SUMMARY
Strikes in the major packing plants across Canada led to continued unsettled live stock markets. Local conditions governed supply and demand, which in turn determined prices. With the possibility of the strike situation spreading to smaller independent plants, selling agencies were advising shippers to liquidate cautiously pending some improvement in the strike situation.
Eastern Cattle Markets
Declines of 25c to 50c were recorded on all butcher cattle at Toronto where a run of 5100 head was on hand but about 700 were unsold at the close. Small butchers and packers had appeared to reach the limit of their capacity to slaughter and shippers were being advised to be cautious in their commitments. Some heavy steers sold at Toronto between $12 and $14.50, and butcher steers took a general $11 to $14. All supplies were fairly well cleared at Montreal, with small country plants taking a large share of the receipts, working to capacity. The steers offered were only common to good in quality and the top of the market was $14.50, with medium grades $12.50 to $13, and good cows up to $11.50. In the Maritimes, no quotations were being issued for cattle due to the strike situation.
Western Cattle Markets
Prices were generally lower on cattle in the west during the week, despite the fairly moderate supplies, and buyers were staying away from any heavy purchases. Receipts, however, were fairly well cleared, with slaughter steers and heifers at Winnipeg selling fully 50c lower. Most of the steers rated $11 to $13.50, while the better grades of cows sold at $10 to $10.50. Calgary paid $13 to $13.50 on a lower market for good steers; Edmonton up to $14; Prince Albert up to $12.50; Moose Jaw around $11 for some good heifers; Saskatoon up to $12 and $13 on good steers; Regina $13.50 to $14; while Vancouver had some good heifers at $12 to $13.
Exports to United States
Dairy cattle shipments to the United States in the past week totalled 1,378 head as against 1,240 in the corresponding week last year. Shipments since January 1st this year total 29,716 and in the same period last year amounted to 33,213.
Calves Steady to Lower
Calf prices varied somewhat as between markets. Toronto was steady at $15.50 to $16.50 for choice veals, while Montreal paid $15.50 to $16 for the few good veals offered but Winnipeg was gaggly at lower at $13 to $15. Calgary sold the best of the veals on offer at $11.50 to $12, Edmonton up to $13, Prince Albert $12, Moose Jaw $12.3, Saskatoon up to $13, Regina $13, and Vancouver $14.
Hogs Tending Lower
Hog prices appeared to be moving in a downward direction. Toronto, with some hogs still unsold at the close, finished at $22.50 to $22.60 for Grade A, while Montreal had a general price of $23, with a few sales up to $23.25 or better. Winnipeg had Grade A hogs at $22.25 to $22.50, Calgary $21.50, Edmonton $21.75 for shipment, Prince Albert, Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan and Regina unchanged at $21.70, and Vancouver $22.40. Maritime prices were reported steady at $23.75 for Grade A, delivered.
Weaker Lamb Market
Lamb prices were steady to lower, a seasonal condition. Toronto, paid $15 to $15.50 for good lambs, Montreal $14 to $15, Winnipeg up to $14 for odd small lots, Calgary up to $13.25, Edmonton $13.50, Prince Albert $12.50, Saskatoon $12.25, and Vancouver $14 to $14.50. In the Maritimes, some Grade A lambs were reported at $31.75 dressed.
