LINKLETTER SCHOOL.

The semi-annual examination of Linkletter school was held Monday evening, January 11. There were about fifty visitors and rate payers present, thus showing the keen interest that was taken in education. The school room was neatly decorated with spruce and other decorations for the occasion.

The pupils were examined in the many different subjects by their teacher, Miss Myrtle Stewart, and by their prompt and accurate replies showed they had been carefully taught. Mr. Harry Harvey, secretary of the school, acted as chairman, and after the examination of the pupils the following programme was carried out:—

Opening address, Mabel Linkletter; recitation, Leo Carver; song by eight girls; reading, Albert Linkletter; recitation, Kathleen Carver; recitation, Audrey Harvey; song, Lisa Clark, Myra Murray, and Blanche Linkletter; recitation, Arthur Jeffrey; dialogue, whole class; recitation, Ora Jelly; recitation, Blanche Linkletter; dialogue, Audrey Harvey and Leo Carver; recitation, Ernest Clarke; closing chorus, Till We Meet Again.

At the conclusion of the programme remarks were made by the trustees and ratepayers on the successful work done by the teacher during the past term.

A treat of home made candy was then given to each pupil, and to everyone present. The teacher was the recipient of a handsome gift from the pupils. The proceedings of the evening were brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

...Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from torpid, coated tongue, bad breath, coated stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, indigestion, gas, wind and stomach cructations call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach," writes a New York physician.

Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition is known as catarrh of the stomach. It is a dangerous disease because it is so common and it is so easily treated. The first sign of a deadly disease is a dead belly.

In catarrh of the stomach a good and safe treatment is to take Bismarcked Magnesia in half a glass of hot water as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water washes the mucus from the stomach walls and drains the blood to stomach, while the Bismarcked mucus is an excellent solvent for mucus and increases the efficiency of the hot water treatment. Moreover the Bismarcked Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach and sweeten the food contents. Easy, natural digestion without distress of any kind should soon follow. Bismarcked Magnesia is not a laxative, is harmless, pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any local druggist. Don't confuse Bismarcked Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, milks, citrates, etc., but get it in the pure Bismarcked form (powder or tablets) especially prepared for this purpose.

FAREWELL PRESENTATION

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 21st the people of Covehead gathered for a farewell party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. MacDonald, who to the regret of all are moving from Covehead to the Royalty of Charlottetown. When all had gathered and the large house was filled with friends Mr. Matthews was elected as chairman and in a few well chosen words indicated the many ways Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald had entered into the hearts and lives of the community, voicing the appreciation of everyone and expressing regret at this departure. Presentation of a fine mantle clock and parlor rocker was made by Messrs. Ramsay Auld and Miller Bearisto, the following address being read by Rev. Thos. A. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. MacDonald: We you, friends and neighbors of Covehead have gathered tonight to express our sincere regret at your departure from our community and to assure you that you are leaving behind hearts and kindly memories behind.

We know that you will be greatly missed from among us for you have endeared yourselves to us all. You have entered heartily and cheerily into our social life and have been ever ready to bear your full share of every activity for the wellbeing of our community. You have entered into our church life and strengthened our hands and hearts by your inspiring and cheerful readiness to help in every way you could. And you have been friends and neighbors to us in the more personal and social ways that so add to the happiness of life, and bind our hearts together in mutual friendship and goodwill.

We have brought these gifts as tokens of our friendship to carry with you into your new home. We know you will not forget us, but we like to feel that with new friends entering into your lives, you will always have these mementos present with you to remind you of those you have left behind.

In the name therefore of your friends and neighbors of this community we ask you to accept these tokens of our appreciation and friendship. We pray that happiness, success and the blessing of God may attend you and your family in your new home, which we rejoice to know will not be so far away but that we can hope to see you and greet you from time to time.

Signed on behalf of the community. Messrs. Matthews, R. Auld, M. Bearisto, I. Shaw, I. Carr, G. Bearisto, Rev. T. A. Wilson.

Mr. MacDonald replied for himself and wife thanked all in very feeling words, evidently touched by the thoughtfulness and appreciation of his neighbors. He was convinced he could not find kinder neighbors anywhere and assured all of the happiness experienced in living in the community.

Brief expressions of appreciation and regret were made by Messrs. Ira Carr, Geo. Bearisto and others after which all united in singing "Blest be the tie that binds." After refreshments an impromptu programme was called forth spontaneously and greeted with joyous applause, concluding with "Auld Lang Syne" with hands around the house, "God Save the King" and "God be With You till we Meet Again."

The following programme was given: Charlottetown Fair, E. MacMillan. Solo, "Irish Revel," Bearisto. Reading, "Rael Weel," Miss Vessey. Reading, Deacon Brown's Courtship, Mrs. W. MacMillan. Solo, "Stilly Night," Rev. T. A. Wilson. Reading, "The Parson's Visit," Miss G. Friel. Reading, "Comics," Mrs. R. Auld. Reading, "The Monkey," C. Matthews. Solo, "Something Good," I. Carr. Reading, "The Fasse Wife," F. Hughes. Solo, "Mother Macree," Miss Jessie Bearisto. Reading, "The Lighthouse," Miss C. Matthews. Solo, "Juanita," Miss F. Hughes. Reading, "Father's Day," G. MacMillan. Duet, "Better Still," Ira and Roy Carr. "Auld Lang Syne," God Save the King, "God be With you till we meet again."
