McLEOD GOOD, SAYS

Mr. Tom Trenholm of the C. N. R. Intelligence Department was a visitor to the city yesterday.

Mr. Trenholm, who is well and favorably known on the Island received many congratulations here with regard to the splendid performance of his protegee, Hugh McLeod of Nova Scotia, who recently won the ten mile run in Pictou, beating such stars as Smith's Jimmy Henigan, Billy Taylor and Clarence DeMar. McLeod's win was all the more phenomenal when it was learned that he was suffering all the way with a bad ankle, but expert bandaging and care by his trainer Tom Trenholm before the race brought the courageous young Scotman through with flying colors. Mr. Trenholm was of the opinion that the American runners were out to "kill off" young McLeod during the early part of the grind, but McLeod's strict attention to expert advice and coaching was much for the stars below the border—they were beaten at their own game; both DeMar and Henigan were outrun and outsmarted all the way.

McLeod's time was around 57 minutes, about three minutes slower than his last race at Pictou. Tom thinks that notwithstanding the disadvantage his boy is working under that had been pushed he would have undoubtedly broken the world's record of 52 minutes for the distance held by Jolie Ray of New York. However, he is more than satisfied because of the fact that he thought he might have been forced to pull his runner from the race in the early miles.

Arthur Duffey, former world's champion sprinter and at present one of the foremost sport writers on the continent had charge of the American runners. After the race he remarked, "You put it over us again Trenholm, but we are proud to be beaten at our own game by one who belongs to the old school and even yet a past master in the art of handling runners."

"These words coming from such a celebrity as Art Duffey speak volumes for Trenholm, who in days gone by handled such famous runners as Tom Longboat, Hans Holm and many others.

It will not be surprising if McLeod's name will appear in the future list when the big Boston marathon takes place, and further still, there will be a number who will show little excitement if McLeod leads his the tape a winner.

McKENNA IS THERE

Jack McKenna's sensational knockout of Joe Brown of Detroit in Sydney last Monday night clearly and decisively demonstrates to the fans of the Maritime Provinces and the Dominion of Canada in general that he is the "daddy" of all the middleweights in the nine provinces and the superior of all but a few in the United States—and Jack hasn't met them yet.

Brown, it will be remembered got a decision over McKenna in Detroit about a year ago; and according to clippings from various Detroit dailies, was a very unpopular one. Jack himself told me he thought he should have received at least a draw. However, it's a long time that hasn't got an ash barrel and the Canadian middleweight champion demonstrated this phrase to a nicety—he knocked Brown in to oblivion in less than twelve minutes of fighting. Had George Allen, his recent opponent fought one arm free in the clinches, he no doubt would have gone the same way. Jack's last win was undoubtedly received with much pleasure by his many friends and admirers on Prince Edward Island—may he win the remainder of his battles, which will be plenty.

His Manager Eddie Mead, in a letter to me recently said that from now on he will carefully groom his ace for a bout with Hudkins early in March. Hudkins lost a close decision to Mickey Walker the world's middleweight champion not long ago. If McKenna succeeds in taking the American middleweight's measure, then his big "shot" at the title is assured.

Jack fights Johnny Nemis of New Waterford in Sydney on Wednesday night. He will then return to Cleveland.

THE MARITIME CHAMPIONSHIPS

Pairs have been calling this department asking when and where the Maritime Field and Track Championships are to be held.

I have made enquiries and have learned that no Maritime meet will be held this year, due possibly to the fact that Amherst, Truro and a number of other towns are after the event, and rather than "discriminate," the M. P. B. Executive have decided to pass the meet up for 1928.

If such is the case it is rather a black eye to athletics in these provinces by the fact, especially when one considers the great part Canada played during the past Olympics. Truly, the Maritimes did not figure very prominently, but the example set by the rest of Canada was a good one, and encouraging when one and acted as an incentive when the discards and allowed to fall by the wayside with the flotsam and jetsam of all our other athletic endeavors. We hope not—and it is something is done to remedy in Sydney last Monday night clear-

Edmonton Grads Welcomed Home

EDMONTON, Alta., Sept. 5.—Edmonton's Commercial Grads, girls' basketball champions of the world, staged a triumphant homecoming yesterday. The team, which won eight straight games on their European tour by overwhelming scores, was met by thousands of cheering citizens.

Meant For Poet

PARIS, Sept. 5.—Paris newspapers today expressed surprise at the lack of signs of a boxer about Gene Tunney.

"He was meant to be a poet, and was a boxer by necessity," said Le Petit Parisien. "He only won in the ring enough dollars to enable him to end his days in peace. He perhaps is not a happy man. His glory weighs heavily on this champion, and he has not yet found happiness."

Other sporting writers remarked that Tunney's figure was athletic, but not exaggeratedly so. They said that those not knowing him would never think the blue-eyed blonde gentleman was champion of the world and the vanquisher of Dempsey.

BIRTH OF "OCEAN MARY" OBSERVED

HENNIKER, N. H., Aug. 30.—Residents recently observed the 150th anniversary of the birth of "Ocean Mary," a character famous in this section of the country. The old house in which she later lived is almost as famous because of the tradition and the antiques which it holds.

Some one hundred and fifty years ago a ship on the high seas was attacked by pirates. The chief, upon learning that a child had been born to a woman on board requested to be allowed to see the child. Finding that the infant was a girl, he asked the parents to name her "Mary," for his dead wife. Returning to his ship, the chief soon returned with costly gifts for "Mary," and choosing a particular piece of colored silk he requested that a dress be made for the child to be worn on her wedding day.

The pirates then left the ship and in the course of time it reached its destination. Years passed and Mary, now grown to a beautiful girl was married, wearing the dress made from the silk which the pirate chief had left with her mother for her, years before.

But little is known of her married life, but her later years were passed here in what is today known as the "Ocean Mary" house.

The present owners are attempting to restore the house as far as possible to its original condition. A systematic search has resulted in recovering many of the original furnishings, sold at auction many years ago. Many visitors from all parts of the country call at the place annually.

controlled directly by the sun he says, but while astronomy is an exact science which has been studied for centuries, meteorology has been studied for about three quarters of a century. When the effect of the sun's heat on the earth has been studied for two centuries more, Mr. Loveland hopes the meteorologist can with accuracy predict the weather far in advance.

Steve Rocco Outpoints Marty Gold

TORONTO, Sept. 5.—In a slashing 10-round bout here tonight, Steve Rocco, of Toronto, Canadian flyweight champion, fought his way to decision over Marty Gold of Philadelphia. The Canadian contender fought a remarkable battle, battering his way to a well-earned victory after being floored without a count. In the second round by the crafty Philadelphia.

Again in the fourth and fifth rounds Rocco hit the canvas for an instant, skidding to the floor after taking a glancing blow from Gold. But throughout the greater part of the fight Rocco was decidedly on the offensive, swinging wildly at times, but managing to land more blows than his opponent. Gold was in distress on two occasions, but kept his feet and seemed content to await opportunities that seldom came.

Weather Forecasts

CORRECT IN 200 YEARS

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—Weather forecasts may be expected to be accurate in about 200 years, according to George A. Loveland, meteorologist of the United States Weather Bureau in this city. Mr. Loveland declares that with the passing of two more centuries sufficient data will have been collected to make reliable forecasts possible. Forecasts at present are about 85 percent correct, he declares. The weather is

To Try Again

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Sir Thomas Lipton will make a try for the America's Cup in 1929. He announced this today, as he entertained for Southampton, whence he will sail for the United States on the Leviathan.

Goes To Bears

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Vic Aldridge, obtained by the Giants from Pittsburgh last winter in a trade for Burleigh Grimes, yesterday was sent to the Newark Bears, of the International League, on option for the remainder of the season. The veteran incurred the displeasure of Manager McGraw early in the season by holding out for more salary than McGraw considered him to be worth. He finally reached terms and reported late in May.
