RUNAWAY TEAM—While Mr. Hugh Campbell, of Cranman's, was coming from the mud beds at Fitzsimmons' Point on Saturday last, with empty sleigh, his team was badly scared by boys coasting on the hillside. Mr. Campbell, who is an athlete, was walking behind his sleigh, but could not get the reins quick enough to prevent the team from rushing over two barbed wire fences into Mr. John D. Smith's barnyard where they were corralled. Strangely enough the horses escaped with no injuries excepting a few scratches. By dint of much wiring and splicing, Mr. Campbell was enabled to proceed home with his team.—K.

FUNERAL HELD—The funeral of Mr. Joseph Ford took place on Monday, March 20th, from his late residence at Ebenezer. Mr. Ford had been in failing health for some time, but no particular anxiety was felt until about a week ago when pneumonia developed. CONCERT ENJOYED—The old time concert given in the Auditorium Montague, last Friday night under the auspices of the Red Cross, was a grand success, the program being somewhat out of the ordinary routine of concerts, was very much appreciated by the large audience, and a sum of nearly one hundred dollars was realized for Red Cross work. The program was laid as the celebration of Jediah Hopkins, and his wife Sophia, at their golden wedding anniversary, with all their children and grand children, numbering some fifteen in all, and in turn nearly each one of the number gave a song reading, or recited the occasion, dressed in the costumes of the 17th century. The principal parts were taken by Mrs. J. H. McLean, and John McPherson. The dialogue, for Country Cousins, was also very interesting, amusing, and had at the end an excellent moral.—B.

KINDLY REMEMBERED—A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McLean, Clyde River, on Monday, March 20th, when the choir of the Clyde River Presbyterian Church called on Mrs. McLean, a former choir member. The evening was pleasantly whiffed away with genial conversation, games and music, the latter being furnished by Mr. Cecil Scott. During the course of the evening Mrs. Ira Auld, on behalf of the other members presented Mrs. McLean with a beautiful silver butter dish. Mrs. McLean although taken by surprise made a suitable reply and in a few well chosen words thanked them very much for their kindness. Supper was then served by Mrs. McLean, assisted by the ladies present to which all did ample justice and then as the wee sma' hours were approaching the company broke up, thanking Mr. and Mrs. McLean for their kindness and wishing them many years of usefulness in connection with Clyde River Church.

HORSE NOTES—Mr. John McPherson, Montague, has recently purchased from Mr. John Matheson, Brooklyn, a handsome black trotting gelding Okakillah. He is not yet three years old, and weighs in the vicinity of a thousand pounds, and for style, action, and general conformation, it would be hard to find his equal, travel where you may. But if breeding counts this lad comes by his manners and good looks honest enough, his sire being the big brown showy stallion Minor Oakes, (standard bred) he being by that great show horse and trotter, Oakley Baron, his dam being Parkotta, by Parkside, she produced the fast gelding, Prince Louis, 2:14, by Brantlin. His second dam, being by that great brood mare, sire Providor, and his third dam by the well remembered trotter and progenitor of trotters Allright. The dam of Okakillah is Liza S. by that old warrior Dr.

zilian second dam Fairy, by Parkside, third dam by Hernando. There is no doubt that in the hands of his owner he will make a name for himself, and his dam, that any man would be proud to own. Mr. McPherson recently sold the handsome gelding Cresola, by George Cresus, dam Viola, by Brazilian, to Mr. White, Charlottetown.—B.

As Colonel of the 82nd Battalion he was a very popular commander and did much to promote the welfare of the militia in this Province. He took a deep interest in agriculture and his farm in West Royalty was a well conducted one, showing the thoroughness and perseverance of its owner. APPRECIATION—Among the many letters of thanks to the "Women of Prince Edward Island" received by Mrs. Ings, Secretary of "Socks for the Front" the following extracts may be of interest. From Capt. (Dr.) Andrew Macphail. "Your letter and the six parcels of socks, arrived yesterday—most opportunely. We have had a heavy fall of snow the first of the year, and every pair is now in use. On the principle that charity begins at home I distributed them to the men under my own immediate command—71—and I gave the remainder to one of the McKenzies to distribute at his discretion. The quality was excellent, and for one day at least the men had dry feet. An extra pair of socks is a luxury, and we are all very grateful. They remind us also that we are not forgotten in this hard business in this sad country. To the "Women of the Island" who have been so kind, we send our thanks.—From Lt. Leavitt:—"I have had the parcels delivered, handing them, with your letter, over to the care of Sergt. Weeks, an island boy and one of the best. You can rest assured that your wishes regarding the distribution will be carried out. Socks are always an acceptable gift, especially now, when we are having a lot of wet weather, so you may be sure they will be greatly enjoyed and appreciated. On behalf of the lads of No. 2 Section I wish to thank the good ladies of Prince Edward Island for their great kindness."—From Capt. D. A. McKinnon, to whom two cases (362 pairs) were sent to take overseas for the time of need. "On behalf of the officers and men of my Corps, I wish to express our very sincere thanks for such an exceedingly useful gift. We shall all remember with feelings of gratitude the thoughtfulness of the women of Prince Edward Island."
