CROWDS WRECK THEATRE
WHEN BOUT IS STOPPED.

VIENNA, July 12.—An extraordinary scene was witnessed the other night at the Romacher Music Hall, where an international wrestling competition was in progress.
The Italian world's champion, Blanchi, began a match with a Viennese wrestler, shortly before the legal closing time for theatres, and as the two wrestlers were well matched the contest was still undecided when time was called.
The police insisted on closing the theatre, whereupon the audience started breaking the furniture and fittings and throwing them against the iron curtain. The interior of the theatre was completely wrecked and the police had to clear the building by force.

IN MEMORIAM
MISS JANE HAMM

There passed peacefully away at Falconwood Hospital on May 1st, Jane Hamm after over forty years faithful service in her chosen profession as a nurse, deceased had been in failing health for nearly a year. Suffering from a serious stomach trouble, but never seeming to really give in to her sickness she possessed with a nerve of steel she bravely faced the storms and trials of this life ever believing that the Lord doeth all things well.
In religion Miss Hamm was a Baptist. Attended faithfully and staunchly by Dr. Goodwill who did everything in his power to relieve her sufferings and stay the hand of death, she peacefully and willingly laid down the cross to take up the crown and while she is gone from us, we believe that in many homes her name will ever be remembered with kindest thoughts and fond memories for her that lived for the good that she might do. Her funeral took place from the home of her brother William at the Baptist Cemetery at Cross Roads and was largely attended. She leaves to mourn her loss and cherish her memory one sister and one brother.

ELIZA McNEIL

There passed peacefully away on the morning of June the nineteenth, Eliza McNeil widow of the late Allan Hamm of Southport in the seventy-first year of her age.
Deceased had been sick a while but seemed to improve for a winter and it was thought with the re-season returning she would be restored to health again, but God had willed it otherwise and her gentle spirit took its flight. She was tenderly and lovingly cared for by her daughter Lottie. Many old friends will remember Mrs.
Hamm's kindness to the travelling public when she lived in Southport where her husband kept the post office and was the well known black smith of that place. Mrs.
Hamm was a constant member of the Presbyterian Church, Rev.
George C. Taylor officiated at her funeral and the pall bearers were:
Charles H. Chandler, W. E. Robertson, William Duffy, Herbert Mc-Nair, Solomon Mutch, Wilfred Bou-
