SOMETHING TO SHOUT ABOUT. Headline news is worth shouting about. And to thousands of Canadians the lively, brisk flavour of Lipton's Tea is certainly headline news.

Ordinary, flat-tasting teas seem dull as yesterday's news the moment you taste the brisk flavour of Lipton's always tannic, spirited and full-bodied, never flat or insipid. Change to brisk tasting Lipton's Tea.

Children of Man Who Sacrificed Never Write Letters Home

One of the pathetic figures in my little world is a feeble old man who sits day after day at a window watching for the letter that never comes.

There is no smallest thing in what they do in which he is not interested and that he would not like to hear all about, but his children have no longer any interest in him.

Now this man's children are not deliberately cruel and neglectful. They do not intend to be unkind. It is just that their lives are filled with their own affairs and they have not time or thought for anything else.

Some day before long the old man will sit no longer in his chair by the window listening for the postman's step and watching for the letter that never comes.

And the pitiful thing about this old man's case is that it is such a common one.

Yet thousands upon thousands of people are guilty of this crime, especially are men addicted to it.

Why so many people never takes pen in hand again, knows, but the blackest mark that the recording angel is setting down against many of us is that our lonely old parents looked in vain for the letter that never came.
