Canadians Wont Put Up With Arrogance. Three Elections by Acclamation. Many Divisions Voting Today. Mr Chamberlain Still Very Ill.

Special to The Guardian. LONDON, Jan 14.—Lord Roberts wrote to a meeting of Head Masters at the Guild Hall that while in Canada he noticed with pain and surprise that Canadians did not view Englishmen with unalloyed satisfaction. It must be remembered he wrote that Canadians would not put up with our arrogance and the belief of our young men that colonial ways are not so good as English ways. Three to nothing in favor of the Unionists is the tally at the end of the first day of the elections. Jos Chamberlain, for Birmingham West, was the first man entitled to append the letters "M. P." to his name, though he never will take his seat in the House. The other successful ones were Hills, for Durham City and Guinness for St Edmunds. The first real test of strength will come tomorrow when a dozen London constituencies and such industrial

JAPAN MAY YET ABSORB KOREA

When or How Will Depend Upon Attitude of the Korean People.

Special to The Guardian. TOKIO, Jan 14.—The possible annexation of Korea to Japan continues to excite interest and discussion in the nation. The Government has no immediate intention of the annexation of Korea. Annexation in the future is more or less certain, but if the Koreans lend themselves to a Japanese protectorate to enable Japan to deliver their resources and make Korea a valuable ally, actual annexation may be indefinitely postponed. Otherwise it is the only step remaining to clear the situation.

DETROIT, Jan 14.—Owing to the snow drifts more than a dozen trains laden with passengers are stalled north of Grand Rapids. They were marooned last night. # SUDDEN DEATH OF BENJ. D. SHARP

Special from Guardian Branch. SUMMERSIDE, Jan. 14.—Citizens of Summerside received a terrible shock last night when it became known that Benjamin D. Sharpe, one of the most robust and popular young men of the town, had been stricken down and suddenly called away. Mr Sharp had been around town all day in his usual good health. In the evening about 7.30 while at his home he became suddenly ill. Dr Jardine and Alex. McNeill were immediately called but no effort of theirs was of any avail and in about fifteen minutes he had passed away of paralysis of the heart. Mrs Sharp was a son of James A and Mrs Sharp and was in the twenty-fourth year of his age. He was a general favorite with all classes in Summerside and his death will be deeply lamented. The bereaved family will have the sympathy of all in their sad and sudden loss of a dear son and an affectionate brother.

STRATHCONA'S OFFER DECLINED

Montreal City Council Says the Typhoid Scare Has Been Exaggerated.

MONTREAL, January 13.—At today's meeting of the city council a cable was read from Lord Strathcona offering Montreal the services of a London health expert to investigate the causes of the typhoid prevalent. The offer did not impress Mayor Payette and the aldermen, who feel that the typhoid situation has been exaggerated as a newspaper boom and it was left to his worship to reply to the high commissioner. Today the finance committee in charge of the emergency hospital declined to accept the civic grant voted, taking the view that acceptance of the money would relieve the council of its early negligence. There are seventy patients in the emergency hospital, but only one new case turned up today. Out of 12,000 pupils in the Protestant schools there are only seven cases of typhoid.

THE HOUSE OF 1000 CANDLES

AERIAL MEET STARTS WITH MANY COMPETITORS

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 13.—A faultless day, dawning cloudless and bringing with it a mere zephyr of a breeze opened the International Aviation meeting at Dominguez Junction to-day and witnessed the first competitive trials of aeroplanes in America. All of the machines were tested early. Scores of French, British and American mechanicians brought here by the aviators and dirigible pilots were busy tuning up the delicate mechanism that drive the nine bi-planes and monoplanes which are entered for the contests and the big cigar-shaped air craft belonging to Knabenshue, and when the main body of the throng of spectators began arriving before noon everything was in readiness. The grandstand with the tiers of boxes holds nearly 20,000 people. They were crowded before the first attempt at flight—made the beginning at 2.30 o'clock, three car trains were run every two minutes from the city and it was estimated that the facilities at hand were capable of handling 15,000 persons in forty minutes. It was announced early that Glenn H. Curtiss would make the first flight to-day and would be followed probably by Paulhan and the two aviators, Paulhan brought from France with him, Miscalor and Meisson. Curtiss said that his flights to-day would have an important bearing on his patent controversy with the

Mr Fullerton presided and introduced the speaker of the evening with a few appropriate remarks. The address was delivered in Mr Bartlett's inimitable style and was accompanied by over a hundred stereoscopic views which served to impress on the minds of his hearers the verbal descriptions of the speaker. The evening was one of genuine amusement and valuable instruction not soon to be forgotten by those present. The lecture was conducted under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. of St. James' Church.

AGRICULTURIST AT TRURO N. S.

Among the students from P. E. Island attending the Agricultural College, Truro, N.S. are at least six who were in attendance last year. These students are paying their own way. This gives a good idea of what they think of the course. On Thursday morning Prof Cummings took up the feeding of Live Stock. The Maritime Provinces are particularly adapted to the growing of roots and all should be grown that can be. The average man in this vicinity raises his turnips for about 6c per bushel and a good feeder can take at least 10c per bushel out of them. Nova Scotia has increased its root area by about 20 per cent last year. There is no food the equal of it to give cattle a start in the autumn.

ABEGWEITS WON IN BOTH GAMES

Senior Abbeys 1 Junior Abbeys 0. The above is the score of the two first hockey matches played in the Arena rink last night for the championship of this Province. The attendance was good and the ice was in perfect condition. The citizens band furnished excellent music. There was no score in the first half of the senior game. The Abbeys started the second half with a tremendous rush and the puck was held around the Vics goal until the first and only goal was made by Harrington from a clever pass by Murnaghan. The both forward lines lacked good combination play and many opportunities for scoring were lost on this account. The Vics made a good fight, considering their team had only two practices together. The teams lined up as follows:

SENIORS		JUNIORS
Abegweits	Goal.	Victorias	Goal.

PORTRAIT OF SIR W. LAURIER UNVEILED

TORONTO, Jan. 13.—A portrait of Sir Wilfrid Laurier was unveiled at the National Club last night and the premier in responding spoke in eloquent terms of the magnificent progress Canada is making. He appealed to those present, men of commerce, finance and industry, to unite in continuing the work of building up the country. W. K. McNaught, M. P., unveiled the premier's portrait, the work of W. J. L. Forster. The banquet attending the ceremony was non-political, being attended in fact by more Conservatives than Liberals and the reception given Sir Wilfrid was the most enthusiastic he has ever received in Canada.

THE MAN TO WATCH

Sooner or later you will see some man to whom the idea of wealth as wealth does not appeal, whom the methods of amassing that wealth do not interest, and who will not accept money if you offer it to him at a certain price. At first you will be inclined to laugh at this man, and to think that he is not smart in his ideas. I suggest that you watch him closely, for he will presently demonstrate to you that money dominates everybody except the man who does not want money. You may meet that man on your farm, in the village, or in your legislature. But be sure that wherever you meet him, as soon as it comes to a direct issue between you, his little finger will be thicker than your loins. You will go in fear of him; he will not go in fear of you; you will do what he wants; he will not do what you want. You will find that you have no weapon with which you can attack him, no argument with which you can appeal to him. I would like you to study that man. I would like you to be that man. If wealth is necessary to you for purposes not your own, use your left hand to acquire it, but keep your right for your proper work in life. If you employ both arms you will be in danger of stooping; in danger, always, of losing your soul. But in spite of everything, you may succeed, you may acquire enormous wealth; in which case I warn you that you stand in grave danger of being spoken of and written of and pointed out as a "smart man."—Extract from an Address to Young Men by Rudyard Kipling.

THE POWERFUL TAGEBLATT OF BERLIN WANTS TARIFF WAR QUICKLY ENDED.

Special to The Guardian. BERLIN, Jan 14.—The Tageblatt strongly urges a fiscal peace between Germany and Canada. It concludes that Germany should abandon her insistence upon the preferential tariff enjoyed by the Mother Country. Germany, it says, should offer a commercial treaty with tariff exchanges for the extension to German imports of the tariff where under French imports are now admitted to Canada.

A YOUNG GIRL'S S.A.T.L.I.N.G CASE

Miss Margaret Chavert of New Zealand, nineteen years of age, the young girl whose strange manifestations of meta-physical powers have been the sensation of the community for the past six months was brought to Charlottetown Thursday and placed in the Hospital for the Insane. The case is one of the most wonderful in America. The general character of the girl shows her to be a most peculiar person, the eccentricities of whose mental make-up stamp her as different from any other subject of the kind within the knowledge of local physicians. She is described as an auto-hypnotist with obsessive impulses; and has the gift of clairvoyance and mind-reading while in the hypnotic state. By auto-hypnotism is meant the faculty of hypnotising oneself. It is when in the hypnotic sleep or trance that the subject in this case manifests these peculiar faculties which have aroused the wonder of all the neighborhood and those who have heard of the case. The subject has become liable to go into this state any time that she goes to sleep. She has lost will control entirely and will do anything that is requested. To hypnotise her is a simple feat for anybody. When in the hypnotic sleep into which she falls without the aid of outside agency, she cannot be awakened, no matter what efforts may be made. This sleep may last half an hour or a day. The reason why she was brought to the city and placed in Falconwood Hospital was because she has become a source of terror in the community in which she lived, through the fear of what she may do by incendiarism. She is already accused of burning the outbuildings of her uncle, James Cantwell, at New Zealand, particularly (Continued on page 14.)
