—JIMMIE

"I AM a man of few words." "Shake hands! I'm married, too!"

"JIMMIE SMITH is awfully deceitful." "In what way?" "Well sometimes he washes his face twice a week." "What is that to do with it?" "Well, the teacher thinks he looks pale and sick, and lets him go home."

"I THINK it is so silly to throw kisses. Don't you?" "Rather, I prefer to deliver the goods."

"I'VE HAD that parrot two years, and it has never said a word." "Why don't you give it a chance?"

"WHY DO you paint the inside of a chicken-coop?" "To keep the hens from picking the grain out of the wood."

"MY FATHER made his fortune when he was a young man. Would you like to know how he did it?" "Not particularly. But I should like to know if he still has it!"

THE CONDOR can go forty days foodless.

"NOW, FREDDY, mind what I say. I don't want you to go over into the next garden to play with that Atkinson boy; he's very rude." Freddy (heard a few moments afterwards calling over the wall): "I say, Atkinson, ma says I'm not to go in your garden because you're rude; but you come into my garden—I ain't rude."

"I AM A self-made man, sir. I began life as a barefoot boy." "Well, I wasn't born with shoes on, either."

A YOUTH was in search of a situation, so he went to the gas-works. As he was proceeding down the yard he was met by the foreman. "What do you want?" he was asked.

"Work," answered the youth.

"What can you do?" he was next asked.

"Almost anything." "Well," said the foreman, bent on having a joke with the youth, "you seem to be a very smart fellow, but could you wheel a barrow of smoke?"

"Yes, certainly," was the reply. "I could easily do that if you would fill it for me first."

THE BEST emeralds come from Peru where the stone was once regarded as sacred.

"SO FRIEND Woodhead was on top of Mont Blanc?" "Not at all."

"But he said so." "True. Some months ago, when he returned from Switzerland, he said he had been at the foot of Mont Blanc. Since then he has gradually lied himself to the top."

"I MUST warn you, dearest," he said, "that after we are married you will very likely find me inclined to be arbitrary and dictatorial in my manner."

"No matter," she replied cheerfully. "I won't pay the slightest attention to what you say."

Many a man noted for volubility is more sound than sound.

Wisdom is an much knowing knowledge as in having it.

You cannot expect to know everything, nor should you expect to be able to talk about everything as if you did.

The ability to listen will do much to incre and add others.

"WHY ARE you always down late for breakfast?" "Because I sleep so slowly."

"I KNOW a fellow who ate beef all his life and grew as strong as an ox." "That's nothing. I know a man who ate fish all his life and couldn't swim a stroke."

AMONG SOME miners there was formerly a curious old belief that, when having a bath, they must not wash the back, as water weakened that part of the body.

"SEDENTARY WORK tends to lessen the endurance." "In other words, the more one sits the less one can stand."

"Exactly; and if one lies a great deal, one's standing is lost completely."

"KIND SIR, I am penniless, starving, and my wife has left me!"

Worried Husband: "Then what have you to complain about?"

RETURNING FROM shopping, Mrs. Phastalker found her little daughter in tears, standing at the front door.

"Why, Helen," she exclaimed, "what's the trouble?" "While I lit the oilstove and went out!" sobbed the little girl.

"And didn't he tell you where he was going?" "He didn't have time to tell me. He went through the roof."

"I CAN'T see, my dear, what good the border of fur does round the hem of your skirt."

"Why, it shows that I can afford it."

"JIMMY, GIVE me three proofs that the world is round." Jimmy: "Well, you say so, pa says so, and ma says so."

GAMBLING ON rainfall is popular in India, where paid watchers keep a look-out for rainclouds and give warning to "speculators" to make their bets.

"AND WHAT did you think of Venice?" asked a neighbor.

"Venice?" Venice? murmured Mrs. Greening. Then she turned to her husband. "Did we go to Venice, George?"

"Don't you remember that we stopped there, but there was a flood on so we didn't leave the station?"

LITTLE JOHNNY was on a visit to his aunt. She kept rather a good table, and Johnny, used to the plain home fare that his mother wisely provided for him, ate his will of cake and jam.

Johnny," said his aunt, as the boy finished the last crumb of his fifth slice of cake, "have you had all that is good for you?"

"I don't know," answered the boy.

"Well, what do you think?" asked his aunt kindly.

"Ain't any use thinking," was the non-committal answer.

"Well, you are a funny boy!" said his aunt. "When will you know?"

"In half an hour." "And how will you know?"

"Well, that's easy. If I ain't sick in half an hour I'll be sorry I didn't take more, and if I'm sick I'll be sorry I took so much. That's the only way to tell that I know of."

"HOW DID you get all those wrinkles?" "From worrying." "What did you worry about?" "About getting wrinkles!"

What you get things about I...

Bill. "An orphan, I hope," mumbled...

"HE TOLD me I was so interesting and so beautiful." Julia: "And you will trust yourself for life with a man who begins deceiving you even at the beginning of his courtship!"

SOME INCUBATORS for chickens used now are the same in principle as those of the Egyptians 4000 years ago.

"HAROLD, how is it that you never bring any good marks home from school?" "Oh, father, there are such a lot of us that when my turn comes there are none left."

A TEACHER in a public school became nervous over the restlessness and noise which her pupils were making, and endeavored to stop it by suggesting: "Now let's be quiet for just a moment, so quiet that we could hear a pin drop."

After a few minutes of peace in the room an impatient youngster in the rear of the room shouted, "Well, let it drop!"

"JOHNNY, I want you to run a message for me." "Shant." "Johnny, is that the way to speak to your father?" "If you please, I shant."

"WILL YOU take tea or coffee?" The Boarder: "Whichever call it."

The Healthful Walk

WHAT is more pleasant and exhilarating than a brisk walk in the crisp, fresh air. You breathe deeply. The blood is purified. The circulation is quickened. The bloom comes to the cheeks and you feel fine.

The vital organs are put in fine condition by walking and many ailments can be relieved mainly because the liver action is aroused.

And yet we do not walk. It is so much easier to ride in an auto or street car that walking is becoming a lost art.

Since we do not take the necessary exercise to keep the liver active and the bowels regular it becomes necessary to resort to other means.

The most popular family regulator is Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, for by use of this medicine once or twice a week you can be sure of the healthful action of the liver, kidneys and bowels.

Our greatest danger in this age of sedentary habits is from overeating and neglecting to pay attention to the regularity of these eliminating organs.

Most of our ills come from this condition. For proof of this statement you need only enquire at the hospitals where there is always a rush of appendicitis and liver and kidney cases after the holiday season and during the winter months when we use so much artificial food and live cooped up in houses from which fresh air is fully excluded.

You will notice that while the price of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills has been increased to 35 cents, the box now contains 35 pills instead of 25 as formerly.

Likewise Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is 60 cents a box of 60 pills, instead of 50 cents a box of 50 pills. Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.
