105th Anniversary Of St David's Church

The annual series of special gatherings in connection with St. David's United Church has just been carried out with encouraging success.

On Friday, August 1st, the Rev. W. T. Mercer of Mount Stewart brought a very helpful message to the Preparatory Service on "Taking up the Cross". Following this on the Sunday was the observance of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper by the congregation which was a season of spiritual refreshment. One new member was welcomed into the fellowship of the church.

The 105th anniversary proper was held on August 10th. In the morning the minister, the Rev. S. J. Boyce, conducted a Presentation and Worship Service at which the Sunday School, the Women's Society and the Young People's Union made generous gifts towards the Anniversary Fund. The Rev. E. M. Aitken of Hamilton, Ont., was the guest preacher at 7.30 and delivered an able and inspiring sermon on the words of the Master: "Lay down your life for a draught."

On Sunday August 17th, for the eighth consecutive time, the Rev. Dr. J. S. Bennett of New York made his annual appearance in St. David's pulpit. His sermon was an appeal of much power to the audience based upon the call of Jesus to Matthew the Taxgatherer: "Follow Me."

During the above seasons of worship music consisting of a quartette by M. Stameo, Arthur and Robert Jenkins and Myrtle Babineau and Mr. R. and Jay, a duet by the Misses Renton, and solos by Mr. Harrington Yorston and Mr. Roy Smallman, popular Charlottetown baritone, added much to the tone of the meetings.

On Tuesday the ladies concluded the commemoration with the Anniversary Supper at which attractive tables, excellent and abundant food and cheerful service won them well-merited commendation.

The congregation of St. David's is grateful to the many who, in a multitude of ways, made the 105th celebration such a uplift.

Among the many visitors to "The Island" to spend a brief holiday are Mr. and Mrs. Robichaud of Rumbold, Maine. Mrs. Robichaud was formerly Miss Alice O'Holloran of Brockton, Lot 4, and is a public health nurse. Her many friends are giving her and her husband a real welcome. They are staying at Bell's Cabins, Hills River.

TAN TONES TABOO FOR GRAY-HAIRED

Be careful of the dress colors you choose, if your hair is going through the graying stage. What you want to rule out of your wardrobe are browns, tans and yellows. These seem to emphasize the unwanted tinge in hair that's going through a color transition. By picking powerful opposites in dress colors, you can play down the undesirable tone in your hair. Navy blue and dark blue-greens are usually good. A very dark gray cross color can dominate hair tones with a yellowish cast. Black can hold its own successfully with any color mixture in the hair. If black is trying to the face, relieve it with flattering pink placed at the neckline. Reinforce this flattery with a rosy make-up.
