

Wellner Watch

An excellent timekeeper for a small amount of money. Prices—$6.50 up. Every watch carefully tested and guaranteed by us.

W. W. WELLNER, Jeweler.

Amateurs bring your films and have them carefully developed and printed. At COOK'S Photo Studio.

Films for Sale.

TRY US

For Camera

And Photo Supplies.

All goods new and up-to-date

GEO. E. HUGHES,

Apothecaries Hall.

1.50 1.50 1.50

Ladies' patent leather shoes 1.50

1.50 Your chance to buy a neat trappy shoe at a low price. 1.50

1.50 Blucher cut, fast color eyelets, cheap at 25 1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

1.50

Sale of Sample Shoes 1000 pairs

in men's and women's at 20 p. c. off regular prices.

The men's are all size 7.

The women's from 2 1-2 to 4, principally size 4.

If you wear any of these sizes we have bargains here for you and the goods are right up to the minute.

Alley & Co

DR. H. D. JOHNSON

Kent Street, Practice limited to Diseases of Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat and Skin.

OFFICE HOURS 9 to 1 p. m. 1.30-3.30 p. m. Evenings by appointment

DR. A. B. Reid

DENTIST Office Hours 9-1 and 2-4 Over Jenkins & Son NEW PROWSE BLOCK Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Lime Juice

We have just opened up a large consignment of pure West India Lime Juice.

This juice has been well filtered and clarified and is guaranteed to be free from all impurities.

It is put up in 10 and 25 cent bottles. We have also in stock the Montserrat Lime Juice put up in pint and quart bottles.

Beer & Goff

LADIES'

Now is the time of nice light dresses

WHY NOT have your Photo taken AND COLORED by our new colored process. Call and see our samples at

The BAYER PHOTO Studio. Telephone 192-J.

Dr. Geo. E. Moor

Dentist, Crapaud, P. E. I. High grade dentistry only. 7-9d3m.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all. Miss Maggie Mahar, Regina, is visiting in this City.

The mail train arrived in the City last night at ten minutes past ten. Mrs. J. L. Godkin, City, returned yesterday from a visit to Montague.

Captain Joseph Road, Halifax, arrived in the city last night by the mail special.

W. D. McKenzie and Mrs. McKenzie, Washington, D. C., arrived in the city last night to visit the former's sister, Mrs. D. A. McKay, Grafton St.

The highest temperature register yesterday was sixty two above zero. At nine a.m. the mercury stood at sixty-two above and at nine p.m. at fifty three above.

New Wonderland, last night, showed an elegant picture of the P. E. I. Light Horse—in their ceremonial uniform, taken immediately after church parade last Sunday.

The eighty second regiment and the Light Horse were inspected yesterday by His Honor The Lieutenant Governor and Colonel Moore, D. O. C. on the parade grounds, at Victoria Park. The men conducted themselves in a splendid manner and excellent music was rendered by the band.

Col. Benson, Inspector of Artillery inspected the Ammies and looks of the 4th Regiment yesterday morning at half past ten, and in the afternoon the company were inspected in company drill. In the evening Nos. 1 and 2 company were inspected in section gun drill at the Drill Shed. No. 3 company will be inspected in section gun drill this morning, and tonight the officers and non commissioned officers will answer questions.

Neil Cameron and wife, of Springton, while driving near Bradalbane, Wednesday afternoon, had the misfortune to be thrown from their buggy, which was upset at a bad turn near the foot of a hill, their horse being frightened by other teams which were wildly driving past. Mr. Cameron had two of his ribs broken, but Mrs. Cameron, though considerably shaken up, was otherwise unhurt.

A large card filled with excellent views taken at Camp Brighton, is now on exhibition in the window of Johnson & Johnson's Drug Store. The photos were all taken with a No. 3, A. Folding Pocket Kodak on the famous Eastman film, and include pictures of the different companies, Brigade staff, Officers and staff of the 82nd Regiment, and the Sniften Club. Every face can be seen distinctly and the pictures are excellent samples of the class of work done in Johnson & Johnson's Developing and Printing Department.

The case of Sadie Buchanan versus The Provincial Grand Orange Lodge of P. E. I. again claimed the attention of the court all day yesterday. On Wednesday Mr. MacLean on behalf of the defendant moved for a non suit, yesterday morning this request was refused by the presiding Judge, and at present the evidence for the defence is being heard. The jury is composed of the following gentlemen, John McKenna, Foreman, Joseph Purcell, Theodore Pickering, Richard Good, H. M. Chandler, John Bevan, H. H. Howard.

A fashionable wedding was solemnized in All Saints' Church, Cannington, on Wednesday afternoon, when Edythe Carrie Staddon, daughter of W. H. Hoyle, M.P.P., and Mrs. Hoyle, was married to Dr. Emmerson McNeill, of Qu'Appelle, Sask. The rector of the parish, Rev. A. C. Cunniff, officiated. The church was decorated by the young friends of the bride. Miss Mabel M. Hoyle, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The groomsmen was Harry P. Whiteside, of Toronto. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a gown of ivory satin charmeuse, trimmed with point lace, and tulle veil with coronet of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was attired in maize satin, with Persian trimmings, and wore a white picture hat. After the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents. The bride's mother received in a gown of amethyst satin charmeuse, with lace and embroidery, and a black hat trimmed with rosebuds. The gift of the bridegroom to the bride was a gold watch set with diamonds. After the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. McNeill left for Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, where they will spend the honeymoon. —Toronto Mail and Empire. Dr. McNeill is a native of this province.

A glass of iced "Salada" Tea will be found most refreshing this warm weather. As cooling as a summer breeze.

Soda Trade:—This is a part of our business we give particular attention to. Our fountain and apparatus is new and up-to-date in every respect. We use only the purest fruit flavors and the best quality of cream. A. W. Reddin, Phem B.

Although the evening was disagreeable, the members of Prince Edward Division, E. O. T., spent a very enjoyable hour last night in their hall, and those who braved the storm found a rare treat in store for them.

All Guardian advertisers should phone 132-3, daily, up to 6 p.m., and after that hour 133. For subscriptions, phone 132-2 up to 6 p.m., and for news, phone 133 at any hour up to 6 p.m. When 133 does not respond, ring 124. It is a waste of time except to phone as above.

An exhibit may be seen in Paton's window of the cups won by Michael Thomas. They are all of the best possible make and the winner may well be proud of the emblems of his victories. One is the Patriot's Cup, and the other is the Campbellton five mile cup; also H. H. Brown's gold medal. To the successful sportsmen the Guardian extends congratulations.

The First Methodist Sunday School picnic is to be held at Hamilton's Grove on Thursday, July 15. There will be a well supplied visitors' table also refreshment booth on the grounds. Sports for the boys and girls will be held and a most enjoyable time is to be expected. The train will leave the station at 8.45 a.m. The ticket for adults are fifty cents and for children twenty-five.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

On Wednesday evening about half past six a little boy by the name of Ernest Dorion was arrested in the store of Prowse Bros., Ltd., having entered by removing a pane of glass from the rear of the store. He took three dollars from the till. This is either the third or fourth visit of this young man to Prowse Bros. Store, and each time he helped himself to whatever amount of small change the till contained. On the evening mentioned after work hours, Sergt. Bradley with Charles Livingstone and John McAlear remained in the store, and as a result caught the youthful offender in the act. This same boy stole a dollar in loose change from the store of J. D. Taylor on Sunday last, and on Friday the second inst. he secured a small amount of money from Wallace Stewart's restaurant on Queen St. On Sunday last and on other occasions he ratted the back windows of James Kelly's store and helped himself to confectionery. The boy burglar's case will come up for hearing in the city police court on Monday July 12th.

F. McNamara and wife, St. John's, Nfld., are at the Queen.