Another accident occurred in Summerside yesterday, this time on the railroad. While Gordon Schurman, Sherbrooke, was driving across the track at the end of Holman's wharf the shunting engine crashed into his carriage and completely disconnected it from the horse. It was carried forward for about twenty yards and very badly demolished. Mr. Schurman and his horse fortunately escaped injury.

While a number of horses were being put on board the Northumberland yesterday morning one of them was seized with a fit of homesickness and decided to remain on the Island a few days longer. To accomplish his object he jumped over the gangway into the water and headed with speed for Holman's Island. At the solicitation of, the rescuing party he changed his course and landed in safety near Read's wharf. He is due to leave again this morning.

At Mill River on Friday morning, Aug. 11th, there passed to his eternal reward in the person of Michael McLellan, one of the most highly respected residents of that place at the age of 72 years. His illness which extended over a period of two months was borne with Christian resignation and terminated as a peaceful slumber. He was attended in his last hours by the Pastor, Rev. F. X. Gallant, who administered the last rites of the Holy Catholic Church of which he was a true member. He leaves to mourn a widow, two sons, Angus and Joseph at home, four daughters Mrs. H. A. Carter, of Lynn, Lizzie also of Lynn, Mrs. G. P. Connick, of Kensington, and Louise at home. His funeral to St Anthony's church, Bloomfield, on Saturday afternoon was one of the largest seen there for many years, and gave proof of the high esteem in which he was held by the community.

The course of true love never runs smooth—not even in Summerside. A few evenings ago a number of the youth and beauty of the town were enjoying a sail on the placid waters of the beautiful Bay, lighted up with the bright silver rays of the moon shining serenely upon it, when the two young men in charge, who by the way, are experienced yachtsmen and know every inch of the harbor, carried away by the ecstacy of the sweet strains of music and by the general sublimity of the occasion allowed the boat to ground on the edge of the channel.

Then there was hurrying to and fro,
And lips grew pale which but a moment ago
Blushed at the thought of their own loveliness.

What was to be done? They were out of reach of shore; the tide was rapidly falling and no help of any kind was at hand, with the chances of the wind springing up and pounding the yacht in pieces.

Ah! who beneath that cloudless sky,
That smiling bends serene,
Could dream that danger, awful, vast,
Impended o'er the scene.

The men perchance could swim ashore but to leave that precious freight behind could not be endured; inspired by the beseeching look of those whom their hearts held dearest with heroic purpose the two young men resolved to jump overboard and endeavor to push the boat off, while our remaining hero not being of so great a stature as the former two, deeming that the water in that particular locality was inconveniently deep remained on board and satisfied his conscience by instilling hope and courage into the hearts of the lady passengers. With the greatest difficulty the boat was pushed off and they proceeded on their way rejoicing. It is not necessary to add that the first mentioned gentlemen received a thorough chilling in the watery element, but we doubt very much if it has materially dampened the ardor of their affection.

It has a large feed door in front which obviates the necessity of removing pots or utensils to replenish the fire. It burns either coal or wood and will take a stick two feet long thus allowing the use of coarse, rough wood. The water tank is of copper and can be removed or attached by anyone in a few minutes. It holds nine imperial gallons and heats the water rapidly. A hot water front instead of tank if desired. Can be seen at Fennell & Chandler's, Charlottetown, or Brace McKay & Co's., Summerside.
