THE COCKEYED MIRACLE
BROAD COMEDY FARCE OF PAIR OF BLITHE SPIRITS
The laughs come long and loud in "The Cockeyed Miracle," new M-G-M farce showing on the Prince Edward screen with Frank Morgan, Keenan Wynn, Cecil Kellaway and Audrey Totter heading a rollicking cast.
Based on the provocative theory that a man is privileged to settle the affairs of his family before wending his way heavenward, the story casts Morgan as the late Sam Griggs who has died without being certain that his widow will be properly taken care of. This means that his daughter, Jennifer, won't be able to marry her boy friend Howard, and also that his son, Jimmy, won't be able to pursue his ambition to become a shipbuilder.
Consequently when Sam's father, Ben, who has died some fifty years before, comes to guide Sam to his celestial reward, the latter refuses to go until he can be certain that the tangled affairs of his family are straightened out. This requires some remarkable intervention upon the part of the astral ghosts in the lives of the various members of Sam's family and also some ingenious feats upon the part of the experienced Ben, including the creation of a storm or two, but in the end Sam's widow is assured of a lifetime income, Jennifer is able to claim her husband, and Jimmy gets his ship-building job.
