This was Miss McCabe's first visit to the Province and she noticed with pleasure the beautiful public buildings, paved streets and concrete sidewalks in the city. She particularly admired the happy contented looking homes that abounded in the country districts, the straight line fences and abundant crops. Miss McCabe has travelled extensively in the United States as far West as Denver, Colo, and on her return she visited with her brother Judson, who is a successful contractor in Winnipeg, and of all the places she saw in her travels there were none to compare with this Province as a summer resort.

At the City Police Court yesterday the amusing case of Ernest (Chick) Davy, vs Henry Weeks, for procuring money under false pretences came up before His Honor. Three witnesses Golden Carr, Henry Weeks, and Joe McAleer were examined and from their evidence it appears that Davy got young Carr to fill a bottle with water, saying he was going to get a drink of whiskey and wished to water it down. Carr went to get the water and Davy met Henry Weeks, whom he asked if he wanted to buy a bottle of gin. Weeks said no. Davy then offered him the bottle for seventy five cents and Weeks accepted the offer asking where the bottle was. Davy stated that it was coming now, just as Carr came up with the bottle of water. Weeks took the bottle of water examining the contents and went on his way. He met Joe McAleer and asked him to have a drink. McAleer tasted the supposed gin and told Weeks it was water. Weeks tasted it and found it to be true. Weeks then went after Davy whom he tried to make refund the seventy five cents but Davy walked on with "I'll see you later." Davy was found guilty and sentenced to one month's imprisonment. W. A. Weeks for the defence; the City Marshall for plaintiff. An assault case from Nine Mile Creek, was dismissed.
