AFTER
SUPPER
SALE

We resume the money saving After Supper Sale this Saturday Evening from 7 to 10 o'clock

We wonder if you realize the saving possibilities these after supper sales hold out to you. You only have to come to learn, then you will "get the habit" and come to everyone. While we were forced to stop them during the Christmas rush we are now renewing them as a regular weekly bargain feature—every special after supper sale offering is underpriced—radically. That means savings in every instance—nickles—dimes—quarters—half dollars and dollars we saved on every purchase—according to the amount of your purchase.

We would like to know exactly what amount of saving these after supper sales have aggregated several of our patrons, we have an idea that many of our patrons are from $25.00 to 100.00 to the good.

That's a good way to start a bank account.
 Note these exceptional offerings and come.

On Thursday afternoon it was rumored that a steamer in this city had met with an accident, resulting in a broken limb but all enquiry failed to substantiate this report.

The Marshfield Farmers' Institute meets this evening at seven-thirty, in Hearz Hall, to transact important business. The hour was indistinct in yesterday's issue.

The funeral of the late Mrs John McKinnon will take place from her late residence, 31 King St, west tomorrow afternoon at 2.45 to St Duncan's Cathedral thence to the Ro-

Miss Lucy Hughes, City, left Thursday night on a trip to Boston. She was accompanied by her aunt, Mrs.
 Harrington, City, who is on her way to Bermuda where she will spend the winter.

The Minto arrived in Georgetown yesterday morning at nine forty five.
 She brought over 85 bags of mail, 2 cars of way freight and eighteen passengers. The special to the city arrived at noon. The Earl Grey arrived in Pictou at nine thirty five.

On Monday night the boys of the Y. M. C. A. will give an interesting program. There will be an excellent calendar display and about two dozen beautiful hand coloured photographs of the work of Lombard and Coady of Minneapolis. The boys will also give good programs of readings, songs and a mock trial. Home made candy will be sold. Everyone is invited to come.

The many friends here of Mrs Henry Mispeth McLeod will be pained to learn of her death which occurred at the residence of her daughter, Mrs (Rev) A. W. Mahon, at St Andrew's, N. B. Her remains are to arrive by the S. S. Earl Grey and will be interred at the Marshfield burying ground today.

The rink managers received a wire yesterday from Fred Logan the world's champion skater of 1908, saying he will be here for the championship races at the Arena next Wednesday night. On leaving here he goes straight to Saranac Lake, Ne-York, for the American championship from there to Montreal for the Canadian championship. The Arena managers deserve great praise in bringing such a noted skater to Charlottetown.

Paton & Co, City, have decided to send their Miss Dorion to Paris, France, and London, England, to order their spring goods, this year.
 Miss Dorion who leaves early in February, has for several years been doing the firms buying in New York and her superior taste has been duly appreciated by the buying public who entrusted her with many personal orders. Miss Dorion has issued an invitation to all who may wish her personal selection during this trip. of articles in any line and has enclosed a comprehensive list of suggestions. The firm is to be congratulated on their enterprise as Miss Dorion is a most capable and painstaking buyer and her efforts will no doubt be much appreciated.
