STUDIED WITH DOCTOR C. DE W. WHITE—The death of Dr. Robert Norwood, preacher, lecturer and poet, in New York last week, was learned with deep regret by friends in Summerside and particularly by Ven. Archdeacon C. de W. White and Mrs. White who were intimately acquainted with him during the early years of life. The late Dr. Robert Norwood was born at New Ross, N. S., in 1874 and after some time away returned to New Ross in 1894, when Dr. White was rector of the parish. Mr. Norwood, as he was then, studied under Rev. Mr. White during the year of 1895 and afterwards went to King's College, Halifax, N. S. Dr. White and Mrs. White have very pleasant recollections of him during his stay with them and have followed his career with interest. They had the pleasure of hearing him preach at St. Bartholomew's Church, during a recent visit to New York City.—S

WEDDING BELLS—One of the prettiest of the late summer weddings was solemnized at St. Malachi's Church, Kinkora by Rev. M. J. Smith, P. P., when Mr. Walter Smith, son of Mr. Patrick J. Smith, led to the altar and claimed for his bride, Mary Angelina Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Carr of Newton. The bride was handsomely gowned in a dress of brown silk georgette over lace and silk. Brown hat, shoes, stockings and gloves completed her well chosen attire. She was attended by her sister, Miss Bernice who was daintily dressed in sunni silk crepe trimmed with brown velvet with matching accessories in brown. Mr. Louis Mullanigan ably supported the groom. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. M. J. Smith and the immediate relatives of the newly wedded couple being present. The bridal party then motored to Charlottetown where a dinner befitting the occasion was served at the Revere Hotel. In the evening they returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Carr, Kinkora, where a large number of their friends had assembled to tender their good wishes to the bride and groom. The large number of costly gifts received shows the high esteem in which the couple are held. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome necklace of crystals, to the bridesmaid a beautiful white gold necklace and to the groomsmen a set of gold cuff links. The bride who has been a resident of the United States for the past number of years is popularly known throughout the Island and her many friends will be glad to have her once more in their midst. The groom is a prosperous farmer and is also prominent in the fox industry. Congratulations.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

THE BAPTIST CHURCH message on "Christ My Only Necessity." The music of the day included sweetly rendered soprano solo by Mrs. Vincent at the morning service, when also Stainer's "What are These" was impressively sung by the choir. In the evening Turner's "At Even E'er the Sun was Set" and Filmore's "Beautiful Garden of Prayer" gave worshipful illumination to the service. "Rally Day" in the Sunday School, with its specially interesting programme centered about the value of the Bible to mankind. The story of the sources of the Bible was told by Mrs. T. G. Ives, and a suitable recitation, "Holy Bible, Book Divine" was nicely given by little Miss Bernice Ward. There was a notably large attendance in all classes. Reference was made to the quarterly meeting at O'Leary, with services in Springfield and Knutsford Churches on October 3rd and 4th. The usual activities were initiated for the week, with special reference to the Young People's meeting on Thursday evening at 7.30. The Rev. A. C. Vincent, speaking at the Baptist Church yesterday morning gave a third of a series of addresses on the "Fruits of the Abiding Life," basing his thought on the parable of the Vine and the Branches, with particular reference on this occasion to St. John 15:7,8; "If ye abide in me and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will and it shall be done unto you." This is the greatest charter of prayer in all God's word, a revelation, an enlightenment. It involves a complete self committal, a perfect abiding in Christ and if we meet the conditions we may rely on the promise. Through all the ages the power of the Church of God has been in the prayer life of its people. Have we lost our power? The way back is through abiding in Him who is the source and the giver of power. The evening sermon was heard by a large congregation, Dr. Vincent delivering a most inspiring
