SOCIAL EVENING ENJOYED.—The members of the Methodist Sunday School of Murray Harbor West on Tuesday evening in the spacious home of Mr. A. P. Prowse, the Superintendent, for a social good time—and they had it. During the course of the evening a short program was put through with the pastor Mr. Weeks presiding. At the close of the program Miss Myrtle Beck on behalf of the school read an address to Mr. Prowse (Supt.). The address remarked that Mr. Prowse has been Supt. of the school for nearly sixteen years. Very kindly references were made regarding his interest in the S. School etc. The address was concluded with the presentation of a beautiful bible as a small token of appreciation on the part of the school of the work Mr. Prowse has done. This presentation was made by little Frank Reynolds. Mr. Prowse very fittingly responded bespeke prosperity for the S. S. and hoped all would do their best in this respect. A sumptuous repast was partaken of and both young and old voted it a fine time—not indeed the first time Mr. and Mrs. Prowse have opened their house and hearts to the Sunday School.

AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.—The dance given by Dr. and Mrs. John Stephen Jenkins in honor of the Misses Helen and Hilda Jenkins at the Country Club Wednesday night was a most delightful affair. About one hundred and fifty guests were present and enjoyed every dance of a programme of eighteen numbers. During the evening as a specialty a Lottery Dance was very successfully put on and also an old time set of Queens Lancers. Both these numbers was much enjoyed and made a pleasant feature of the evening. Mrs. Jenkins assisted by the Misses Jenkins who received the guests made an ideal hostess and she looked very attractive in a beautiful evening dress of black velvet trimmed with cloth of gold. Altogether the dance was splendid and everybody had a good time

PATIENTS ENTERTAINED.—The patients of Falconwood Hospital and Infirmary were made happy on Wednesday night when the annual Christmas Entertainment was held. The hall was artistically decorated for the occasion with flags, evergreens and Christmas mottoes, and two large Christmas trees gay with their dresses of bright colors were prominently in evidence. Preliminary to the regular Christmas program several reels of moving pictures were run off to the great enjoyment of all. "Accompaniments to the pictures were played on the grand piano by a party from the Dalton Sanatorium to Falconwood at the request of the Daughters of the Empire. After the moving pictures a number of "still" views of Christmas scenes were thrown on the canvass. Santa Claus then made his appearance bringing with him two big bags laden with gifts. Santa received a hearty reception and before taking his departure made a happy speech and sang a song. A present was given to every patient. The visitor present included the members of the Trustee Board, namely Premier Bell, chairman, Hon. Cyrus W. Crosby, Hon. George E. Hughes and Dr. McGuigan, Mr. B. W. LePage, Mr. L. A. was also in attendance. Short addresses were given by the trustees, the Premier, Hon. George E. Hughes, another photograph to the institution. The proceedings closed with the National Anthem. After the entertainment the trustees and other visitors were entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Goodwill in their apartment. The Doctor stated that he had received from Miss Catherine M. Mansfield of Boston a cheque for $100 to go towards buying a Christmas dinner for the patients.
