records also that many years ago the last bottle came from the press and was consumed. The railroads at that time began to bring wine to Paris from the south, and the fields of Argenteuil were turned over to the production of fresh vegetables for the tables of the capital. Today Argenteuil is known the country over for its asparagus, yet it was the making of the first wine, in the year 923, that was celebrated with music, speeches, a parade and general jollification.

HOW THEY STAND

The Dalhousie football team arrived in the city last night to play a two game series with the Abergweits and St. Dunstan line-ups. They will open hostilities by playing the red and white clan this afternoon at 3.30 and on Monday afternoon the Abbs will have an opportunity to swap punts and tackles with the invaders. This game will also start at 3.30 sharp.

The visitors are a likely looking arisen as to the relative avoitrud and hefty aggregation of athletes, pois of the visiting Dalhousie squad, and when the Saints and Abergweits and St. Dunstan's, their "week-end" program, they'll surely realize that football is a great game "if you don't weaken." On arrival they were met at the depot by His Worship Mayor Jenk-by far the lightest team of the ins, and later driven to the Victor- three, where they are now registered. Well, here's the "works" in a A great deal of conjecture hasnutshell,—approximately.

Table with columns for S. D. U. (Forwards, Quarters, etc.) and DALHOUSIE (Forwards, Quarters, etc.) with corresponding weights and average weights.

Sporting Comment

The chief topic of interest at the present time in local athletic circles are the football games today and Monday between Dalhousie vs Saints and Abergweits. For the benefit of the dopesters an approximate standing of the individual weights of the three teams is given above. If weight signifies to any extent Dal. will have the advantage over both the Abbs and St. Dunstan's, by outweighing the former and latter respectively slightly over three and fourteen pounds in the scrim, seven and fourteen pounds on the quarters and four and six pounds on the half line. It may be noted that the Saints have also the lightest back field man 150, while the Abergweits' full tips the beam at 170; the Dalhousians come next with 155. Weight is a big factor on a rugby squad if used right, and by all reports, the Tigers know how to use theirs to the best advantage; and then again the Saints who average lighter than the Abbs, gave the latter, perhaps a little more than an even argument in their last three meetings—Anyway today and Monday will prove the issue.

"Our Barney" has again turned up unexpectedly; this time in a double column heading on the Sporting page of the St. John Telegraph Journal, which states that Francis has arrived in that city and will compete in the Indoor Meet to be held there next Friday night. Barney, who is the present m/c Canadian champion will represent the Abergweits at this Meet, and P. E. Island fans are pulling for him to win out. Francis is not only a general favorite with the local sport loving public but it appears that he is fast making friends in the city of speedy skaters and fast ball players, and naturally he will be given the "glad hand" around and a sporting chance in his events, for which that city is noted. —Good luck Barney!

Jack Renault took a few jumps forward in his defeat of Floyd Johnson by a K. O., in 15 rounds in their recent meeting over in New York. Yet the Canadian heavy-weight has a long way to go before he will be in a class to tackle Jack Dempsey. Evidently that little sojourn that Renault had with Dempsey in Tiger Jack's training quarters for the Firpo fight did the Canadian a whole lot of good, for according to report of the fight, his actions against Johnson, Renault showed a lot of Dempsey stuff.

Acadia Held U. N. B. To Scoreless Tie

WOLFVILLE, N. S. Nov. 9.—The Acadia University Rugby team did the recent coaching of Dr. Leon Fluck proud today and held the U. N. B., considered sure winners, to a scoreless tie. Except for the superior dribbling of the Fredericton men and the kicking of Fraser and Secord, the Wolfville men had the better of the play. Acadia showed a superior half line and the forward line, except for dribbling, showed as well as that of U. N. B. John McCarthy, Halifax, refereed.

Crew of Howard Arrives in Halifax

HALIFAX, Nov. 9.—The crew of the wrecked Gloucester schooner, Elizabeth Howard, which struck a reef off porters Island, Halifax County, Wednesday afternoon, and within a few hours had broken to "kindling wood," arrived in Halifax late yesterday afternoon. They had sought shelter at Clam Harbor where they were well taken care of at Stoddard's Hotel. The American Consulate at Halifax sent motor cars for them yesterday and when they arrived at Halifax were taken to the Navy League Building. To a reporter of The Morning Chronicle last night the crew said that they had experienced very thick fog all along the way from Gloucester, from which port they had sailed last Friday for Bay of Islands to load herring. The schooner was in ballast and carrying a part cargo of salt. At the time they struck, the sea was quite rough, and all attempts to swing her off the ledge were futile. She immediately listed and started to break up, the keel of the schooner coming out a few minutes after she struck. Owing to the rapidity with which the schooner broke up, the crew was not able to save any of their effects, and were lucky to get away from the schooner without mishap to themselves. Late Wednesday night the masts came out of the vessel, and yesterday morning there was nothing left of her but splintered wreckage. One of the crew arriving last night not previously mentioned was Archibald Hill.

TEX'S SUCCESS IN FIGHT GAME

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The bout in which Jack Renault knocked out Floyd Johnson, of California, in the fifteenth round at Madison Square Garden on last Friday night, was the 119th boxing show Tex Rickard has staged since he became a promoter of fistic contests, on September 3, 1906. This number of events has taken up seventeen years and two months of Rickard's time. Rickard has paid over to the Government and New York State the enormous sum of $1,296,106.22 in taxes. The gross receipts of these 119 shows figure up $9,550,566.71. The most important of shows with money they drew are as follows:— Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier $1,626,680.00 Dempsey and Luis Firpo 1,188,525.30 Dempsey and Jess Willard 496,310.00 Leonard and Lew Tendler 363,033.15 Willard and Firpo 430,839.30 Mike Fend 350,037.00 Jeffries and Jack Johnson 270,715.00 Dempsey and Bill Brennan 162,760.20
