

Pains Worn Sovereign

Rheumatism — Impure Blood — No Appetite

A Perfect Cure Accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla

Whole Family Made Well by This Great Medicine.

"I am 44 years old and am a lumberman, engaged in driving logs on the river. I have been exposed to all kinds of weather, and I was seized with rheumatism. I tried different treatments, but they failed to cure me. Pains moved through my limbs and a short time since

Settled in My Back.

I thought I would work it off, but it grew worse, and I was obliged to shut down my sawmill and stop work. My blood was poor and I did not have any appetite. I could not sleep nights on account of the severe pains. I decided to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills. In ten days time I felt relief, and now, a few months having elapsed, I am myself again and am

A Perfectly Well Man.

I am attending to my business daily, and all due to the benefit derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla. My wife and other members of my family were taken with the grip and also suffered at times with sick headaches. They resorted to Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills and they are now all in good health." G. R. RAUFUS, South Waterville, Nova Scotia.

The steamer Electra will not be here this week.

THERE was one arrest for drunkenness yesterday.

MR. T. J. DILLON shipped 405 boxes of cheese by the Princess yesterday morning for the London market.

As will be seen by reference to another column, Mr. Fielding will address public meetings of the Liberal electors of East Prince at Freetown, Tryon and Emerald, this afternoon, to-night and to-morrow afternoon respectively.

A MONCTON correspondent of the St. John Sun says: The steamer Northumberland will probably go south for the winter on the close of navigation between Summerside and Point du Chene. Negotiations are now on foot to that end.

HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP McDONALD, Dr. Monaghan, of St. Dunstan's College, Dr. Doyle of Vernon River, and Rev. J. J. McDonald, of Kinkora left yesterday morning for Kelley's Cross to participate in the opening of the new church at that place today.

MR. and MRS. J. R. FRIZELL and child, Mr. J. C. Frizell and Mr. D. Boyd Miller, who have been residents of Charlottetown for about two years left yesterday morning by the western express. Mr. Miller is enroute to the Old Country, the others to Philadelphia.

A VERY pleasant whist party was given last evening by Mrs. P. S. MacNutt at her residence, Queen Square, in honor of Miss MacNutt, daughter of Hon. Peter MacNutt, of Malpeque, P. E. I. There were about 50 of Mrs. MacNutt's friends present and a very pleasant time was spent.—Telegraph.

ABOUT one thousand barrels of oysters have been shipped from Tatamagouche Bay this season and the industry is in its infancy only, having been started but a few years ago. A large number of areas were applied for this fall and the seed oysters placed in position. If cultivated as well as those operated during the last few years, it will not be long until there will be ten thousand barrels shipped in a season.—Halifax Herald.

REV. W. J. KIRBY, the present energetic pastor of Grace Church, requests THE GUARDIAN to state that, in connection with the matter of ministerial supply for next year, considered at the second quarterly meeting on Tuesday evening, the report of which in yesterday's issue was misleading, he declined to even be put in nomination for a fifth year, giving as his reason that he finds his work impairing his health. The departure of Mr. Kirby from this city in June next when his term expires, will be much regretted, as he was always active in temperance movements and ever ready to assist in any good work. As already announced a unanimous invitation was extended to Rev. J. W. McConnell, B.A., Vernon River, to become the pastor of Grace Church for next year.

Johnson & Johnson DRUGGISTS

At the police court yesterday morning Dan Carrol, for drunkenness, was fined $2 or ten days.

MR. WALTER DAVIDSON of Moncton, well known among bicycle riders, came to the city yesterday.

MR. J. C. BOURINOT, editor and proprietor of the Eastern Chronicle, of Port Hawkesbury, C.B., is in the city.

MR. CHARLES FAWCETT of Sackville, has purchased the trotting horse, Herdic, from Mr. R. J. Wood of this city.

SUBJECT for the Presbyterian Mission, Romans 13th, 10th. The body in Christ must not be defiled with rioting and drunkenness. Love worketh no ill to his neighbor.

ADVERTISEMENTS, advance notices of meetings, business locals and all available items must be handed in to this office as early as possible on Saturday, to insure insertion Monday morning.—H

The temperature for the past week stood as follows: Dec. 1st, max. 42.0, min. 35.5; 2nd, max. 36.0, min. 32.5; 3rd, max. 38.0, min. 31.7; 4th, max. 38.0, min. 29.8; 5th, max. 45.0, min. 31.0; 6th, max. 44.0, min. 33.0; 7th, 40.0, min. 28.3.

GEO. P. THOMAS, barrister, and several other Monctonians intend going west in a few days to locate at Forney, B. C., where H. Trites, formerly of Moncton, is running a clothing business.—Sackville Post. [Mr. Thomas is a native of P. E. Island.]

THE GREAT WEST.—The November number of the Great West is full of good things. The frontispiece shows the crowded street of Dawson City before the post office waiting for the mail. A finely illustrated article on Life in Dawson City; a valuable article on The New Food Route to Europe via Hudson Bay; The Ring and the Lead, a story by Clarke Russell; a timely article on Registration Insurance; The Amateur Photographer, are some of the principal items which make up this excellent Canadian Magazine. The publishers promise a specially attractive number for Christmas. We confidently recommend the Great West to our readers as a meritorious and valuable addition to Canadian periodical literature.

MR. W. T. WELLNER son of Mr. W. W. Wellner, Jeweler, of this city, is fast distinguishing himself an artist in the engraving business. Several specimens of his work may be seen at W. W. Wellner's Jewelry store on Grafton Street, which are exhibitions of skill, reflecting much credit on the engraver and some of which would cause experts to blush. Mr. Wellner recently took lessons in one of the best engraving shops in Boston and while there was under special instruction, thus receiving much benefit in the practical knowledge of the art. Mr. Wellner is employed in the above named store and will do engraving free of charge on any purchase made at that store during the Christmas trade.

THE marriage of Mr. Frank Riggs, the popular barber on Queen Street, to Miss Maude Vatcher, took place last evening at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. James Vatcher, confectioner, on Kent St. Mr. Frank Drake supported the groom, while Miss Moore, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. M. Campbell, and was attended by the immediate friends of the contracting parties. A fine banquet was participated in and a very pleasant evening whiled away in mirthful enjoyment. The presents were many, useful and beautiful. To Mr. and Mrs. Riggs the GUARDIAN joins their many friends in extending a hearty wish for a happy and prosperous wedded life.

THE Weymouth Mass., Gazette, of Nov. 25, says: "A very pretty home wedding was solemnized at the residence of James T. Nettles, father of the bride, on Pleasant St., South Weymouth, on Wednesday evening. The contracting parties were Wilton L. Hawes and Elizabeth W. Nettles and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Judson Van Clancy, of West Medford. The bride wore white Swiss muslin over cream silk with lace trimming and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was Mary I. Nettles, sister of the bride, who wore figured organ-die and carried pinks. Joseph H. Hawes, a brother of the groom, was best man. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate family of the bride and groom and at its conclusion the party repaired to the residence just erected by Mr. Hawes, on Pleasant St., where the collation was served. The home was prettily decorated with cut flowers and potted plants." [The bride is a grand-daughter of Mr. John McPherson, of the P. E. Island Railway.]

THE ordination of George D. Ireland to the ministry of the Presbyterian church, and his induction to the pastorate of St. Paul's church in Woodstock, took place in that church Friday evening. A very large congregation, filling the church to its utmost seating capacity was present, and the services were of a highly interesting character. Rev. W. W. Rainnie of Calvin church, St. John, read the announcements and also offered the ordination prayer. Rev. J. R. Fowler of South Richmond preached an able sermon from Luke xix 28. Rev. L. G. McNeil D. D., of St. Andrew's church, St. John, addressed the pastor, and Rev. James McLean, of Harvey, addressed the congregation. The addresses were full of sound suggestions to pastor and people, and were eloquently delivered. The benediction was pronounced by the newly inducted pastor, after which he was conducted to the west entrance to the church where the congregation were presented as they passed out. Mr. Ireland entered upon his appointments in St. Paul's yesterday; the church was filled at both morning and evening services.—Woodstock Press. [The Rev. George D. Ireland referred to above, formerly belonged to Alberton, P.E. Island and is a brother-in-law of Mr. John Agnew of that place.]
