Services in Zion Presbyterian Church

The attendance yesterday morning in Zion Church was larger than usual. The Rev. M. Scott Fulton took as his theme the question "Does it matter what we believe?". In the sermon four main divisions of thought were dwelt upon, viz., Atheism, Pantheism, Theism and Christianity. In each case besides a brief explanation or definition of what they stood for the results of their teaching was pointed out as revealed in the communities where they severally prevail. The comparison gave first place to the British Empire. As British subjects we are not slow to point out our own national shortcomings but when we come to study conditions elsewhere we have much to thank God for regarding the position we hold, and to acknowledge that, imperfect though we may be, it is the governing principles of Christianity that makes us what we are. The preacher pressed home on all the duty of making the most of the lights we have.

Singing was good and the solo by Mr. Harry Craswell was quite impressive.

Zion Church recognizes the good work of the choir. This took a pleasant form on Thursday evening when a banquet was tendered the instructor Mrs. Rogers and the members. The attendance was good and the repeat did justice to the Ladies Aid's representative.

At the evening service Mr. P. D. Williams sang very effectively, "The Voice in the Wilderness," and "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say." The pastor preached from the topic "Paul and the Olympic Games." An exceptionally large number were present at the service of songs when Mr. E. C. Farnell sang.

A NEW TEMPERANCE ACT FOR PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

Was the Subject of Rev Neil Herman's Message at the Central Christian Church Last Evening.

Talk about new things! There is nothing new under the sun. The liquor traffic is not new. Drunkenness is not new. There is nothing new about Prohibition. Government control was not born yesterday.

I have not patent right upon any truth and make no pretensions to originality, especially along the lines of framing a new law. When I say a New Temperance Act for Prince Edward Island I simply mean that there are one or two things I should like to suggest as being pretty fair timber for the building up of a Temperance Act for this Island. That is all I mean. I beg to humbly suggest the following as a mere imperfect plan upon which a constructive temperance act might be built.

This Act may be known as the Prince Edward Island Temperance Act.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND TEMPERANCE ACT COMMISSION

The liquor traffic of Prince Edward Island regulated—so far as law is concerned—by the Prince Edward Island Temperance Act shall be under the control and supervision of the Prince Edward Island Temperance Act Commission.

(a) This Commission shall be appointed by the Government of Prince Edward Island.

(b) This Commission shall represent, in its personnel, those leading elements in the life of the community of Prince Edward Island, and thus include in the composition of the Commission, the laboring and industrial interests—both skilled and unskilled—of this Province. And also:—

(c) The Commission shall include one or more members of the medical profession of Prince Edward Island. And further:—

(d) If possible, and if agreeable to the Government, the Commission shall include one or more women who shall represent the family life of the Province.

THE PERMIT SYSTEM

The sale of alcoholic liquors shall be operated under a permit system.

(a) These permits may be in book form there being fifty-two permits in each book, and having printed on each permit the date of the week during which it will be honored.

(b) These permits will not be honored on any week other than that stamped thereon.

(c) Books of permits shall be issued upon payment of fee.

(d) Permits shall be issued only upon due and careful consideration of (1) Age, (2) Physical, mental and moral condition of applicant.

(e) In the case of applicants for permits being heads of families, special restrictive demands shall be required of them.

(f) Special permits, valid for less time than one year, shall be granted to transients and tourists.

(g) Each permit to be good only for a certain quantity of alcoholic liquors; said quantity to be determined by the Temperance Commission.

SUPPLY AND DISTRIBUTION OF LIQUOR

(a) Government liquor dispensaries shall be opened at convenient points throughout the Province.

Persons in charge of these stores shall be employees of the Government. They shall be under the direct control of the Temperance Commission and shall engage in no other business during their term of government appointment; and furthermore these officials shall not carry on or, knowingly, permit to be carried on any sort of business or professional transactions in the stores under their control, other than the dispensing of liquors as provided for in this Act.

(b) No alcoholic liquor shall be sold in this Province except through the Government dispensaries as in this Act provided, and, specifically, all sale of alcoholic liquor by persons other than the Government or its Commission or their appointees—that is to say by tavern keepers, hotel keepers, restaurant keepers, grocery stores, clubs and other such establishments; and on railway dining cars and steam boats such sale is strictly forbidden.

(c) It is the purpose of this Act to establish a strict Government monopoly and control of all sales and purchases of alcoholic liquors, whether sold to or from persons or institutions, either within or without the Province; therefore, the establishment or maintenance of businesses purporting to import, export or sell liquor from or to parties or institutions outside the province is hereby forbidden.

INTEMPERANCE HAS NOT A LEG TO STAND ON

There is no defence for intemperance. You may dig as deep as

Trinity United Church

At yesterday morning's service in Trinity United Church the preacher was Rev. Dr. Ramsay, who delivered an impressive discourse on that question of most profound and solemn interest—immortality. The text was the passage beginning "But I would not have you to be ignorant brethren, concerning them who are asleep."

There are three affirmations of the human mind that keep life strong and sweet and sane—God, freedom and immortality. We need these three as lights by which to tread the book of destiny and hope.

To believe in God is as necessary for the mind of man as it is necessary for the planet to travel in its orbit round the sun. And the most beautiful in freedom would be as a tree, we are automata to which can come no command to duty and no virtue. If we lose the thought of immortality we become as the brute beasts. Hope of immortality is the soul's greatest fulfillment, for it is like the sun which gives beauty, peace and power to the world.

If we turn away from the thought of the immortal life our existence is frostbound and fruitless. The early church lived in the sunlight of the eternal world. When civilization was all but destroyed by the barbarian invasions, when despair fell upon Christendom by reason of the inroads of Mohammedanism, whenever defeat and affliction became for a time the portion of the church, there were always those who could recall the race to hope by showing them the vision of the City of God and pointing them to the immortal life. Since the great war many signs point to a returning interest in immortality. The drama "Outward Bound" was one of the most popular in the last twenty years because of its subject matter, an attempt to glimpse beyond the veil.

The eternal life must be a life of fulfillment, of realization. All our faculties will find fruition there. We shall not meet with defeat and death, but with triumph and progress. Man "partly is and wholly hopes to be" and in the immortal life he will be as the angels in heaven, and there shall be fellowship. Jesus said "they shall be with Me where I am," and to the dying malefactor "this day shalt thou be with me." Browning expressed his belief in the words, "I shall find thee again, O soul of my soul."

Great is our heritage—great is our hope. The parable of the prodigal son makes no suggestion of any termination of the renewed fellowship between the returning son and his father. In the immortal life there shall be joy and intimacy without end in the Father's house.

The music was very appropriate to the theme of the sermon. Mrs. W. E. Fletcher sang "The Holy City" and the choir rendered the anthem "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" by Ambrose.

In the evening Rev. W. M. Ryan preached on "How to know God's will." Sullivan's anthem "Lead

POTATO GROWERS AT SOURIS HELD IMPORTANT MEETING

Potato Warehouse for Souris Strongly Recommended. Resolutions in Regard to Improved Shipping Facilities Passed

The meeting of the Potato Growers, which was held in Souris Friday, was highly successful, there being a large attendance.

Mr. Edwin Reid, Rolle Bay, was chairman, and Mr. Michael MacLure, secretary.

Mr. H. H. Acorn outlined the object of the meeting and was followed by Mr. Boulter, who approved of the wharf itself as a site for the proposed warehouse in Souris. He gave some very valuable advice to the farmers with regard to the planting and marketing of potatoes, and traced the enormous development of the potato industry in the neighbourhood of Souris for the past four years.

Mr. C. C. Thompson, of Montague, stressed among other things the need of additional accommodation at various points. The seed potato industry troubled in three years, with no increase in warehouse facilities.

Mr. J. Johnston, K. C., said the section around Souris was shown to be one of the very best on the Island for potato growing but the farmers were handicapped by want of storage facilities. With the united front and strong and urgent pressure on the authorities, there was no reason why those facilities should not be granted. There is no desire to discriminate against Souris or any other port. He felt that the Georgetown warehouse was assured, and within the past week or two the complete plans had been forwarded to Ottawa by the Government Engineer.

Mr. Acorn followed, showing by means of a map the extensive territory to be benefited by a warehouse at Souris.

Mr. Wade Hughes next spoke, visualizing the probable growth of the next few years.

Discussion was continued by Messrs Michael Mooney, Greenvalle, A. J. MacAdam, Selkirk, and others.

Mr. H. D. McLean, M. P. P., spoke in support of increased shipping facilities at Souris.

A resolution was moved by Mr. J. J. Campbell of Red Point, and seconded by James Mallard, of Gowan Brae, thanking the Minister of Public Works, for the dredging done at the fairway to the railway wharf last fall, and providing a steamship berth at the northern side. It also urged upon the Minister the necessity of continuing the work by providing an additional steamship berth on the south side.

A resolution embodying the views of the potato growers at the meeting gave figures showing the remarkable development of the potato industry, and stated that the exportable surplus next year is estimated at 6,000,000 bushels of which there are only shipping facilities for 2,700,000 bushels.

It concluded by asking the Department of Public Works to take over the Railway wharf at Souris, and erect thereon a first class warehouse to hold 100,000 bushels of potatoes.

It was pointed out in the resolution that Souris and surrounding districts shipped 10,000 tons of potatoes last year.

Both resolutions were passed unanimously.

Messrs J. W. Boulter, and C. C. Thompson were appointed delegates to go to Ottawa to lay the requests of the meeting before the Federal Government.

THE MARKETS

(Canadian Press)
MONTREAL, Mar. 13.—The export trade in Canadian grain on the local market Saturday was again of a very limited character, there being practically no demand from any source. Trading in cash grain in the domestic market was also slow, the demand being only fair, odd cars to meet actual wants, but the undertone was steady. The movement of spring and winter wheat flour was small but prices ruled firm. A fairly active trade as done in all lines of millfeed and the undertone was steady. The demand for standard grades of rolled oats was quiet and the feeling was still unsteady. An easier feeling developed in the egg market and prices were reduced one cent per dozen. This was attributed to the increased importations from the United States, and the larger receipts of Canadian grades. Fresh extras were quoted at 41 cents, firsts 39 cents per dozen. The receipts were 1,445 cases.

The butter market continued active and prices were unchanged. The receipts were 403 packages. Extreme dullness again marked the cheese trade and the undertone was easy. Western grades were quoted at 17 1/2 cts 17 1/2 cents per pound. The receipts were 119 boxes.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 13.—(Eggs) — Canadian egg markets continue to work lower and a further decline has been reported from Winnipeg and other western points.

MONTREAL — This market is still easing with fresh selling in a jobbing way at Extras 36; firsts 34; seconds 32.

WINNIPEG — This market is lower with dealers quoting country shipper extras 30-31; firsts 28-29; seconds 24-25; prices to retailers extras 37; firsts 35; seconds 33.
