MAJOR H. M. Davison has the Guardian's thank for a late copy of the London Telegram, issued before the King's operation.

THE funeral of the late John T. Hughes, Hunter River, has been postponed till Friday morning at 6.30 owing to non arrival of the remains.

At the last meeting of her Normal class Miss May Dawson was presented with an address and silver ferdish as a small token of the regard and respect in which she is held by her pupils.

THE parishoners of Fort Augustus will hold their grand tea on July 21st, 1902. Spacious grounds convenient to the church have been secured from Mr. John Burnett. Particulars next week.

THE tea given at the Tennis Court yesterday evening, in honor of Mrs. (Col.) Wilson, by the Soldiers' Wives' League, was a delightful affair. A large number of prominent citizens were present.

THE Manchester Commerce is being sent to Charlottetown instead of the Manchester Trader. The Commerce is sent because the Manchester Trader is being detained for repairs longer than expected.

ON Dominion Day one of the snow-ball trees in Prince Street school grounds was broken and in consequence was greatly impaired. It is the intention of the Janitor to teach those destroying such property that the law of the land applies to them.

PREPARATIONS on a gigantic scale are being made for the 9th of July at Kelly's Cross. No worry about trains to get there, but a delightful drive through picturesque scenery, seeing old friends, making new ones and go home when you feel like it.

DR. Robertson of Crapaud who is in the city reports that Max Lefurgeo, the five year old son of Arnold Lefurgeo of North Tryon, who was kicked on the forehead by a horse on the 1st instant, is progressing favorably, and there is every reason to hope that he may not lose his sight.

A BAKER social in aid of the school house at Point Pleasant, Lot 63, is announced for Saturday, the twelfth day of July. The location of the grounds is all that can be desired, being pleasantly situated on the sea shore. If the day selected should prove unfavorable the social will be held on the first fine Monday.

ROBERT B. EASTER and William Sinclair of Hamilton drove to Charlottetown Monday evening and left on Tuesday by the Princess en route to South River, Antigonish County, N. S., on a visit to Mr. Sinclair's daughter Mrs. Stirling McMillan. Mr. Easter takes his horse and carriage with him and will drive from Pictou to the latter place.

RESIDENTS of the United States returning to the Island by the All Rail Route are delighted with the excellent time made in reaching this province. As an instance a gentleman accompanied by his wife and family left Boston a few evenings ago at 7.05 and arrived on the following evening in Tignish at 10 o'clock local. Other passengers leaving Boston by the same train arrived in Charlottetown at 9 o'clock local. This is certainly a revolution from the records of previous years.

THE P. E. I. Hospital has received from the treasurer of St. James' Church the sum of $18.27, being collection taken on the occasion of the parade of St. John and Victoria Lodges A. F. and A. M., on June 27th.

Y's.—The flower committee committee will distribute flowers this afternoon. Any person wishing to help will please send flowers to the Y. parlor, Grafton St., this morning or notify any of the following committee if they wish to have the flowers called for: Mrs. W. A. Hawley, Misses Irene Moore, Ella Large, Mabel Thompson, Jessie Webster, Laura Hughes and L. Brecken.

YESTERDAY afternoon at four o'clock Col. Wilson inspected the 4th Reg. C. A. at Victoria Park. The Col. inspected by regiment and by individual companies. In the latter the captains put the men through the different field movements; of infantry drill and the lieutenants the manual and firing exercises, all of which were very creditably performed. Capt. Carvell was in charge of the Regiment.

IN yesterday's Guardian the death was announced of Daniel McDonald, son of the late Neil McDonald of Hampton. For some time Mr. McDonald was manager of the Hampton cheese factory and later of the co-operative creamery, Summerside, from which position he resigned owing to ill health and returned to his home in Hampton. Mr. McDonald who was only thirty years old leaves to mourn a large circle of friends, besides five brothers and four sisters to whom the Guardian joins in deepest sympathy.

THE Ipswich Chronicle of June 25th says.—One of the prettiest weddings of the month took place at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston, Mass, yesterday morning, the happy couple were Miss Agnes Rattery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rattery of Hopkington, Mass, and Mr. Frank A. Trainor of this city. Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. Dr. Mullin. Both of the young people are very popular and the ceremony was witnessed by a large number. (Mr. Trainor is a son of P. H. Trainor of this city.)

GRADUATION.—The bright procession still goes forward. Mr. Watson J. Partridge of Mount Stewart, having completed a full business course at the P. E. I. Commercial College, under Principal Oxenham and having passed a highly satisfactory examination, has been awarded the College Diploma. Mr. Partridge is a persevering young man, and has made excellent progress in his studies. He deserved success and has attained it. He will reach a high place in business life wherever he may be located, and has our best wishes.

NEXT Saturday will be a gala day at Crapaud. The mammoth tea party given by the church people in aid of their new edifice will then take place. Arrangements have been made to give those who come a right royal time. Among the chief features of this occasion are grand scenery, unbounded hospitality, refreshments without limit. The 82nd Battalion Band will be present to keep the pace and soothe the weary. The Jacques Cartier will leave Charlottetown at nine a. m. sharp. By what we hear, the crowd that has not been seen at Crapaud for years, will attend. Rest for the weary, joy for the sad. Sell all and come.

ON Friday morning, June 27th, after a few months illness, Miss Amy R. Wilcock entered into rest. She was a very estimable lady and of whom it well may be said: "None knew her but to love her, none named her but to praise." She was an active member of Partridge Lodge, of Good Templars, and was a sincere and earnest member. She will be much missed in the lodge room by her fellow members with whom she was very popular. Six of Amy's brothers from Partridge Lodge in the regalia of their order, acted as pallbearers at the funeral on Sunday afternoon. They were James P. Irving, Malcolm McRae, Henry Young, Willie Jenkins, Seymour Young and Truman Jenkins. The service at the English church was conducted by Rev. Walter Cotton.

Yesterday the Guardian was shown the silver medal presented by Coun. Paton to the Y. M. C. A. amateur photographic contest and the bronze medal presented by W. S. Lawson in the same contest. It is difficult indeed to describe the medals presented by these gentlemen as both are rare gems and are well worth seeing. It is understood that before the awarding of the medals they will be placed in the show window of one of our stores in order that our citizens may get an idea of just what interest is being taken in the competition by these gentlemen. The committee in charge of the contest have thought it best to hold the exhibition on the 29th, 30th, and 31st of this month, to give our amateurs an opportunity of entering the competition. Already 77 Pictures in all have been sent in to the Y. M. C. A. Photo Contest date. Owing to the very wet weather little opportunity has been given for amateurs to take pictures.

ON Monday, June 30th, Messrs. Vroom and Burke completed their second spraying tour. Meetings were held at all the places previously announced with good attendance in every instance. G. H. Straight Front Corsets 55c.

Our northern window is filled with them. This range is a very special purchase we have just received direct from the makers.

They're made of fair quality, grey coutil—with sateen facings of pink or pale blue. They're accurately cut, and very nicely finished—and are strictly correct.
