Ten Cents A Head Per Day is Issue

(Canadian Press)
VANCOUVER, May 13.—Ten cents per person per day is the bid of the Canadian National Railway upon the people of Canada, the appalling burden that is frightening certain circles in Montreal said David Crombie, Chief of Transportation of the Canadian National Railways, speaking before the Transportation Bureau of the Vancouver Board of Trade yesterday. He deprecated any tendency to view railway problems as one hopeless of solution. The management was steadily bringing the great enterprise to commercial success.

Officer Cuts Cake and Obtains Liquor

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. May 13.— Customs officials examining the effects of passengers landing at Port aux Basques were so intrigued by the inviting appearance of a huge cake carried by Samuel Sobie, Sydney that one of them decided to sample it.
His knife brought up against a substance too hard for even the most sophisticated cake.
Investigation proved that the icing and the decorations covered a gallon tin of very choice rum.
Several more "cakes" of a similar variety were discovered among Mr. Sobie's effects and also in the luggage of his companion, Phillip Hewett, a New-foundlander, and they were fined $200 each or six months in jail.

the Mexican and Canada borders.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 13.— There were no developments in the Nova Scotia coal miners' strike tonight, according to reports from the various districts affected. Chief interest of the miners is centered upon India-point where their international board member was in attendance today at the meeting of the international executive of the United Mine Workers of America, which will continue for several days.
Premier Armstrong was absent from the city today and yesterday but will probably return to Halifax tomorrow night.

COL. CHAMBERS DIED SUDDENLY AT VAUDREUIL

Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod Since 1904 -- Fought in Northwest Rebellion--Chief Press Censor in Great War.

MONTREAL, May 13.—Lieut-Colonel Ernest John Chambers, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod died suddenly at his summer home in Vaudreuil last night after an attack of pulmonary trouble. Members of his family were with him at the time of his death, which came after a violent fit of coughing, which lasted half an hour. Dr.
D. Bellemare, of Vaudreuil was in attendance.
Col. Chambers had been in failing health for some time, but had been able to attend his duties as Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod in the Senate. His death will be regretted by a circle of friends throughout the Dominion, who held him in the highest esteem and affection.

Colonel Chambers, who was 63 years of age, had suffered for a few days with bronchitis, and on Friday left Ottawa to go to his summer home at Vaudreuil. He seemed to be doing well when at 10:30 o'clock last night he was seized with a violent fit of coughing, and Dr. Bellemare was summoned. He became weaker and died at 11 o'clock.
Lt. Col. Ernest John Chambers was the fourth and youngest son of Ernest Thomas Chambers and Louisa Percy Davies, his wife of Penkridge, Staffs, England, who came to Canada in 1870, at which time the boy was eight years of age. He was educated at the High School. At an early age he entered the ranks of journalism, and was managing director and editor of the Calgary Herald in 1888-1889, and for two years he was joint proprietor and editor of the Canadian Military Gazette.

Coming back to the East in the nineties Mr. Chambers joined the staff of the Montreal Witness, for which paper he acted as City Hall reporter. He contributed at various times a number of publications on parliamentary, historical, military, hunting and yachting subjects; and among many books which he edited was the Canadian Parliamentary Guide, which was published with the patronage of the Parliament of Canada and the legislatures of the various provinces.

Mme. Caillaux Comes Back After 10 Yrs.

PARIS, May 13.—Just more than ten years ago Madame Joseph Caill-laux she who killed Gaston Calmette, editor of Le Figaro, Society ostracized her and then her husband was convicted of trafficking with the enemy during the war.
That made her social isolation complete.
For nearly five years Mme. Caill-laux followed the drooping fortune of her husband as he wandered around France an outcast barred from entering Paris and other great cities in which he once had lived. Now Mme. Caillaux has come back socially as her husband came back politically. The British Ambassador gave a reception Tuesday night in honor of President Doumergue.
Almost all the cabinet members and their wives were there, and Mme. Caillaux was among them.
For the first time in many years the Paris newspapers will list her as among the guests of a society function.

Mr. Speaker Jests

OTTAWA, May 13.—The stern dignity of the chair was relaxed for a moment in the House of Commons tonight.
The Senate had sent back a private bill with an amendment and the House was asked to accept the amendment. The speaker explained in answer to a question, that the amendment changed the word "insurance" in the name of company to be incorporated to assurance, "and with this assurance," added Mr. Speaker, "is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the amendment?"
The amendment carried amid chuckles.

RT. HON. ARTHUR MEIGHEN DISCUSSES TAX FREE SECURITIES

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen referring to the matter of tax-free securities in the House of Commons last Thursday, said: While I am on the subject (bond issues) I wish to say a word on a matter very much akin to it. Repeated assertions come rather flippantly, I think from many members of the government and from some hon. members to my left, to the effect that a very stupid and a very gross financial crime was perpetrated when, during the war, tax-free bonds were issued. It is hard for me to conceive of anything more futile or more childish than the attempts of hon. members to declare how much has been lost to Canada by the issue of these tax-free bonds. It would be just as easy to ascertain how much more rainfall we would have had in ten years had there not been an earthquake in San Francisco. No man knows, or can know,

Scores English Shipbuilders

(Canadian Press)
MONTREAL, May 13.—A gloomy picture of conditions in England drawn by Sir Alfred Yarrow, head of the Yarrow and Company shipbuilders who is in Montreal today.
He declared Germany can build as good ships as England, though few British shipping men would acknowledge the fact, and that the construction cost in Germany was about twenty percent cheaper because Germans worked more hours and accepted less pay. Restrictions caused by trades unions in England are paralyzing the industry.
He said, under present conditions progress is impossible.

Provisional Presby- tery for Island Formed

At the conclusion of the morning session of the P. E. I. Presbytery, the members of the Presbytery opposed to the Union met and constituted the Provisional Presbytery of Prince Edward Island in connection with the continuing Presbyterian Church of Canada after June 10, 1925. The ex-Moderator of Summerside, Rev. George S. Mitchell of Summerside, took the chair and called for nominations for moderator. The Presbytery decided to follow the usual custom of the Church and elected the senior minister of the Province, Rev. Geo. C. Taylor as Moderator for the following six months. Rev.
William Orr Mulligan was elected Clerk.
Arrangements are being made to send a strong delegation of Island representatives to Toronto to the Presbyterian Congress which is to meet there June 8-13. A list of the congregations, fields, in the Province will be issued in a few days with a statement of policy to be followed by the continuing Church.
The Provisional Presbytery is stated to meet in Zion Church Hall on June 2nd.
The following ministers were present: Rev. Geo. S. Mitchell, Summerside; Rev. R. H. Stavert, Brookfield; Rev. Wm. Orr Mulligan, St. James; Rev. Geo. C. Taylor,

POLITICAL POT IS BOILING IN SASKATCHEWAN

Leaders Busy Thro-out the Province Putting their Final Campaign Plans in Order for June 2nd.

REGINA, May 13.—Political leaders throughout the province are busy putting their final campaign plans in order for June 2, the provincial election date, and with but fifteen more days to go until nominating day, May 26 the "pot" is boiling, and all parties—Liberal, Conservative, Progressives—have nomination meetings scheduled for the next few days.
Despite earlier assurance that every constituency in the Province would be contested, the Progressives have announced their intention of entering only 48 candidates.
This was necessitated, an official statement declared, owing to the shortness of time given to prepare for polling day.
Conservatives are active in the campaign, although it is understood they do not contemplate entering any candidates as in the previous election, held June 9, 1921. Moosejaw one of the strongholds of Conservatism in the province held a rally last night which nominated two candidates and voted confidence in Dr. L. M. Anderson as Provincial Conservative leader.
James Pascoe, M. L. A., and N. R.
Craig, a barrister, were nominated. Government supporters also are waging an active campaign, several nomination meetings already have been held, and many are on schedule for this week. In the last week the Liberal government of Hon. C. A. Dunning had 45 members out of a total of 83, with independents the next highest—14.
Prospects are uncertain as yet as to the number of independent candidates, and also Labor. There was only one Labor representative in the last House.

HINDENBURG TAKES OATH OF OFFICE

Communists the only Disturbers as Solemn Ceremony Proceeds
--Pays Warm Tribute to late Pres.
Ebert.

BERLIN, May 13.—Field Marshal Paul Von Hindenburg, at high noon yesterday solemnly pledged his word as a man that he would faithfully fulfill the duties of President of Germany, to which office he was elected on April 26, as prescribed in the Republican constitution of August 11, 1919. The oath of office was administered by the President of the Reichstag, Paul Loebe, in the presence of the whole House, with the exception of 46 Communists, who left the Chamber when Von Hindenburg appeared, shouting "Down with the Monarchists! Long live the Soviet Republic!"
President-elect to subscribe to the constitutional oath and the President's reply were both very definite and Von Hindenburg's adieu utterance, that both the offices of President and the Reichstag represented the sovereign will of the German people, emphasized his manifest desire to leave no doubt in his hearers' minds as to his interpretation of the constitutional significance of the Presidency.

TAKES THE OATH

Led by Herr Loebe the new President appeared at the Speaker's stand shortly afternoon. He wore civilian clothes, with black frock coat, but no decorations. The Reichstag President quickly informed the new executive of the nature of the oath he was to take, whereupon the document was handed to Von Hindenburg, who in loud staccato voice and with the double addition of a religious affirmation repeated the oath. He followed this with a brief speech, in which he made specific reference to the Republican constitution.
