FERTILIZER STEAMERS ARRIVE—Two steamers bringing the first cargoes of fertilizer, came to Summerside harbour about noon on Wednesday. One, the S. S. Fredericksburg, cleared from Halifax. She called at Picton, N. S., on her way here and left some of her cargo. She brought about 3,000 bags to Summerside. Her cargo belonged to the Colonial Fertilizer Company. The other steamer was the S. S. Anders from Baltimore, with between 1800 to 1900 tons of fertilizer for the Harris Abattoir Company.—S.

FOR SERVICE

For service the premium Stallion—Marshall Joffre No. 13186 will stand for the season at owner's stables in St. Peter's. This beautiful Black Percheron Stallion is throwing beautifully turned stock. The choicest foals and year olds in Prince Edward Island, have this stallion for their sire. SEE SOME OF THEM!

We especially recommend this stallion for blood mares as well as for the draft type. We did not buy this horse to make money on him, but rather to improve the class of horses in this community.

TERMS—$10.00 insures a foal $8.00 for the season.

We reserve the right to reject unbreedable or diseased mares. Owners in charge.

STURGEON INSTITUTE—The monthly meeting of the Sturgeon Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Benj. Graham on the evening of April 8th, with five members and one visitor present. The meeting opened by singing Institute Ode, followed by roll call, which was answered with riddles. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved of same. Road conditions being unfavorable, the school and sick committees were not present. The School Committee for April is Mrs. Richard Llewellyn and Mrs. Earl Llewellyn; Sick Committee, Mrs. Hugh Collings and Mrs. Thomas Creed. Business over, Mrs. Leigh Wight gave a reading, entitled "Life is but one darned thing after another," also a quartette, by four members. Mrs. Leigh Wight, Mrs. Earl Llewellyn, Mrs. Richard Llewellyn and Mrs. Benj. Graham, entitled, "I'll remember you, love in my prayers." The meeting then closed with the National Anthem, after which Mrs. Graham served a dainty lunch. Receipts were 26 cents. Next meeting is to be answered with "My Mother's Maiden Name," and to meet at the home of Mrs. Leigh Wight.

MAJOR MAY GIVES INTERESTING TALK AT LEGION SUPPER—At the regular monthly meeting of the Summerside branch of the Canadian Legion on Wednesday evening Major May of St. Eleanor's gave an interesting talk on winners of the Victoria Cross from the time of the Crimean War to the Great War. About thirty-five members sat down to an excellent lobster supper. Among the guests was Mr. John Mellish a veteran of South African war and the Great War. These monthly meetings are proving to be very popular with the returned men.—S.

INSTITUTE NOTES—Mrs. W. A. MacMurdo entertained the members of the Kelvin Grove Women's Institute at her home on Tuesday evening, May 5th. The program, which was prepared by the executive was used and proved very successful. Meeting opened by singing of "Institute Ode" and repeating of Creed in unison. Minutes were read, approved and signed, and roll call was responded to by twenty-two members by a line or verse on "Mother." One visitor was present. A discussion was held on "Beautifying School Grounds," and a committee was appointed to have windowboxes made and flowers planted in them, also have perennials planted, (such as hollyhocks or goldenglow) around the school. Sick committee reported no illness in the district, and Mrs. J. A. Hogg and Addie MacMurdo were appointed for May. School committee reported having scrubbed the school, and having blinds repaired. The new bookcase has been placed in the school, and proved satisfactory. The committee for May are Mrs. William Caseley and Mrs. Robert Crozier. The correspondence was read by the Secretary, also a letter from the Supervisor by Mrs. Laird, explaining how the Exhibition Booth would be conducted this year, and thanking this Institute for suggestions which had been sent in in regard to said booth. Mrs. John W. Thompson invited the members to her home for the June meeting, and Mrs. J. A. Stewart, Mrs. Robert Crozier and Mrs. Mabon Byron volunteered for refreshment committee. Mrs. John Stewart gave a splendid paper on "Child Welfare," which was well prepared and very instructive. Mrs. John Thompson also gave a fine paper on "A Famous Mother," and a reading, "A Mother's Work," by Mrs. John Walker was very much enjoyed. Mrs. Laird favored the meeting with a piano solo. Collection amounted to $12.25, and one member paid fee. The meeting adjourned.

PIUSVILLE INSTITUTE—The members of Piusville Institute held their monthly meeting on April 29th at the home of Mrs. Alfred Blanchard, with an attendance of nineteen members. Roll call was answered by "My Mother's Maiden Name." Four new members were enlisted. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. All committees gave their reports. The new committees appointed were: School Committee, Mrs. Ambrose Corcoran and Miss Katherine Corcoran; Sick Committee, Mrs. Charlie L. Gallant and Mrs. Mosey Gallant; Program Committee, Mrs. J. J. Corcoran and Miss Rose Gallant. Next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Frank C. Gallant, where roll call will be answered by "Signature written left-handed while Blindfolded," a game of Lotto will also take place at this meeting. It was decided that the meeting during the summer months would begin at eight o'clock. A Lottery realized the sum of $25.40. The winners of the prizes for the above were: Pillow Cases, won by Mrs. Isidore Gallant, Piusville; Shaving Set, by Mrs. Archie Gallant, Piusville; Man's scarf, Mr. Peter Gallant, Piusville and a Ladies' Purse, won by Mr. Elmer Hallofan, Campbellton. Among other expenses, two dollars were given to have a Mass said for the repose of the soul of Mrs. Prosper Gallant, who recently died at her home in Piusville, after a lingering illness.
