Reporters and Correspondents Everywhere

See Edwin Gray in the "Honeymoon" at the Opera House on the 23rd.

"Changes" of ads. must be in not later than 1 p. m. each day to insure insertion following morning, and not later than noon Saturday for the "Weekly."

The marriage of Miss Lillian Markham, daughter of Lieut. Colonel Markham, to J. J. Foot, maritime manager of the McClary Manufacturing Company, will take place at St. John's church, next Wednesday morning.

On this morning's maritime express there was a distinguished passenger in the person of Signor Marconi who was en route to Sydney, C. B. Only a few of those on the platform recognized in this boyish looking individual the world-famed Marconi, but soon the word passed around and he was the object of much curiosity. He was accompanied by his private secretary, and a M. rquis.—Moncton Transcript.

Miss Jeanette McDonald of Omaha Neb. who is organizing classes in Physical Culture in this city gave her first lessons on Thursday morning in Smallwood's Hall corner St. George and Fitzroy streets. Tuition will be given privately and in classes. Her system includes special health exercises which cannot fail to benefit. Miss McDonald may be seen at Smallwood's hall Mondays and Thursdays.

The students of Prince of Wales College have elected the following staff of officers to publish the college paper "Observer" during the present session.

Editor in Chief—Lemuel Ackland. Assistant Editor—R. B. Stewart. Business Manager—Scott Walker. Assistant Manager—George McDonald. Sporting Editor—Freeman Clarke. Local Editor—Miss Hazel Bremner. Two class reporters from each year.

PROFESSOR Fletcher who had arranged to visit the Exhibition this year and conduct a Weed Show in the interests of clean tillage regrets very much indeed that owing to the absence of Dr. Saunders and Prof. Robertson from Ottawa, he is obliged at the last moment to forego the engagement here. "Depend upon it, I shall be there sure next year," he writes Rev. Father Burke. Let farmers with doubtful weeds bring them along however,—somebody will furnish the information.

W. A. Warren, druggist who has been carrying on business in Sackville during the last few years has sold out to W. E. Rodd of Moncton. Mr. Warren expects to leave for Bridgetown, N. S. about the first of October where he will enter the drug business. A store is now being fitted up for him in that town. Mr. Warren has built up a good paying business in Sackville, but unfortunately our peculiar climate does not agree with him, and he has been obliged to make the change. Both Mr. and Mrs. Warren occupy a prominent social position in the town and their removal will be generally regretted. (Mr. Warren is a son of Rev. Mr. Warren formerly of Montague and was for several years with Johnson & Johnson.)

It is now certain that if the weather is favorable, the Fredericton Exhibition, next week, Sept. 21st to 28th, will rank among the most successful shows ever held in this Province. Entries in nearly every department have far exceeded the estimate and although large additions were made to the grounds and buildings this season still further extensions have become necessary and will be completed before the opening day. Advice received from all parts of the Maritime Provinces indicate that the attendance will exceed anything on record in Fredericton, but no difficulty is anticipated in accommodating the crowd as an energetic committee has the matter well in hand and report that thousands can be cared for. With the Exhibition, Horse Races, Bicycle Races, Automobile Races, Diving Races, Alabama Troubadours etc., a great week may be expected.

THE GREATEST YET.

The Coldstream Guards easily the finest ever heard in Canada.

In Hamilton there is one of the oldest and certainly one of the finest if not the best band in Canada, the 12th Battalion. The Hamilton people enjoy weekly band concerts and know good band music. What their critics say of the Coldstream Guards is therefore interesting. The Herald says, "It was not alone that the Coldstream Guards easily transcended any band yet heard in this city, but the music it produced was in advance of the best orchestras on this side of the Atlantic. The Spectator said, 'In times past the American bandmaster has been the best the people knew of. Today the American bandmaster and his band are privileged to take a back seat.'"

The world's greatest band with Miss Kathleen Howard as prima donna contracts will be here on 7 and 8 of October.

The Electra did not arrive last night until 7.45 o'clock.

The Lunenburg came into port yesterday evening at 4.30 p. m. There were only two passengers.

The trotting races to be held here on October 7th promise to be the most interesting of the season.

Notwithstanding the fact that there is a large quantity of harvest yet out, foresting operations have already begun in this vicinity.

The "Dicks," fishing fleet and the Wave, Capt. James Delaney came into port yesterday afternoon. Herring are reported not quite so plentiful this trip.

The extensive repairs being made to the wharf occupied by McDonald and Westaway are progressing favorably. William Stevens has the work in hand.

Tom Macdonald was a passenger by the Lunenburg yesterday afternoon. He told a Guardian representative that he just landed here to show the people that he was still alive.

Parmenas McLeod, for five years principal of Georgetown high school has tendered his resignation, and purposes leaving shortly for the capital city of Ontario where he will take an arts course in the University of Ontario. Mr. McLeod, who was a brilliant student in the old Prince of Wales College and undoubtedly the best teacher that we have ever had will no doubt distinguish himself in this, one of Canada's greatest universities.

Many are of the opinion that at the next meeting of the board of trade steps should be taken to have the railway department place two regular trains a day, on the Georgetown branch throughout the year. In the winter season with two boats on this route it will not be a luxury but an absolute necessity. To some it may seem rather early in the season to commence such an agitation, but when the delays of car season are considered it is none to soon for the board of trade here to make its prestige felt.
