EYES OF ALL NATIONS.

France has one blind person to every 500 inhabitants. In Egypt twenty one natives were killed because of defective vision, during the first week's operations of an electric railway. In Germany and England there is one blind person to every 1,000. China has more blind than all other countries. Spain comes next. America averages only one in every 1,500, the lowest per cent of any country. This is explained in the fact that scientific adjustment of glasses has reached its greatest perfection in this country. Many eyes have been saved through the timely use of glasses. We test eyes for glasses. Any eye we cannot fit should have the attention of a doctor who is an eye specialist.

THE Dredge Prince Edward is dredging at town wharf. After completing work at Cole's wharf, Bedeque, orders were received to have her taken to Victoria but the necessity of the work now being done be proceeded with first, was presented to Sir Louis Davies by Hon. R. C. McLeod and the Minister complied with the request.

A man from the country in the neighborhood of Summerside while trying to "do" Summerside with a team Saturday evening was brought suddenly to a halt, by Officer Campbell at the corner of Granville and Water streets. He had been boldly and recklessly driving up and down Water street at a faster rate than the bye-laws would allow, and when Officer Campbell pluckily captured the horse, the driver at once noticed his lack of office and quickly sprang out of the wagon and was soon out of sight around the nearest corner. He would have been willing to walk home, but a friend got delivery of his team and started him homeward.

At Montague, on Aug. 1st, after a painful illness, Catherine McDonald, beloved wife of Malcolm Martin, aged 73 years. She was a sister of the late Rev. J. R. McDonald, who for some years was Baptist pastor at Bedeque. The funeral was a large one, and Rev. W. H. Warren conducted the services.

At Rest.—On the twenty-nine of June a sweet spirit lay down its charge with respect to the things of this world, to awaken renewed songs of praise in the life beyond. We refer to Miss Tena Gillis, of Orwell, who at the age of eighteen years after several months of sickness peacefully and resignedly passed away to a better world. Few young persons have ever possessed more than she the happy faculty of winning the esteem and affections of those among whom she mingled. Her quiet gentle, unobtrusive, and kindly manner won for her an extended circle of acquaintances. Of her could with truth be said—
"With affections warm, intense, refined She mixed such calm and holy strength of mind,
That, like heaven's image in the smiling brook, Celestial peace was pictured in her look."

It is, therefore, easy to understand how during her sickness, she with patience learned to suffer. From her girlhood days to life's close she clearly realized that here there is no continuing city, and she lived and looked for one which abideth forever. Hers was a truly Christian life and a triumphant death. Her last words were how sweet, thus to die.
A soul more spotless never claimed a tear;
A heart more tender, open and sincere
A hand more ready blessings to bestow
Beloved lamented, and without

CITY AND COUNTRY

A MOST enjoyable evening was spent at Pleasant View Hotel, Hampton, on Thursday last. The little folk through the day had arranged for a concert and their efforts were most successful. Rev. Dr. Read acted as chairman and opened the entertainment with an appropriate and interesting address. The program consisted of vocal and instrumental solos, readings, choruses, fan-tasie-exercises, addresses etc., and the little performers were Misses Gerda Taylor, Katie Stanley, Edna Smith, LLois Taylor, Kathrica McKenzie, Hazel Taylor, Beatrice Farquharson, Jennie Hood, Helen Hood, and Master Harry Stanley, and they all performed their parts most creditably, some being scored. The accompanists were Mrs. T. G. Taylor, Mrs. W. W. Stanley, Miss Annie Read and Miss Helen Smith. Two instrumental solos, by Miss Read, one by special request, were a pleasing feature. An exceedingly appropriate address with timely advice and humor for the little ones was given by Dr. Taylor of this City. Miss Helen Bell of Halifax supplemented the remarks of Dr. Taylor with special references to the good and noble work of Miss Florence Nightingale and advised the children to also lead noble, useful and exemplary lives. Mr. J. Webb, Stanley was the very efficient financier of the evening. At the close a unanimous vote of thanks, coupled with kindly references to his companionship and expressions of regret at his intended departure the following morning was tendered. Dr. Read and fittingly responded to by him. A small admission fee was charged and afterward supplemented by some of the audience appreciative of the enjoyable evening. The proceeds are for the Hampton Methodist Sabbath School. After the singing of Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King the company dispersed.

Mr. James Paton in writing to a friend in the city from London, dated July 20th says:—"The weather is fine and he in company with Miss Cora Paton enjoyed a drive Buxton through the valleys and over the mountains to Haddon Hall and Chatsworth House, the seat of the Duke of Devonshire. The parks and gardens are beautiful and the interior of Chatsworth House is beyond description. On Wednesday we had the pleasure of seeing Lord Roberts. The photographs I have seen at home look very like the old General." In writing again from Colon under date of July 23rd he says:—"We arrived here about noon to-day. So far we are having very delightful weather in England it was just hot enough but since we came over here it has been a little cooler and hope it will continue as pleasant as to-day. I was much surprised to find Antwerp such a large place and that a great amount of shipping is done at that port. The wharves are built of grey stone and are several miles long. I did not count the number of very large steamers that were taking in and putting out cargo but the wharves were lined from one end to the other. It did not look much like Sunday on the streets of Antwerp with bands playing and other amusements. It looked rather funny one coming from Eastern Canada to see all this going on right on the side walks and streets. I was much pleased with our visit to Brussels. It is a fine city and no doubt it is a second Paris. Yesterday being a fete day, or their day of independence anniversary, we heard a number of splendid bands and in the evening heard the King's Orchestra. We paid a visit to the principal picture galleries and saw some of Ruben's celebrated paintings. We also saw the paintings of Wierba. The drives in and around Brussels are beautiful; all around the city are avenue trees on each side. The planting of trees in this country is well looked after and if one people would give our little town and Island some attention in this line we would have one of the finest places on the face of the earth. Since leaving home I have seen no such crops as we have on the Island. I have not seen anything like the hay and clover crops we have, nor have I seen anywhere the fields as green as those on the Island. We go up the Rhine to-morrow and will be most of the day in the steamers. We will go to the Rhine at Mergentheim and then to Heidelberg."

Corticelli Skirt Protector should not be used as a binding—it is a physical impossibility for any kind of a binding to outwear a skirt.

Corticelli Protector Braid should be sewed on flat—not turned over—one or two rows of stitching—one at upper edge of braid and the second near the bottom of the skirt.

Put on thus it is a real "protector"—its perfect shade match makes a desirable bottom finish for any skirt.
