SAVE THE MOTHERS

Dodd's Kidney Pills Their Only Safety in Female Diseases.

You have seen a flower nipped by frost, fade and die in the flush of its beauty. That is how women die when attacked by any of the diseases peculiar to their sex.

Woman's burdens are woefully heavy. Her sufferings are agonizing. Her patience is grand. Disease preys upon her. The light dies out of her eyes, her steps become slow and dragging; she loses flesh; grows yellow, listless, droops like a flower. Then she dies. Her family is left to the cold mercy of the world.

"Mother's dead!" What a piteous phrase. What sufferings have been endured before it was used. Why should mothers, wives, sisters suffer so? They need not. Dodd's Kidney Pills will quickly and thoroughly cure all cases of Female Weakness. They never fail. They give health, strength, courage: a new lease of life.

Mrs. Hannah Holmes,

Cured of fluttering of the heart
dizziness and smothering feeling by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

From the St. John Globe.

The great number of deaths we read of day by day, which are the result of heart failure, should keep every one on his guard to keep that most vital organ of the body in a perfect healthy condition.

On the slightest indication of any heart trouble, palpitation, fluttering, skip beats, weakness of the pulse, dizzy or faint spells numbness of the hands or feet, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be taken.

They have saved many a life here in St. John, and are daily proving themselves to be the greatest benefactors of mankind.

One after another grateful for the blessing of life spared and better health restored, is being found and speaking a word for this splendid remedy. To-day we give the statement made by Mrs. Hannah Holmes, of this city which is as follows:—

"For some years I have been troubled with a fluttering of the heart and dizziness, which caused a smothering feeling and prevented me from resting. My appetite was poor and I was very much run down and debilitated. I began using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and they have helped me very much. The nervous feeling has been soothed, in fact I do not feel it at all now. My heart beat is regulated, the fluttering has disappeared, and I have been completely built up through the wonderful tonic effect of these pills. Before taking them I suffered very much from indigestion, and I am now entirely free from it, which is another debt of gratitude I owe to this remarkable remedy. I now feel stronger and better than for many years and cannot say too much in the praise of the remedy which restored my long lost health."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills never fail to do good. They cure all diseases arising from disordered nerves, weak heart or watery blood. They infuse animation, energy and new life into those who are run down, nervous, worn out and weakened by sickness and suffering. Price 50c a box or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists or sent by mail T. Milburn & Co., Toronto, Ont.

An Irishman by the name of Pat entered a restaurant with the intention of partaking of a square meal as he was very hungry. The waiter handed him a bill of fare in French. Pat looked it over but could not make head or tail of it was but unwilling to admit his ignorance. The waiter returning for his order Pat pointed with his finger at the top, drew it across and said "I will take some of that presently." The waiter returned with some thin watery soup Pat looked at the soup, and then at the waiter and then again at the soup and at last concluded to drink it and as the waiter returned for further commands, he drew his finger across the middle of the bill of fare and said "I will take some of that, presently." The waiter returned with some celery nicely arranged in a dish. Now Pat never saw celery before, and did not really know what to do with it, but at last concluded to eat it. He was almost afraid to try again, but as the waiter was evidently in a hurry, he drew his finger across the paper a little farther down and said "I will take some of that." The waiter returned this time with a nicely boiled lobster now Pat never even saw a lobster before, and it was too much for him. He looked at the lobster, and then at the waiter and again at the lobster and at last exclaimed: "See here Mister, I drunk your whater, and I ate your boquet, but by the powers above, you will not get me to touch that bug." Referring to the above we would say that there is no chance work in anything you order from us. Like Pat we do not know French and anything we have to say is in plain English and there is not any danger of Charlottetown taking a bunch of celery for a bouquet, or a lobster for a bug. Our celery is however getting short and we would advise lovers of it to enjoy it while they can, also fresh lettuce, parsley, mushrooms, beets, carrots, parsnips, onions, cabbage, turnips, canned goods, (Bolter's Brand) stringed beans, peas, tomatoes, corn, salmon etc. Expecting a supply of honey, rendered, and in the comb.—J. J. GAY, & SON, Market, Nursery Gardens, Charlottetown. Telephone 180. Feb. 3. & Tues.
