The Guardian was yesterday given three heads of timothy, out in bloom picked by Henry Wood, Mt. Herbert from his hayfield. This is something exceptional on June 4th and augurs well for the fertility and growing powers of Prince Edward Island.

As Layton Jones, Pownal, was resting his team a few days ago his backney mare got her foot over the leading rope and fell back on the wheel harrows inflicting quite a gas' above the neck. It was with some difficulty that the flow of blood was stopped.

Quite an enjoyable social was given the members and friends of Central Christian Church, Charlottetown, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Williams, Prince St., Monday evening.

A large number were present who were thoroughly entertained by games, music and refreshments.

Rocky Point is this year tempting large numbers to leave the hot city and enjoy its cool, balmy air. Not a day passes but parents and children send their way to the Rocky Point boat and enjoy the lovely sail over, under the capable management of Mr. Murphy.

This outing, so cheaply acquired, means health and happiness to the youngest child and parents who are anxious to keep them in the fresh air, where no harm can come to them, should form the habit of sending them on this delightful outing.

Oveid Peters, who is supplying for Rev Mr. Styles, who is on a trip to England, preached his first sermon in the Pownal Methodist Church on Sunday evening. His text was from the 15th chapter of John, 4th verse—'At the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me.'

Peters is a young man of good ability and pleasing address. The sermon was an up-to-date presentation of the truth. The similes were well drawn and a good impression was made on the large congregation.

On Monday night Charlottetown nest of the Order of Owls, No 1625, was visited by H. C. Perry, of Moncton, one of the Maritime Provinces organizers, and a most profitable evening was spent. He gave a lengthy and interesting address on the aims of the order, the exemplification of degrees, etc. During the course of his remarks he pointed out the social features and hoped before long to see the Charlottetown Nest fitted out with a first class amusement hall.

Explaining the degrees he showed that there were only 150 second degree living members and only 50 third degree. The fourth degree is only conferred after long and faithful service. The degrees are all conferred at South Bend, Ind., the travelling expenses being paid by Home Nest. He also told the meeting of the Orphan's Home, where children of deceased members are looked after sent to school and taught a trade.

This home is supported by the members who thanked Mr. Perry for his 40 cts a year, the lowest de Capita tax of any fraternal society in the world. At the close of his address remarks were made by several members who thanked Mr. Perry for his attendance and for the information he imparted to the meeting. He left yesterday morning for Souris.
