Letter of Sympathy

Mr. John S. Crane has received the following letter on the death of his son who died from wounds.

CIRCUMSTANCES

Pte. Crane was wounded on the 10th October last, while taking part in the military operations with his Battalion near Sailly, and succumbed to his wounds three days later in No. 55, General Hospital.

A. C. Donaldina.

Minister's Office
Ottawa, Dec. 28th, 1918

Dear Mr. Crane:

I desire to express to you my very sincere sympathy in the recent decease of your son, 713008 Pte James Edwin Crane, Canadian Exped. Force who in sacrificing his life at the front in action with the enemy has rendered the highest services of a worthy citizen.

The heavy loss which you and the nation have sustained would indeed be depressing were it not redeemed by the knowledge that the brave comrade for whom we mourn performed his duties fearlessly and well as became a good soldier, and gave his life for the great cause of Human Liberty and the defence of the Empire.

Again extending to you in your bereavement my condolence and heartfelt sympathy.

I am
Yours faithfully

Cuticura Heals Sore Red Pimples

Itching, Burning and Irritated. Lost Sleep.

"My face broke out in pimples that would heal up and then break out again. It was very sore and red, and all the time itching and burning, and I irritated my face by scratching. I lost a lot of sleep.

"I had the pimples for over five years. Then I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment healed my face completely." (Signed) Miss Zoo Parkes, Otterville, Ont., March 13, 1917.

Skin troubles are quickly relieved by Cuticura. The Soap cleanses and purifies, the Ointment soothes and heals. For Free Sample Each by Mail address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. A, Boston, U. S. A." Sold everywhere.

THE THING THAT DID THE BUSINESS

Now and again the question is put in more or less argumentative fashion: Who really saved the situation and worked the defeat of the central empires? Well, who did do it?

Belgium by her heroic sacrifice.

France by her marvellous steadfastness.

Russia by her timely relief of pressure on the west front.

Great Britian by the power of her fleet and merchant marine.

Italy by her counter irritant operations when Russia collapsed.

The United States by her succor in the final days.

Everybody helped, and everybody who fought is more or less responsible for the victory.

But most of all, the determining factor in bringing victory was the growth of unity among the allies. Without that unity everything else would have failed.

And in his connection, the best guarantee of future world progress and prosperity will be a continuance of the same unity.—Detroit Free Press.

The Connecticut farmer was riding back from the cemetery with his nephew, after burying his wife.

"Well she's gone,' said the bereaved husband.

The nephew said that was so.

"And do you know,' said the mourner, "to wards the last I almost got to like her

The nephew assented dutifully.

'She kep' good care of me for forty years."

ISLAND BOY IN GERMANY

Mrs. N. McLean, Melville, has received the following letter from her son in Germany, dated Dec. 21st:—

DEAR MOTHER,—I will write you a few lines to-day, to let you know I am well and in the best of health. I got your letter last night was very glad to get it, to know you were all well at home.

Well, we are now on German soil. We stayed in Cologne three days, it's a beautiful place and the scenery is something grand as the river Rhine runs along side of it.

We are now a few miles further on in a place called Meblen. I will seno you a few post cards as it will give you an idea what it looks like. The German people use us well, of ccurse you have to be careful where you go at night but there are always three of us together and we carry sidearms. We sleep in their houses and have a good time so far. They seem to be as glad as ourselves that the war ended.

We move along a good deal. I have no idea how long we will be out here, yet will be glad when on our way back. There is fine weather here with everything nice and green. The bridge across the river Rhine you see on post card I have crossed several times and we are billeted now up along the river not far from Cologne where we have our guns in action. We stayed across the street in a well hotel, some class.

Bill, as the boys call him left here with the 98th Battery, also Daniel and Albert McPherson and Peter Emery, all four being from Melville and were very lucky as all are now in Germany. Willie has two other brothers in uniform Samuel and James who left good positions in California. Samuel enlisted in the American Army and served in France in the Aero Squadron, while James crossed from Victoria, B. C., and signed up for Siberia.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.

The semi-annual examination was held at Red Point school on Tuesday, Dec. 24th. The schoolroom was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Mr. John J. Campbell occupied the chair.

The pupils were examined in the various sudjects by Mrs. Adrian McInnis and Mr. John J. Campbell and their prompt and intelligent answers reflected great credit on this painstaking and efficient teacher, Miss Hazel Stewart. Then followed a lengthy program of songs, dialogues, drills and recitations, which were all well rendered and thoroughly enjoyed by the visitors present. Special mention might be made of "A Merry Xmas drill" by fourteen pupils, a vocal duet by the Misses Martha Robertson and Ena Garrett and a vocal solo by Donald F. Campbell after which the candles were lighted, and old Santa bedecked in his regalia appeared on the scene with a present off the nicely decorated Xmas tree for every pupil in the school, the teacher's gift being a beautiful handbag, presented by the school children to which she replied in a few well chosen words. Nor were the visitors forgotten, cake being served by the two little sisters of the teachers. After complimentary remarks by those present the proceedings came to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

Order Restored Definitely in Berlin

(Special to The Guardian.)

BERLIN, Jan. 19.—Loyal troops entered Berlin and occupied the whole centre of the City as well as the North and Northwest sections Thursday. Heavy artillery has been placed in Doenhoff Platz and Spittel Markt. Field guns stand at various points in the closely guarded district including Unter Den Linden, and armored autos and tanks have been prepared for instant use. All the streets in the sections named are under guard and it is impossible to pass without identification and without satisfactory explanation to the soldiers that one is unarmed.

Returned Soldiers Heartily Welcomed

athletes and the boys are all glad to see him safe home again.

Sgt. J. H. Hogan, M M

Another popular 8th Siege Battery man to return was Sgt. J. H. Hogan M. M., son of Mr. W. H. Hogan, of Hope River. He was among those who got their share of German gas at Lievan. He had the honor to win the Military Medal and according to a comrade's statement he won it on the night of that memorable gas attack, when, through a clever bit of camouflage work on the guns he with several others outwitted the Huns and saved the guns. He has been in England since May. He was fourteen months in France and two months in hospital in England. When the armistice was signed he was a cadet in the Royal Air Force.

Gunner Chester Garrett

Gunner Garrett is another 8th Siege Battery man. He is a son of Mr. D. Garrett, City and went all through the fighting in which the battery participated. He was among those gassed at Armentieres. His many friends are delighted to see him again looking "fit as a fiddle".

Gunner Pope Clarke

Gr. Clark was another well known Charlottetown boy who got the glad hand from many friends. He was gassed along with Island boys at Armentieres. He was in the 4th Siege Battery when the armistice was signed.

Gunner Joseph R. Doyle

Among other 8th Siege Batterymen returning was Gr. Joseph R. Doyle of this city. "Joe" was probably the youngest lad in the Battery leaving here, and went as a trumpeter. He was one of the most popular boys in the "bunch" and like others got his share of the gas which the Germans sent across at Armentieres. Before leaving here Joe was one of the city's best athletes and is a brother of Mr. Sam Doyle of the Inland Revenue office who has also some reputation that way.

Pte. J. B. McCormack

Pte. McCormack is a son of Mr. Patrick McCormack, Launching. He went overseas with the 105th. He was wounded in the knee near Arras, and was for nine months in hospital.

Pte. F. H Donaldson

Pte. Donaldson belongs to Brown's Road. Enlisted in the R. C. R. Halifax. Was wounded in the leg at Passchendaele and spent nine months in hospitals.

Pte. S Chaisson

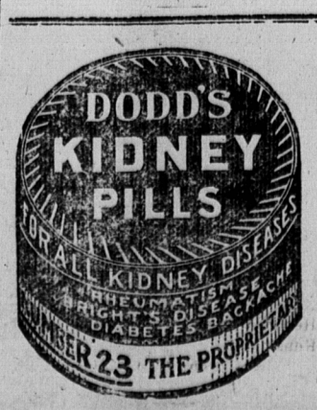
Pte. Chaisson belongs to Souris. He was fifteen years in Western Canada before enlisting in the 128th Battalion of Saskatchewan. He was wounded in the knee at Amiens. Was two years in France.

Pte. Alex McLean

Pte. McLean belongs to High Bank. Enlisted in 105th, was at Vimy Ridge, Hill 70 and Passchendale. Was gassed at Hill 70. Son of Mrs. Christine McLean, High Bank

Mention of other soldiers returned will appear later.

The reception in the College Hall was a last minute idea and a good one. It is hoped that similiar ones will be held there.



War Service Homes Bill Being Considered

(Special to The Guardian.)

LONDON, Jan. 19.—Senator Millen, Australian Minister for repatration, on moving the second reading of a war service homes bill in the Federal Parliament said that the housing problem was acute in Australia as in other countries. The bill would enable nurses and members of the medical services and discharged members of the A. I. F., who were married or about to marry or the widow or widowed mother and other dependents to apply for homes. A commissioner would be appointed for seven years at $7,500 a year to make advance for homeseekers who would be empowered to acquire land and build houses. Applicants would be required to pay interest at five per cent.

The minister, illustrating the working of the scheme, said that on a $3,000 house there would be a payment of $3.35 weekly on 37 years terms and of $4.00 a week on 26 years terms. On a $2,500 house on 20 years terms the weekly payment would be $3.75.

Germans Prepare To Meet Poles

(Special to The Guardian.)

BERLIN, Jan. 19.—The German Government is reported to be organizing two armies for the purpose of counteracting an invasion by the Poles, who already are threatening Brandenburg. Forces in West Prussia will be under the command of Gen. Von Quaste, while an army in Silesia will be commanded by Field Marshall Von Woyrsch.

Warning Issued Against False Reports

(Special to The Guardian.)

PARIS, Jan. 19.—Premier Clemenceau in the Chambers of Deputies today gave a warning against false reports concerning the peace conference. "As an instance" he said, "I saw yesterday a telegram addressed to the New York Tribune in which it was said that President Wilson had threatened to withdraw all his troops and himself retire if certain stipulations of his were not granted. When I showed this telegram to Mr. Wilson this morning, he replied to me. What an abominable falsehood."

Canada Will Float New Loan in U.S.

(Special to The Guardian.)

QUEBEC, Jan. 19.—The Provincial Cabinet today decided to grant a bonus of one month's salary to every employee of the civil service whose salary is not above $1,600 a year. It is understood that the Canadian Government will float a new loan in the United States. The new secretary of the treasury of the United States, Carter Glass has disclosed the fact that a request has been made by a Foreign Government to float a loan through the banks of that country, according to the Financial Posts representative, who goes on to say the need for Canadian borrowing in the United States at this time is immediately clear. Canadian-American trade statistics disclose that at the end of November, being for eleven months of the Calendar year 1918, Canada's unfavorable trade balance in this country had reached the somewhat startling total of $397,000,000. Canada's excess of imports from the United States unquestionably exceeded $425,000,000 at the commencement of the New Year.

BERLIN FEARS A GENERAL STRIKE

LONDON, Jan. 18.—There are apprehensions in Berlin of a general strike and uprisings to avenge the deaths of Dr. Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxembug, the Spartacan leaders according to a Copenhagen despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

It is doubtful if the elections to the national assembly can be held on Sunday because of the tremendous excitement. Several more Spartacan leaders have been arrested but the former Chief of Police, Elchorn, is still at large.

INSPIRED JUST IN TIME

The father of a family presented himself at an emigration office and asked for tickets.

"How many are you?" enquired the agent. A.—"Three—myself, wife, and child."

"Your age and profession?" went on the clerk. A.—"I've just turned 30; profession, carpenter; my wife, a needle-woman."

"Three of you, you said?" enquired the man. "What about the child—sex and age?" A.—"Boy; seven months."

"Profession?"

The father's eyebrows were raised so much that they almost formed Gothic arches on his forehead.

"His profession, I say?" repeated the agent. The astonished father paused just a moment longer, wondering where red-tape would stop; then, as if inspired he said: "Bachelor!"
