League Of Cross Band Concert In QueenSquareHall

A most enjoyable concert was held last evening in Queen Square School Hall. The program was held under the auspices of the League of the Cross Band.

The concert was enjoyed by a large audience and each and every number was responded to enthusiastically.

The splendid efforts of such well known artists as Miss Kathleen Hornby, Mrs. F. M. Nash, Mr. J. Austin Trainor and Miss Mary Trainor, Miss Marjorie Mitchell, Mr. Wm. Cheverie, Mr. Alf McKearney, Mr. Wallace Scantlebury and Mr. Clarence Howatt were put forth and produced a program of endless variety and appeal.

The League of the Cross Band rendered five excellent band numbers, the selections being chosen with a variety to suit the taste of all.

Following is the detailed program:

Slovakia) had dropped from 104 to 81. In less than a year the Hungarian loan has decreased from 90 to 32. The Greek refugee loan, since June has slipped from 100 to 31 and the Bulgarian refugee loan has shrunk from 66 to 20. Evidently alarmed over the situation the British Government has declined to guarantee any further loans to Austria and Greece.

"In a few weeks," said Baron von Neurath, German Ambassador to Great Britain, commenting recently on the Lausanne Conference," the statesmen of Europe will assemble to make decisions of the highest importance to the world in general. It is now no longer possible for any country to hope that it alone can remain immune from difficulties which are bearing down on its neighbors. The pressure of circumstances demands immediate action. Half measures and feeble compromise are of no more avail."

Nevertheless, as the Lausanne conference approaches, difficulties seem to accumulate. The new French Government will scarcely have time to formulate its policy before the conference assembles on June 16. Wild storms in the Prussian Diet are accompanied by almost daily rumors that Germany is on the verge of dictatorship.

An autumn budget that will wield a resolute axe over public expenditures is expected in parliamentary lobbies at Westminster. "The time is coming," said Sir Thomas Inskip, Attorney-General, speaking at Putney recently, "when politicians will have to undertake tasks which may perhaps prove unpleasant, and impose measures of economy and retrenchment on the whole nation, just as a ship's captain has to do when confronted by foul weather."

Since the economic crisis last summer, Britain has gone far to lift herself out of the morass. It is frankly recognized, however, she still has far to go. Optimism which accompanied the first stages of recovery has been somewhat tempered. Government critics are daily urging negotiations with foreign countries for mutual tariff reductions. Against this is the Government's repeatedly declared intention of going to Ottawa unhampered by previous commitments. Tariff "feelers" from foreign countries have been set aside until the British commonwealth of nations has had its say.

Sudden Death Of Mr. E. D. Sterns

Citizens of Charlottetown were shocked to learn of the sudden death yesterday morning of Mr. Edward D. Sterns, who passed away at his home about nine o'clock.

Mr. Sterns had not been feeling well for the past week but he was not under the doctor's care nor confined to his bed and on Tuesday he had been out driving. Yesterday morning however he took a turn for the worse and the end came very suddenly.

The late Mr. Sterns was born in Morell 71 years ago. When a youth he entered the employ of the dry-goods firm of Perkins & Sterns of this city. Ltaer he carried on a dry-goods business in Omaha. Returning to Charlottetown about the year 1885 he established the well known Sterns Steam Laundry, which has been in continual operation for nearly half a century. He carried on the business alone until about seven or eight years ago when his son, Mr. J. E. Sterns, became a partner.

He was a man of deep religious convictions, and by his death, the Baptist Church of this city has lost one of its most faithful and ardent supporters.

He was clerk for over 40 years and also a deacon and teacher of the ladies' Bible class. Years ago he sang in the choir.

He was also a member of the Sons of England and the Masonic Order.

He leaves to mourn, a widow, nee Miss Mary Currie of Long Creek, and one son, John E. of this city; also one brother, Harvey Sterns of Charlottetown, and one sister, Mrs. J. E. Sterns of Dartmouth, N. S.

The family will receive the deep sympathy of their numerous friends in city and country, more especially since the hand of sorrow has fallen very heavily upon them within a short time. On Sunday a beloved son, Edison Sterns, a veteran of the Great War, passed away in the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

A brother of Mr. E. D. Sterns, Mr. Harvey Sterns, is at present very ill at his home in this city.

The remains are resting at McLean Funeral Home until Saturday.

In low tones, the Chief Justice read the Throne Speech, first in English, then in French. It expressed the belief the Imperial Economic Conference would develop a power "which will bring enduring harmony out of economic chaos" and herald a new dawn for a stricken world. Its language from beginning to end was couched in optimistic phrases.

The Commons convened a few minutes before the time set for prorogation to listen to a statement by Hon. Charles E. Cahan, Secretary of State on war reparations. There was the usual air of subdued excitement. Three loud knocks on the door heralded the approach of the gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, the official intermediary between the two houses of Parliament. The State Secretary was in the middle of a sentence but the deputy of the King could not be kept waiting. Mr. Cahan closed off his statement, Black Rod was admitted—a carefully guarded prerogative—and the Commons "consented" to appear in the Senate Chamber.

Ceremonies in the Upper House were brief. After reading the Throne Speech, the Chief Justice and his escort of officers trooped from the Chamber. The guns boomed. The travelling detachment from the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards, in dark uniforms and burnished helmets and white plumes, escorted the Chief Justice toward the city. Members and Senators bid each other adieu and dashed for taxicabs and trains. The session was over.

Speech From the Throne

OTTAWA, May 26—The text of the Speech from the Throne which concluded the session of the Dominion Parliament at noon today, is as follows:

Honourable members of the Senate:

Members of the House of Commons:

I desire to thank you for the careful attention you have given to the various measures submitted for your consideration during the present session of Parliament. The zealous discharge of your duties manifests alike, a deep concern for the welfare of Canada and an unshaken confidence in its future.

It is gratifying to observe that the programme of economy for the current fiscal year will ensure relative equalization of revenues and expenditures, and that additional monies necessary to provide for the public service will be obtained without adverse effect upon the cost of living or impairment of the national credit.

My government's policy of the unemployment and farm relief, consistently and vigorously pursued, has already achieved an amelioration of conditions and forecasts steady and continued improvement in both agrarian and industrial communities.

The means by which a larger area of distribution has been secured for the coal production of the Maritime Provinces will do much to relieve conditions heretofore prevailing in that part of the Dominion.

The measure for national ownership and control of radio broadcasting provides the necessary assurance against foreign interference with broadcasting from Canadian sources, and ensures to our people, without regard to class or place, equality of service from the new broadcasting system to be inaugurated as soon as practicable.

The commercial agreement negotiated with the Dominion of New Zealand and ratified by parliament is a further step towards closer Empire economic association based upon the principle of reciprocal benefits.

The enquiry by a committee of the House of Commons into the operation of civil service act prepares the way for a reorganization of the civil service commission and the better administration of matters pertaining to the civil service.

Among other important measures enacted were bills respecting the patent act, unfair competition in trade and commerce, the export of gold, insurance, the fisheries act, the judges act, the excise act, the companies' act, the soldiers settlement act and the railway act.

Approval has been given the British Commonwealth shipping agreement, the international convention for the amelioration of condition of the wounded and sick in armies in the field, the international convention relative to the treatment of prisoners of war, the international convention for limiting the manufacture and regulating the distribution of narcotic drugs.

Members of the House of Commons:

I thank you for the provision you made for the public service.

Honourable members of the Senate:

Members of the House of Commons:

I do sincerely commend the fortitude and patience with which the Canadian people have endured the trials and hardships of these troubled times. Those attributes have equipped them to surmount whatever difficulties may yet be encountered before prosperity returns. Recurring disturbances in world conditions have hindered our progress, the prosperity we rightly expected before this time has been by them delayed, for no nation can alone resist the influence of the universal disruption of financial and industrial conditions.

Near at hand are the means by which this country, organized and prepared, may hasten its economic recovery. Within two months time an ecenomic conference of the countries which compose the British Empire will meet at Ottawa. From that conference may arise a power which will bring enduring harmony out of economic chaos, and provide the wise and courageous leadership which in other times of universal stress, the world looked for and obtained from the British peoples. Canada believes that the closer economic association of the British Empire will herald the dawn of a new and greater era of prosperity both for ourselves and for all the nations of the earth.

In relieving you from attendance upon your parliamentary duties, I pray that divine providence may guide and bless you.

The contestants who were not successful in winning one of the major prizes were each presented with a book prize.

The judges were Dr. J. C. Houston, Mr. G. F. Hutcheson and Mr. J. P. Gordon.

After the contest the participants and their friends were invited to the ladies' parlour where they were treated to ice cream and cake.

NEW YORK, May 25—A writ of Habeas Corpus in behalf of the prisoner held in the Federal House of detention as Capt. Fritz Joubert Duquesne, wanted in England for murder on the high seas, was served on United States Marshal Raymond J. Mulligan today.

The writ calls for the production of the prisoner before Federal Judge Francis G. Caffy, who signed it, on June 6.

The man, who insists he is Frank De Trofford Craven, critic, was arrested Monday night after police had conducted a 13 year search for Duquesne, former Boer rebel. The British warrant charged him with causing the death of three British sailors in 1916 in the sinking of the steamer Tennyson off Bahia, Brazil.

UNEMPLOYED

be paid. Labourers must be paid at least 35c an hour.

With regard to the new College however, it is a provincial institution and the labour cannot be confined to City men. The Government had asked for a list of the unemployed men whom they would recommend to the contractors. The President then read the following constitution of the Association which had been drawn up.

The organization is to be known as the Charlottetown Workmen's Unemployed Association.

First the Association is to be non-partisan and non-sectarian.

Second the Association to be advised by the following persons: His Worship the Lieutenant Governor, His Worship the Mayor, His Honour the Premier, the rector of St. Dunstan's Basilica, the pastor of the United Church, the President of the L. P. U.

Third, the man employed in the employment office and paid by the City to hold office for one month only.

Fourth, the Association to suggest to the Government and City Council that any grants made for the relief of the unemployed by the Dominion Government should be only applied for wages to people unemployed at least in Charlottetown.

Sixth, the Association to use all its influence to secure some work for its members during the winter months.

Seventh, the Association to insist that all wages paid to its members by any employer be no less than 30c per hour unless permanently employed.

Eighth, the Association to immediately see that all unemployed men and women are registered with the Secretary.

The vice president, Mr. Earl Riggs, then read the following resolution presented to the Government:

Whereas the whole world is undergoing one of the worst depressions in trade, finances and etc., that it has created an army of unemployed in most every town, city and village in the whole world.

Whereas Canada has had for the last three years to appropriate large sums of public moneys to cope with the unemployment problems existing in the different Provinces.

Whereas that heretofore such sums expended by the Dominion on a fifty-fifty basis with the Provinces in good faith and with the approval of the different political bodies have not had the desired effect in relieving the unemployed and has only been the means of adding larger the debts of both the Dominion and Provinces and municipalities,

And whereas the Province of Prince Edward Island for the last two years received its share which was spent in accordance with the Dominion regulation, has proven to be a hindrance to unemployment relief instead of being a benefit. We the members of Charlottetown Workman's Unemployed Association therefore resolve that hereafter that such moneys received from the Dominion Government for the purpose of relieving unemployment should only be used in paying a living wage to the unemployed and for direct relief to those who cannot secure work. That by careful estimation the City of Charlottetown will have no less than four hundred men and women next winter who will require assistance from some source or other unless some employment schemes are immediately started, that out of 400 men and women over 150 men alone are married with families, are now and will be without any means at all and at the mercy of a charitable people.

Be it further resolved by our Association that the Mayor and City Council of Charlottetown be requested to build dwelling houses to replace those that have been condemned by the Health Officer and use the labour from the city unemployed and pay them a living wage through the Dominion unemployment grant.

That any moneys given by the Dominion Government or through any other sources for the relief of members of our Association should be vested into His Worship the Mayor and be distributed in conformity with our laws and regulations.

Mr. Riggs objected to the giving of work to country people who had other means of support while there were unemployed men in the city.

Mr. Arsenault a member of the committee told of waiting upon the Mayor and the Government. He agreed that the work on the College must be shared with the country people.

The above resolution was then adopted by the meeting.

In answer to questions the President explained that the City could not place a tax on outside workmen without special legislation.

Mr. Riggs suggested the work on the College be divided up, a week to a man, and each man's poll tax must be paid, thus discouraging country applicants.

A motion that the matter of outside workmen being given employment in the city be again brought to the attention of the Government was passed.

Mr. Arthur Gormely, President of the L. P. U. when called upon suggested the election of a labor representative to look out for the interests of the labor class in the House.

Mr. Daniel Coughlan, Secretary of the L. P. U. condemned the lack of results from the Unemployment Relief Grant. He supported the suggestion for the election of a Labor representative.

After considerable discussion taken part in by the President, Mr. Riggs, Mr. Herb Vessey, and Mr. Raney Gallant, a motion that the Association objected to the reduction in hours of the City street sweepers was voted down by the meeting.

Col. D. A. MacKinnon who was in the audience was called upon to speak. He believed that this was no time to curtail works for the sake of economy. He commended the straightforward way in which the Association was organized. He urged individuals to do their bit toward making employment. He remarked that the Exhibition is being continued this year despite a large deficit in order to help relieve unemployment. Col. McKinnon stated he believed the City Council were earnest and sincere in their endeavours to help unemployment. They have a difficult task before them, namely to please the people who desired a balanced budget and meet the demands of those who require employment. The City streets, he said, if left unrepaired for a year or two would have deteriorated so badly as to cost a great deal of money to fix. "A stitch in time saves nine" is an old adage but a true one.

A further registration of unemployed then took place.

A vote of thanks was extended Mr. Gallagher for the use of the theatre.

is now supplied by the United States.

Products of which New Brunswick has a surplus for which a market is desired are potatoes, apples, hay and fur chiefly. New Brunswick is almost supplying all its needs in poultry but at present is unable to export poultry, eggs or dairy products. It is hoped that if markets can be, provided, the dairying and livestock industries will be stimulated so that not only domestic but Empire needs may be filled.

It is the object at the conference to speak for the Maritimes as one unit, as far as possible, Hon. Mr. Smith said. Each, however, has its distinctive problems, this province having a surplus of potatoes and fur bearing animals, and Nova Scotia apples and coal.

Hon. Mr. Smith will conclude his business at the department today and will go to Saint John tomorrow.

IN PARLIAMENT

OTTAWA, May 26—(By The Canadian Press)—Brief but significant were the comments on the civil service by Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Government leader in the Senate, end by Senator Raoul Dandurand, Opposition leader, when the Senate today was giving assent to the supply bill for civil servants' salaries.

Senator Dandurand raised the point whether the government could not carefully investigate the service to see whether there is overmanning or not.

Senator Meighen said he had felt for some time past "that the whole civil service situation is one worthy of a great deal of attention, very rigid and drastic attention, at the hands of the government."

Supervision Urged

OTTAWA, May 26 — Dominion supervision over the capital expenditures of provinces who have received Federal financial assistance, was urged in the Senate today by Senator W. E. Foster former Premier of New Brunswick. Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Government leader in the Upper House agreed with the suggestion and hoped the financial experiences of the provinces would have a chastening effect and leave them open to Dominion supervision.

The Federal Treasury went to the assistance of some provinces to avert serious financial repercussions, said Senator Meighen. Many provinces, replied Senator Fostor, had been extravagant and injudicious in expenditures and were themselves to blame for their plight. New Brunswick, he said had instituted careful scrutiny of expenditures and was in sound financial shape.

The discussion in the Senate took place before the passing of the supply bill from the House of Commons and before the prorogation proceedings. Senator Meighen said the Senate Chamber and the private rooms of Senators would be placed at the disposal of delegates to the Imperial Conference. He did not presume the sessions would be open to the public.

Senator Raoul Dandurand, Liberal leader, said a substantial saving might be effected through redistribution of civil servants in the different departments of the government.

BOYS FIVE MILES

This modified marathon twenty five starters. The race run over a five mile course, starting point at the York turn the intersection of Malpeque R

There were two outstanding f ures in this race. First, the t of 29 minutes and 20 seconds the distance was wonderful to the least, and secondly, the fact t twenty boys finished out of total of twenty five to start, spe in no uncertain terms of the st ina and running ability of younger generation of this city province as a whole.

The Rodd family were well r resented last evening, Wallie g bing second in the long run, w brother Parker grabbed the s position in the five mile event.

A great little middle distance r ner has been unearthed in the p son of John Shepherd, the winn whose time of 29 minutes a 20 seconds, is a mark that ma boys his age will have to shoot for years to come. From the cra of the gun he ran like a veter measuring his stride and all while conserving his strength the big test which lay ahead. did it to the Queen's taste, but ev at that he was forced for almo the entire distance in order to ou foot young Rodd, who appeared be well within himself at all stag of the race. Hume Keefe, anoth great little runner, finished thi 45 seconds behind Rodd.

HOW THEY FINISHED

The Legion Band generously gav of their services during the race in tervals with lively march music The firemen, city police, and mount ies also showed every cooperatio with the officials in putting the ev ent over in bang-up style.

The car owners showed more consideration for the runners thi year by keeping away from the runners. This no doubt helped in no small way in making the times in both races so remarkably fast.
