PAIN so easily relieved
How to treat Headaches, Neuralgia, Neuritis or check a Cold

WHY are some women so patient with pain? Shopping with a head that throbs. Working when they ache all over. Sometimes it's hours before they take Aspirin and get relief! Most men take these tablets the moment that some sudden ache or pain threatens their comfort and so should you. Aspirin is perfectly harmless; it cannot depress the heart. The tablets stamped Bayer are always genuine Aspirin; always the same, always safe. So it isn't sensible to suffer with a headache, a cold, neuralgic pains, or anything else that these tablets relieve almost as soon as swallowed. Buy by the bottle and save money. Any drugstore has the 100-tablet size.

Can't Express Her Gratitude

"Neuritis pains in my shoulders, arms and knees hurt me intensely at times; I gradually lost my appetite;

MISS CATHERINE B. McQUEEN

had frequent attacks of indigestion and dizziness and a disordered liver kept me continually constipated. My strength and energy almost completely left me. I can hardly express my gratitude for what 6 bottles of Sargon did for me. Every one of my ailments of 10 years standing is gone—including my neuritis pains—and my whole system is strengthened. I'm in the best of health I've been in 15 years.

"Thanks to Sargon Pills, for the first time in 14 years I'm rid of constipation and biliousness."—Mrs. Catherine B. McQueen, 64 Dolbin St., Sydney. Sargon may be obtained in Charlottetown from the Hughes Drug Co., Ltd.

POLICE ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE HERE—Mr. Charles Taylor and Mr. E. Jennings, Welland County, Ontario, of the Dominion Police and Peace Officers Association, are at present visiting the Province on business in connection with the Association's Annuity Fund. C. G. I. T. SECRETARY—Miss Jean MacGregor has been persuaded to accept temporarily the position of Secretary of the Canadian Girls in Training of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. The position has been vacating since the marriage of Miss Edith Sinclair, more than a year ago. It will necessitate Miss MacGregor's removal from New Glasgow and will be a distinct loss to the various organizations with which she is so actively associated here. Miss MacGregor is eminently qualified for the position she will fill, but no one person can begin to fill the place her going will leave vacant here. It is with mingled feelings of gladness and sorrow her host of friends will see her singled out for this important position.—New Glasgow News.

WEDDING BELLS—The marriage of Miss Marjorie Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Burpee, Sheffield, N. B., and Wallace Niven McAlpine, son of Mr. and the late Mrs. McAlpine, Cambridge, took place in the Upper United Church on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. David C. Curn officiating. The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was becomingly attired in dress of French beige crepe-back satin, with hat to match and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. Reginald Barker and Egerton Jewett acted as ushers. A reception was held at the home of the bride with about fifty guests present. Dainty refreshments were served by six girl friends of the bride. Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. McAlpine left by motor on a wedding trip through New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. The bride wore for travelling a brown tweed suit with felt hat to match and fox fur. On their return they will reside at Lower Cambridge where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

With swift, decided strokes the artist painted in the colored clouds of the lovely sunset. Presently he noticed an old man gazing sombrely at the result of his labors. "Ah," said the painter, "perhaps you, too, love the sky pictures, my friend? Perhaps you have seen the lambent flame of dawn leaping across the livid east, the red-stained sulphurous islets floating in a lake of fire?" "No," replied the old man, "I haven't—not since I signed the ledger."

for your own sake, I will help you if I can. But one cannot help without wishing to know something of the nature of your trouble."

"There is no thing to learn. I came over on the immigrant ship. I am Claire Dahlskaar, as homeless and friendless as if I had dropped from another planet."

"Tell me this, did you protest when the police seized you and banded you aboard the Marie?"

She astounded me by sadly confessing:

"I wanted to come. I lied when I told you I was taken in a raid. I went alone."

"Good heavens! If you only had known—"

"I should do exactly the same if it were to be lived through again tomorrow monsieur. You must either set me ashore, to make my own way, or accept me as you find me—nameless, friendless, a waif."

Why nameless when she was Claire Dahlskaar, I asked myself. But I did not ask her.

"I will think no evil of you. I wrote you from Biloxi—when it was doubtful if I could even save myself—that I would take you to the seaboard; I only hope your troubles will end when you get there."

"That was nicely said," she murmured, pausing between the words as if frightened to control herself. "If we get to the English towns I will find some work. I will be a servant—anything."
