WORK ON HIGHWAYS—Work under the Highways Act has been started in this Province between Montague and Cardigan on the St. Peters Road near Charlottetown on the Summerside-Borden project near Summerside, and on the Irish town-French River project. Messrs R. W. Stewart and E. P. Munn have the contract for the first named project and Mr. J. C. Crabbe for the second, Robert Walker for the third and Mr. Ducan McKenzie for the 4th. Valerius MacDonald, J. C. Milford, W. A. McLaren and Mr. Anderson are the respective engineers. All these projects call for the same class of work, namely, ditching, grading, road-machining and concrete culverts. Messrs Phillips, Maynard and Noy expect to start this week. The other contractors expect to be at work next week. A carload of road-making machinery arrived yesterday. From reports received much more ordinary road work has been done up-to-date than in previous years. The people are taking increased interest in road-making and there is no difficulty in getting the requisite labor of men and horses. Jedging from present indications there will be great activity in road making all through the province this year.

SECURES POSITION HERE.—Mr. J. H. Martin left today for Charlottetown P. E. I. where he has secured a good position. Mr. Martin was for some years a valued employee of the Eastern mfg. Co. where he proved himself a highly competent mechanic. It is men of Mr. Martin's stamp that we regret to see leaving our town and we hope that industrial conditions may soon brighten up sufficiently to have men of his ability back to good old New Glasgow.

FAREWELL TO MR. NEIL MacLEAN.—A pleasant social evening was spent Tuesday last at the home of Mr. MacLean, Bayfield Street, city, when her son, Neil was waited on by a gathering of friends and presented with a magnificent manicure set as a token of regard and well wishes for his future. —AN UNHALLOWED SOUND.—As the long shriek of a factory whistle pierced the graveyard quietness of Summerside in the early hours of Sunday morning, the one and only night policeman of the western capital, stood uncertainly on the stoop of the town hall and wished that he had two bodies so he might investigate the unnatural noise and also stay at the police station for the reception of any visitors. Other citizens, however, were soon roused by the strident wail of the siren and tumbling down town in all forms of undress, found that the whistle cord of the Hall Manufacturing Company factory had been tied up rather tightly the night before and that a heavy rain had done the rest, opening the valve and using up all the reserve steam of the boilers in a long and exuberant howl.

DEATH OF MR. JOSEPH LANE.—In the death of Mr. Joseph Lane of this city who passed away in the P. E. Island Hospital on Sunday morning after a prolonged illness a well known citizen has been called away. Mr. Lane was employed for over fifty years in Duchemin's woodworking establishment, having first served his apprenticeship with the grandfather of the present Duchemin brothers and later becoming foreman in which capacity he served faithfully for many years. He retied from active work about a year ago, owing to failing health. Mr. Lane was well-known in boating circles in earlier life when that pastime was the principal sport in Charlottetown and he was a most enthusiastic lover of sailing crafts. He was a prime favorite with the boys of his day and will be long remembered for his happy temperament and all-round cheerful disposition. He leaves to mourn a widow, formerly Miss Mary J. Evans of this city, who will have the sympathy of many friends in her sad loss. The funeral takes place at 9 o'clock from his late home Prince Street, to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to R. C. Cemetery. The factory of Messrs A. Duchemin & Co., will be closed during the time of the funeral out of respect to the memory of deceased, who was not only an employee but a life-long friend of the proprietors.
