Tender for Stock

THE BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA

Tenders will be received by the undersigned up to noon on September 20th, 1933, for the whole or any part of 1047 shares of the par value of $100 each of the Capital Stock of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

The shares now offered comprise the unaccepted allotments together with the fractions of shares arising from the allotment of the new Capital Stock issue of 20,000 shares authorized by the Board of Directors on 17th December, 1929.

A certified cheque for ten per cent. (10%) of the cost of the shares applied for must accompany each tender, which must state the price per share bid and be addressed to "The General Manager, The Bank of Nova Scotia, Toronto 2, Ontario," marked "Tenders for Stock."

In case a tender is accepted the balance will be payable on allotment and the stock will rank for dividend from the date of payment at any Branch or Agency of the Bank.

The Bank does not bind itself to accept the highest or any tender.

By order of the Board,
J. A. McLEOD,
General Manager.

ENJOYING HOLIDAY—Rev. John McKinnon and Mrs. McKinnon, of Chesley, Ont., were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. McLeod, City, this week. Mr. McKinnon and Mr. McLeod were classmates in P. W. College, under the late Dr. Anderson. He is a graduate in Arts in Theology of Queen's University, Kingston, Ont., and his ministry has been in the West. He is now enjoying a well-earned rest and recently visited friends in Valleyfield, Heatherdale and Belfast. His many friends were delighted to see them. They are now on their way home, expecting to spend some days in Montreal and Toronto.

MASON-MATHESON WEDDING—Clifton United Church, the little church at the Cross Roads on the south side of the Hillsboro River, Bunbury, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at six o'clock yesterday morning when Miss Bertha Lo's Mason, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mason of Bunbury, became the wife of Mr. Stanley Matheson, mechanical superintendent of the water department of the Charlottetown Water Works. Mr. Matheson is a son of Mrs. Matheson and the late Malcolm Matheson of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. E. H. Ramsay of the United Church Charlottetown. The couple were unattended. The bride was groomed in navy blue with hat to match and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Matheson left on a motor trip through the Maritime Provinces the bride wearing a travelling costume of navy blue with blue coat and black fur. The church was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers for the happy event. The wedding presents included a cabinet of Community silver from the neighbors in happiest congratulations.

PERSONALS
Prof. and Mrs. H. S. Hamer and child are spending a vacation at Cavendish, P. E. I. Miss Lilian Hart presided at the organ in the United Church last Sunday, substituting for Prof. Hamer.—Sackville Tribune

The many friends of Mr. Robert Savidant will be pleased to hear that he is back in the city, having arrived Saturday evening from St. Thomas, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert MacDonald and daughter Doris, motored back to Cambridge, Mass., after visiting relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Stewart, Berlin, N. H., arrived in Charlottetown on Tuesday evening, and left for Tracadie on a visit to relatives and friends. This is Mrs. Stewart's first visit to Prince Edward Island and she expresses herself delighted with the ideal weather, beautiful pastoral scenery and the genial hospitality of the people and says it is well named "The Garden of the Gulf."

Mr. Walter Hyndman left by motor yesterday morning for Amherst where his marriage to Miss Jean Lamy of that town takes place today. He is accompanied by Mr. Walter MacNutt, who is on his way to Toronto where he has won a scholarship at the Toronto Conservatory of Music. On the eve of his departure he was given a handsome souvenir by his fellow members of the Gyrus Club. All wish him well and trust he will have success in his studies. He is a good student and a look forward to hearing from him again in musical line.

Drowning Fatality Souris Last Week

It is with a feeling of deep regret that the Guardian learns of the drowning accident which befell the little three year old son of Mr. H. Mallard, Souris River on Friday last. The little fellow was playing around the pump with his little sister when he began looking into a tub of water which was there and he fell in. His sister hastily summoned her mother who when she arrived found the life of the child to be extinct. Mr. and Mrs. Mallard's many friends extend their sincerest sympathies to them in this sad bereavement.

CREIGHAN - MCQUILLAN WEDDING
The marriage of Miss Charlotte Creighan, daughter of Mrs. Harriet Creighan of this city, to Mr. Gordon B. McQuillan, son of Mr. Bernard McQuillan, of Long Island, N. Y., took place at 8.15 a. m. yesterday in the Basilica, Rev. Patrick McMahon, D. D., cousin of the bride, officiating. The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother Thomas, to the strains of the Wedding March, played by Miss Bessie Blanchard.

The bride party was attended by Miss Emelia Gaudet and Basil McQuillan. The bride wore a beautiful dress of white georgette and lace with hat to match and carried a bridal bouquet of pink American roses. The bridesmaid wore mauve with shoes and hat to match and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The bride's mother wore fawn georgette with a brown velour hat. After the wedding, a reception was held at the home of her mother to which a large number of guests were invited.

At 1.45 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. McQuillan left on a motor trip through the Maritime Provinces before returning to Long Island where they will make their future home, the bride wearing a travelling suit of silver tone with black velvet hat and brown fox fur. Among the numerous wedding gifts of silver, cut glass and linens which showed the popularity of the bride, was a silver service from the Junior branch of C. W. L.

STRENGTH for a few cents

So easy to get Health and Strength for a few cents if you know what food to buy. It is what you digest that builds muscle and bone and furnishes energy to the body. Shredded Wheat is the whole wheat in a digestible form—proteins, carbohydrates and mineral salts for building good bones and teeth—and it costs but a few cents. Delicious with milk and stewed fruits.

It is not always wise to be satisfied

MANY of us miss the good things in life simply because we are satisfied with what we have. There are lots of folks who have never learned the merits of King Cole Tea because they are satisfied with the tea they are drinking.

It is not the part of wisdom to be satisfied with something good if you can get something better.
