In Eye Glass Buying

more than in anything else it pays to buy the best. If your eyes are injured by ill-use or neglect you cannot get a substitute, and wearing glasses that do not properly correct their defects is certainly abuse.

Let us help you select the right glasses. With our facilities for making accurate examinations there's no reason why you should wear wrong glasses.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

To Mrs. W. H. Sencabaugh, of Murray Harbor North:

Dear friend,—The sadness which has come to so many homes during the last few years, has now entered yours, and in so doing you have been called upon to part with one who was very dear to you. In the person of your son, W. H. Graham, who was killed in action on the battlefield last month. We, as members of the I.O. G.T., of which the deceased was a highly honored member, wish to express our deep sympathy in this your day of sorrow and trial. We all fully understand what a noble character Brother Graham possessed, always willing to help in anything pertaining to food, and when the call came across the waters for men Brother Graham was not slow to heed that call, and went like "a man" to fight the enemy. He has laid his life suddenly down a life just budding into a future of promise. The summons came to him in splendid manhood and he was ready to answer the call. What greater answer could he give than to lay down his life for his country? May God in His goodness and love, look down on you and help you bear this sorrow, which we all so keenly feel; we also earnestly pray that the white dove of peace shall soon fly over that lonely grave in France, which holds the dearly loved remains of our brother.

We shall meet, but we shall miss him. There will be one vacant chair. We will linger to caress him. When we breathe our evening prayer.

FRETFUL BABIES

Mrs. John M. Weaver, Blissfield, N. B., writes:—"I can speak very highly of Baby's Own Tablets. I have used them for my children and find they are the best medicine a mother can give her little ones. I would strongly recommend them to all mothers who have fretful babies. The Tablets regulate the bowels and stomach; break up colds and simple fevers; expel worms; cure vomiting and indigestion and make teething easy. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

CARD OF THANKS TO THE PEOPLE OF MONTAGUE

We take this opportunity of expressing our sincere thanks to the good people of Montague, for the kindness and sympathy extended to us during the last illness and death of our friend, Michael H. Coughlan, which occurred at Montague on Good Friday morning. Although perfect strangers, we were accorded a sympathetic and kind words and proffered assistance, from every person we met. We feel particularly grateful to Mrs. (D.) D. R. Fraser, in whose hospitable home our friend resided and died. Her kindness and deep sympathy, her conscientious endeavor to supply all possible material and spiritual comforts to our friend, and her untiring solicitude for us are an example of Christian Charity we most highly appreciate. We also gratefully acknowledge the beautiful floral offerings—silent tributes of respect towards our departed friend,—from Montague Dramatic Club, cross; staff of Agricultural Dept., cross; and M. F. and Mrs. McDonald, spray of lilies. (Signed) Thomas Coughlan, Clarence H. Reid, J. Simpson Bell.

GERMAN AMMUNITION DETERIORATING AND FAILS TO EXPLODE

CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, April 24.—This is again a period of preparation. Tens of thousands of men are building roads and hauling up munitions and stores to the new front.

The enemy continues to shell as much of the area occupied by us as he can reach, but with a remarkable lack of results. Experts in big guns ammunition say that his larger shells have greatly deteriorated of late, and that his bombs and grenades, while still capable of making much noise, no longer have the destructive effect they had at an earlier period in the war. This doctrine in the value of the high explosives of the enemy adds to the confidence of our infantry. When they see the many unexploded shells on the ground, where our shells, by the hundred thousand, were recently poured the soldiers are quick to draw their own conclusions.

Many stories of gallantry in the recent actions are still being told. The latest concerns two Ontario artillery officers and two corporals, who while laying out wire for an observation post in a tunnel which the Germans were believed to have evacuated came upon a considerable company of the enemy, who had with them a machine gun. In the narrow confine of the dimly lighted tunnel the wire-layers armed only with revolvers, tackled the enemy, and after disposing of a number brought back with them 12 prisoners.

Late on Friday last fires were observed within the enemy lines. The corps of artillery continues its work of making the villages untenable, and ordering the task of the infantry easy.

CHINA WILL DECLARE WAR SOON.

PEKING, April 24.—The war sentiment in China is increasing daily. The Chinese are incensed over the action of Germany in detaining the Chinese minister in Berlin, pending the safe arrival of Von Hantzke, German minister to Peking.

There is also great indignation over the detention of Chinese students in Berlin and Munich. The military governors will hold their first war conference in Peking on April 25th. The majority of the governors and parliament favor war, but they differ over the attitude China should adopt toward the Entente. The indications are that China will declare war independently.

IN HOSPITAL

Chaplain: "Can I pray for you, my boy?" Tommy: "Why, sure; go to it." Chaplain: "Pardon, did you say 'Don't do it'?" Tommy: "No; I said 'go to it'." Chaplain: "Er—ah! Are you a Communist?" Tommy: "No, I'm a Canadian." Chaplain: "You misunderstand me. What is your denomination?" Tommy: "Dom—dom—dom— Oh, yes, Dominion of Canada." Chaplain: "No, no; you don't get me. What is your religion?" Tommy: "Oh, yes; why, Wheelbarrow." Chaplain: "Wheelbarrow, wheelbarrow! Why what do you mean?" Tommy: "Well, I've got to be pushed to go anywhere." (Goodnight, Chaplain!) Commandant (to prisoner) — Now, didn't I tell you that I didn't want to see you here any more? Prisoner — Yes, sir; that's what I told Sergt. McDeath, but he wouldn't believe me.
