Bucketshop King Left Big Fortune

BOSTON, Dec. 8.—The will of Joseph F. Flanagan, of Newton, widely known as "the bucketshop king," who died on Nov. 22, was filed for probate, Wednesday, in the Middlesex County Probate Court, East Cambridge. No valuation of the estate was given. Mr. Flanagan however, was one of Newton's richest citizens and his estate at Walnut Park was one of the most attractive in the city.

H. J. MABON

Optometrist—Prescription Druggist. MONTAGUE, P. E. I. Next Door Bank of Commerce

The will contained one public bequest, in which he leaves, with but one exception, all of his Newton real estate to the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph of the Catholic Diocese of Boston. The one exception is the property at 189 Jackson road, occupied at the present time by Pierre Vuilleumier. The bequest to the Sisters of St. Joseph includes Mr. Flanagan's beautiful home at Walnut Park, but not the furnishings. The will further provides that his wife and family occupy the home at Walnut Park for one year after the appointment of executors to the will.

To his wife Mrs. Mary A. Flanagan, Mr. Flanagan left the sum of $1,250 a month, and to his sister, Mrs. Marie F. O'Shea, $250 a month. The entire estate, outside of the bequests to Mrs. O'Shea and to the Sisters of St. Joseph, is left to his wife and six children. Mr. Flanagan provided in his will that the executors of his estate purchase for his grave a lot in either Holyhood, St. Joseph's or Mt. Benedict Cemetery, and a tombstone which is not to cost more than $1,000. He names his wife and the Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Company as executors.

IN MEMORIAM

PHILIP W. ACORN

The late Philip W. Acorn, of Bridgetown, P. E. Island, who departed this life on Sept. 5th, last, was a son of the late John Acorn and Ann Grey his wife, and was in his eighty first year at the time of his death. He was an industrious farmer, and succeeded in building up one of the finest homesteads in that part of the province. He was also a consistent member of the Church of Scotland in which he also held the office of Elder. He was sincere in his convictions and true and attentive in his devotions, and shall be greatly missed by his associates in the work of the church. His work and counsel was based upon a wide knowledge and experience of temporal and spiritual things. He married Christy, daughter of the late Douglas MacKinnon of Point Prim, who proved herself a most suitable companion in life and who survives him. He also leaves three sons and four daughters, Samuel James and Alexander who live near home, Mrs. Donald J. Ross of Flat River, Mrs. Peter Compton of Collierville, S. C., Mrs. Ewan MacKinnon of Cambridge, Mass., and Mrs. Alfred D. Barke of Bay Fortune. One daughter, Mary Janet and one son, Stuart, predeceased him. On the 14th day of September last he was returning from the saw mill with a truck wagon and a pair of very spirited horses when in some way he was partly thrown from the wagon and dragged for some distance receiving very severe injuries. According to his own wish he was removed to his home where he passed peacefully away the following morning. His calm and peaceful passing together with his assurance of eternal glory, were cause of great comfort to those near him and served to reconcile them to the purpose of God brought about under such shocking circumstances. The funeral took place on Saturday 17th. The services were conducted by Rev. James McDougall, Minister of the Church of Scotland, who spoke words of great comfort to the bereaved. The pall bearers were: Malcolm Finlayson, Wallace Taylor, Charles McMaster, George McMaster, John McKinnon and John McLeod.

RATIFICATION LOOKED FOR

DUBLIN, Dec. 10.—A session following the revelation of a split in the Daily Freeman Cabinet over the ratification of the Anglo-Irish treaty yielded to a more calm attitude here tonight. There seems to good ground for the belief that Arthur Griffith, who headed the delegation which signed the agreement in London, will have a sufficient following at a meeting of the Sinn Fein Parliament next Wednesday to insure ratification of the agreement by the substantial majority.
