Phil McDonald Selected For Canadian Olympic Team

AMERICAN OLYMPIC TEAM LEFT FOR PARIS YESTERDAY

Total Of 253 Athletes Representing Eight Branches Of Sport, Embarked From Hoboken.

(Special to Guardian.)

NEW YORK, June 18.—A modern argosy, bearing a jasonic host in quest of the golden fleece of international athletic triumph, will set sail tomorrow when the main body of America's Olympic team departs for Paris and the 1924 world's championships.

105 Track Stars.

Headed by a track and field array of 105 stars, a total aggregation of 253 men and women athletes who will carry the Yankee shield in eight different branches of competition will embark from Hoboken on the specially chartered steamer America. The departure is scheduled to take place at noon, Eastern Standard time, to the accompaniment of a fitting patriotic farewell demonstration.

In addition to the track team, the expedition will include, according to official announcement tonight 11 gymnasts, 26 boxers, 17 wrestlers, 36 men and 24 women swimmers, seven cyclists, 17 fencers and 10 oarsmen.

Yale Eight to Sail Saturday.

The Yale varsity eight, which won the right to represent the United States in the Olympics by a record-breaking victory in the final trials at Philadelphia yesterday, is scheduled to leave on the Homeric next Saturday, the day after the Blue Boat, attempting one of the most unusual campaigns in aquatic annals, rows its annual four-mile race with Harvard at New London, Conn.

Seldom in the nearly 30 years of Olympic history has the United States assembled so formidable a collection of athletic stars in defence of the laurels this country has carried off consistently since the first games at Athens in 1896. Particularly is this true of the track and field squad, which, in spite of the fact that it faces probably the stiffest competition of all time, will sail with high hopes of triumph as a result of the spectacular showing made in the final tryouts at the Harvard Stadium.

Much New Olympic Timber.

No more sustained brilliancy has ever been witnessed in a track meet than that displayed in the two-day tests at Cambridge, where the pick of talent from all parts of the couhtry, in a desperate and thrilling battle for places, smashed three world's marks and eclipsed Olympic records in 14 instances.

Though veterans held their share of the limelight the vast majority of the team that emerged from the trials is composed of new Olympic timber, school and college stars upon whose youthful shoulders the brunt of the international battle will rest. Only a score of those picked for the team are survivors of the 1920 Olympics at Antwerp, but the sensational fashion in which new-comers met the acid tests convinced observers that America is prepared for the crucial fight as she seldom has been before.

ROBBIE MADE JOIE PASS UP 1500 METRES

JOIE RAY

Joie Ray has fulfilled one of his greatest ambitions—to make a place on the present Olympic team. But the little Chicago wizard can thank the foresight of Head Coach Lawson Robertson for his triumph. Joie in his very confident manner believed the 1500 metres was just made for him. Robbie believed otherwise and knew Ray would find a softer field in the longer grind. It will always be a matter of speculation whether Joie could have held his own with that speedy 1500 metre bunch. But Ray won an Olympic tryout final. So he should worry.

Finland Dangerous Rival

Finland, the little country whose athletes tied the United States in first place honors with nine victors four years ago, will lead the rival charge at Paris, but predictions were made today that Uncle Sam has at least a dozen potential Olympic champions in the array that embarks tomorrow.

Jackson Scholz of the New York A. C., hero of a remarkable comeback, who smashed the world's 200-metre dash record twice in successive days, heads a group of ten brilliant sprinters, who also include Chester Bowman of Syracuse, conqueror of Scholz and Charley Paddock, the Olympic champion, in the 100-metre final, and Frank Hussey, New York schoolboy, who gained a place on the team by proving his mettle against the world's greatest sprinters in his first test in competition with them.

Distance Runs Weakest Spot.

Other luminaries are J. Coard Taylor of the New York Athletic Club and Ray Robertson of the Boston A. A., who shared the world's 400-metre run record; Joe Ray, veteran mile champion who will bid for Olympic triumph at 3000 metres instead of 1500; George Taylor of Grinnell College, who showed phenomenal speed over the 400-metre hurdles, and Bill Richardson of Leland Stanford, victor over a remarkable 800-metre field; besides a host of stars in the field events.

The distance runs are America's weakest spot, though a few stars such as Verne Booth of Johns Hopkins, Johnny Gray of Philadelphia, John Roomig of Penn State and R. Earl Johnson of Pittsburg are potential point winners.

Spearow's Chest Cost Him a First

NEW YORK June 18—Ralph Spearow of the University of Oregon has made his place on the American Olympic team but he isn't going to shove his chest out about it. In fact it was this same chest that prevented Spearow from topping the field at 13 ft. 4 in. Twice he got over the bar only to flip off the bar with his chest as he was descending. Chest his luck so to speak.

Epinard To Sail For U. S. in July

PARIS, June 18.—Pierre Wertheimer has cancelled all Epinard's engagements in England and intends sailing with his famous horse direct to New York from Havre during the early part of July..

Wertheimer said the horse is coming round first rate and has suffered no ill-effects from the match race with Sir Gallahad, and the other engagement where he met defeat by Premontre at Longchamps.

"My plans for my American trip remained unchanged", said M. Wertheimer.

Elliot McGuigan Will Receive The Moncton Merchants' Cup

MONCTON, N. B., June 18.—At a meeting of the committee which so successfully put on the Moncton city sports of the Maritime Olympic finals here on June 7th, held in the city Building last night, it was decided that Elliott MacGuigan, 17 year-old Charlottetown athlete, who won two first places in the open events, namely the 100 yard dash and the running broad jump, and who also defeated the Olympic broad jump man, who was in training at Rothesay, some time previous to the meet, should receive the Merchants Cup. He by virtue of his three firsts, had a total of 15 points, while four of his nearest rivals had ten points each.

Due to some misunderstanding this action was not taken by the scorers of the meet, who decided to wait until the first meeting of the executive to straighten the matter out.

The Twilight Sports which were to be held yesterday evening at the Abegweit grounds will be held this evening at 7:15.

He that leaves certainty and trusts, when fools pipe he mus dance.

"OUR PHIL"

Although nosed out in the four hundred metre hurdles yesterday, he was nevertheless selected as one of Canada's representatives at the Olympic Games.

Minard's Liniment For Coughs

Jack Dempsey Has "Softened"

NEW YORK, June 18—The taming of the wild hair of Dempsey by the use of Slickerine or whatever the compound may be, seems to make the most startling physical change in him. It calls to mind a pet theory of John E. Madden, who knows everything about breeding horses and considerable about prize-fighting.

"When there are two fighters about equal merit," said Mr. Madden, "I go close to them and look at the hair near the eyes. The one with the coarser hair is the better fighter. And I do the same thing with horses. It is an almost infallible sign."

There are no available statistics upon which Mr. Madden's theory can be tested. Mr. James J. Jeffries certainly was a hairy person, and he certainly could fight. On the other hand, Mr. Arthur Pelky, the celebrated horizontal battler, was almost as hairy, and Mr. Pelky could not fight. Consequently, off hand, the hirsute theory does not sound so good.

With the slicking of Mr. Dempsey's hair comes a general softening of "The Killer's" features. This is especially evident when the champion, as Jack O'Day, a young man of very noble character, is looking at one of the various heroines. The moon-calf expression with which the simple young heroes of the silent drama are expected to look upon the heroines to be simulated by Mr. Jack Dempsey with astonishing naturalness.

Somehow that mooncalf expression seemed to come into the normally ferocious countenance of the heavyweight champion all too easily. As a Valentino Mr. Dempsey was a bit mushy, as they say If that look lingers in his countenance some of the "logical contenders" will be wanting to take a sock at it just for the pure enjoyment of the sock The "movies" seem to have softened the champion where Mr. Gibbons and Senor Luis Angel Firpo failed

SAM LANGFORD'S MISTAKE

(Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 18.—"The biggest mistake I ever made in my life brought about the first knockout they ever scored against old Sam," Sam Langford ,the heavyweight champion of Mexico, and sometimes of Boston, speaking.

"It was in the fight with Harry Wills at Panama City, in the bull ring. My left eye was stone blind and the right the one that Dr. Smith has just fixed up, was almost useless.

"We fought in the daytime, and that was awful for me as the light blinded me. I just could see Harry's form moving in front of me. We were going along and I wasn't getting any the worst of it when I gets a hard left jab in the mouth.

"It set me back on my heels and I knew Wills well enough to figure that he'd follow that left jab with a right cross to my jaw. There was just a move along those lines. Then I made the biggest mistake of my life.

"Figuring that his right was going to follow the left jab, I deliberately stepped toward his left on my blind side, but he fooled me, I expected him to come by land, and he came by water.

"He didn't shoot though, but when I stepped toward his left to get away from it he switched and hooked me with a left to the jaw.

"You know Harry can tap. 'Deed he can tap. Well, sir, when I next remembered, I was sitting in my corner. I looked around and said to Joe Woodman. 'Joe, where's all the folks?' The bull ring was empty. I could see that much. Joe, he says, 'Sam, the folks have all gone home to dinner.'

"'What happened?'

"'Nothing much happened, Sam, except that you forgot to duck.'

"That's the only mistake I ever made in the ring. I tried to outthink Harry. I expected him to come by land, but he came by water."

PHIL MCDONALD NOSED OUT BY MONTABONE IN 400 METRE HURDLES

McAuley, McDonald and Malcolm, Only Maritime Athletes To Make Showing Yesterday—Great Joy in Charlottetown When it is Learned That Phil McDonald is "Among The Chosen"

(Canadian Press Special)

MONTREAL, June 18. — G. Hester, Ontario, won the special hundred meter race at the opening this afternoon of the second day of the Canadian Olympic Trials. The race was run over because Hester,, who did the fastest time in the heats of the 100 meter dash yesterday protested that after three false starts in the final for which he was not to blame, he was finally left at the post.

C. Coaffee and L. Armstrong first and second respectively in the final yesterday, will be credited with these performances when the team is chosen, but the officials were anxious to give Hester and McKechnnesy, Quebec, the latter complaining he collided with a spectator in the final, another chance—Hester, without being pressed equalled the Olympic record time for the distance 10 4-5 seconds and beat the Canadian record of 11 seconds. Coaffee did the 100 meters in 10 4-5 yesterday.

McDonald nosed out in 400 meter hurdles.

LATER

Phil McDonald selected for the Canadian Olympic team.

Putting 16 pound shot—A. Malcolm, Maritime Provinces won; J. Murdock, British Columbia second; C. Neilson, Manitoba, third. Winners distance 40 feet 4 inches. (Olympic record 51 feet quarter inch.)

400 metres hurdles—W. J. Montabone, Quebec, won; P. McDonald Maritime Provinces, second; J. Wylie, Ontario, third. Time 57 5-8 seconds (Olympic record 54 4-5 seconds, Canadian record 58 4-5.)

Pole Vault—V. Pickard, Ontario won; K. J. Francis, Ontario second; L. McDonald, Maritime Provinces, third. Winner's height 12 feet. (Olympic record 13 feet 5 inches.)

10,000 metres (six miles 376 yards)—J. Cutherbert, Ontario, won; V. McAulay, Maritime Provinces second; G. L. Adriere, Quebec third. Time 33 minutes 14 1-5. (Olympic record 31 minutes 20 4-5 seconds.)

Make Your Youngster the Happiest in Town

EVERY real boy or girl who hasn't a bicycle wants one.

If your boy hasn't one he must feel pretty blue to be left behind when his chums ride gayly off to a picnic, or to play ball on the commons a mile or so away, or for a jaunt in the country with the Boy Scouts.

Far better for him to be out riding than loitering on a street corner.

Cycling is one of the cleanest of sports and healthiest of exercises. The pleasure and benefits your boy will receive from riding with the Scouts, or with any of the other organizations active in promoting a standard of clean, manly boyhood in Canada, will repay, many times over, the small cost of a C.C.M. Bicycle.

Just think of the whoop of joy your boy would let out tonight if you told him you were going to get him a bicycle. When you take him down to the C.C.M. dealer's to pick it out he will be the happiest boy in town.

Every C.C.M. Bicycle is a bear for punishment. It will stand up under the hardest usage a healthy boy will give it. The frames of reinforced English Seamless Tubing are marvels of strength. The bearings are of flint-hard steel of extreme accuracy. The rims of second growth hard maple are exceptionally durable. The lustrous enameling and bright nickeling are weather-proof.

The boys' and girls' models, as well as adults, are equipped with the famous Triplex Crank Hanger, that makes pedalling so easy, and with the C.C.M. Hercules Brake that coasts so freely and stops so quickly

There's a model for your boy whatever his age—including the Curved Bar model, the bicycle the boy won't outgrow, and a dashing Sport Model for the older boys and adults. Also neat, trim models for girls. C.C.M.s are $15 to $20 less than the "peak" prices. A Big Dollar's Value for every dollar you invest in a C.C.M.

Take your boy or your girl with you to the C.C.M. dealer's. Get the bicycle now and let him enjoy a whole long season's pleasure. You can pay in instalments if desired.
