TWO CHINAMEN BURNED TO DEATH

NEW YORK, Jan. 6—Two Chinamen, said to be relatives to Tom Lee, the Mayor of Chinatown, perished today in a fire which destroyed "the house of five entrances," a five story lodging house in Chinatown. More than a hundred Chinese and many white women were in the building when the fire broke out in the second story and swept upward with a rapidity that threatened to cut off the upper floor. The firemen made desperate efforts to rescue everybody and believed that they had succeeded, but in a rear room on the third floor they found Lee Chu Fang huddled in the charred ruins of his bed. On the floor lay the body of Lee Yee Yu, his head beneath the bed. The bodies have been recovered and firemen who explored the ruins, say that four more are still in the ruins of the third floor. The last fireman to leave the building said that one of the four bodies was that of a woman. The property loss is about $150,000.

WAS DROWNED WHILE GETTING HIS HAT

BATHURST, January 6—A young man named Levesseur, from Amqui, Quebec, was drowned here at five o'clock this afternoon. In crossing the bridge over the Nesquisit river, to the intercolonial station, his hat blew into the water, and in attempting to get it he broke through the ice and the strong current carried him under.

LYE

Our Pre-Alteration Sale Has Already Reached Large Proportions—An Immense Success

Our store has been a busy spot since the inauguration of our big Pre-Alteration Sale. Every day brings more people—women and men by the dozen every day examine our goods and prices—and a curious fact—the closer is the examination the larger the purchase. Its a fact that establishes the honest purpose and intent of this 20 day sale.

Even now we are compelled to discontinue advertising many lines—some are already sold out, and in other cases they are reduced to the vanishing point. On the first day of the sale we advised you to shop early—it was our knowledge of what we were offering and the extent of the same that made us offer this suggestion.

You can depend upon us in saying that even now a magnificent stock awaits you—but don't delay. January 21st ends this sale.
