HORSE NOTE.

T. P. Cullen, Royalty, lost a valuable 3 year old mare a few days ago under very strange circumstances. While at work hauling turnips, she seemed stubborn or unable to back up and on taking her to stable she got lockjaw and died in a few days. After death a small wound was discovered between the front legs which caused blood poison.

IMPURE BLOOD THE CAUSE OF MOST DISEASES.

All Cases of Poor and Impure Blood can be helped by the use of Nulife (Red Blood Tablets).

There are dozens of diseases due directly to impure blood—some doctors will say the disease is that when the matter is sifted down it is caused directly from impure or impoverished blood.

You may think your stomach is not right or your liver is not as it should be, you are a nervous wreck, or your heart is weak, but sift the matter down to one point and what is the cause? It is most probably impoverished blood—weak, thin, colorless blood is bound to drag down your system and the longer you delay the more danger you are incurring against a successful cure.

Complications will set in and finally your case is considered hopeless. Nulife will then have to work at a disadvantage, but even then the results it will accomplish will astonish you.

If you are not feeling right, if you lack ambition and feel an inability to hold your own in work, mental or manual, your blood is bad and your system requires nourishment. Better a thousand times take this remedy at the beginning—before your system becomes weakened. There is not a particle of injurious properties used in its manufacture. It will not cure it, it will not cause injury, but is a hopeless case indeed that it will not help.

Nulife (Red Blood Tablets) can be had at all dealers or sent prepaid on receipt of price by Johnson & Johnson, wholesale distributors, city.

INSURE.

If I had my way I would write the word "insure" over the door of every cottage and upon the blotting book of every public man, because I am convinced that for sacrifices which are inconceivably small, families can be secured against catastrophes which otherwise would smash them forever. It is our duty to arrest the chaste waste, not merely human happiness, but of national health and strength which follows the breadwinner, the frail boat in which the fortunes of the family are embarked, founders, and the women and children are left to struggle helplessly on the dark waters of a friendless world.—Winston Churchill.

Consult the Great-West Life, the Home Protector; their policies furnish the largest amount of insurance for the least money, and pay the largest dividends.

MICHAEL THOMAS ROYALLY WELCOMED

to accord a hearty reception to returning heroes who brought fame to their native land thus showing a proper recognition of their prowess. As President of the Abegweits he extended to Thomas the congratulations of the club on his magnificent victory. He had shed a lustre on the club, the city and the island and at the same time won an enviable position among athletes of the maritime provinces. He then called on Honorary President, L. B. Miller to read the address. He fulfilled this important duty with great credit his clear tones and perfect enunciation carrying to all parts of the big rink. The address follows:

Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, November 4, 1910. To Mr. Michael Thomas, Amateur Champion long distance runner of the Maritime Provinces.

Sir—We welcome you home to-night with heart and hand. In the great ten mile road race of the Halifax Herald, the greatest athletic event in Eastern Canada in road racing, you have proved yourself the matchless runner of the Maritime Provinces.

On that memorable Thanksgiving Day, October 31st, 1910, out of a field of one hundred and three entries and fifty six starters, you sir, took the lead almost before the crack of the pistol had died away, and swept to the front like the Grecian runner from the historic plains of Marathon to the classic city of Athens.

All races of people have their champions. The Romans, invincible in war; the Greeks unrivalled in art; the British, as masters of the world, and the proud Micmacs as the fleetest footed sons of the Universe.

By your remarkable achievement in the Herald road race, you have shed a bright lustre upon the famous name of Abegweit—the Indian name of our beloved Island—as well as the title of the Club whose colors you so modestly, yet bravely, carried to victory.

Since you first entered the athletic world as a skater and long distance runner, you have won many notable victories, and when the magnificent Herald Cup is placed with other trophies of your prowess in the picturesque isle of Lennox, it will make the little spot—the home of the free and the brave—to shine as a blazing star in the galaxy of brave deeds done in the history of Prince Edward Island.

You have amply demonstrated that the stride of the Indian is not short-cut; that the pluck, strength and endurance characteristic of the noble red man in the past is still in the mind and sinuous body of the younger braves.

By wearing the white flower of a blanchet, you have developed a splendid manhood, and have set an inspiring example to the youth of our country. You have also taught them that it is possible for a man to pursue his customary avocation and yet enter the athletic arena and win the laurel leaf, that magic symbol of superiority.

The Abegweit Amateur Athletic Club, of which you are a distinguished member, heartily congratulates you on this your latest victory, and beg of you to accept this solid gold watch as a tangible expression of our admiration and appreciation of you as an athlete and a man. And we indulge the hope that you will carry the matchless colors of the Club, leading all competitors, across the winning line at the Olympic games of 1912—amid the plaudits of an assembled world.

Signed on behalf of the Abegweit Amateur Athletic Association: L. B. Miller, Honorary Pres. Ira J. Yo, M. D., President. W. A. Gaudet, Sec'y. Treas.

At the proper juncture Miss Annie Johnson, daughter of the president of the M. P. A. A., advanced to the front of the stage and graciously presented to Michael the handsome and valuable gold watch, the gift of the Abegweits. At the same time the band played "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Rev. Father McDonald, Lennox Island, was then called on. On behalf of the residents of the island, and graciously thanked the Abegweits for their recognition of his victory and the splendid reception given him. He referred to Michael's stirring qualities as a man and athlete, speaking from the acquaintance of a life time. He appreciated the spirit of the true love of clean sport which the city was always noted for and commended the Abegweits for their recognition of the quality of all races, and not drawing any color line. He said the old prejudice against the red-skin was dying out here and the Micmacs were rapidly advancing intellectually and morally.

His Worship Mayor Rogers in a brief speech, for the citizens, heartily congratulated Michael on his grand victory. He was proud to belong to the association which had such men as Thomas in its ranks. His reference to the big trophy brought forth loud applause.

Premier Haszard, for the whole province, extended warm congratulations for winning an athletic distinction second to none. He said that the term "Island" as applied to this province should be recognized to apply to another, Lennox. He made special mention of the fact that in the past few years Thomas had won the seven cups and ten medals then on the platform. He closed by referring to the intelligent industry of the Lennox Island Indian and congratulated the race to which Thomas belonged.

Then, at the request of the Chairman, Michael rose to say a few words. This was the signal for an ovation which was seldom, if ever, witnessed in this city. Michael was accorded a significant round of applause which, in itself, amply testified to the popularity and to the public feeling over his victory on Thanksgiving day. He said that it was his first speech. He wished to thank the people for the way they had always used him. Father McDonald for his interest in his athletic career, and Premier Haszard and Mayor Rogers for the kind words expressed.

The Citizens Band which so generously volunteered to assist in welcoming Thomas concluded the proceedings with God Save the King and Michael was turned over to his friends to resume the handshaking and modestly accept the overflow of congratulations.

Such an enthusiastic reception as that accorded to Thomas last night was one of which the acclaimed hero, the club and the whole province should justly feel proud. The fleet-footed runner's prowess was publicly recognized, the club to which he belonged upheld their incomparable reputation for the gentlemanly acknowledgement of the service of members who had won fame for the Association and the public, by their presence and frequent applause, evidenced an interest in mainly sport worthy of the City.

NARRATIVE OF ENGLISH NUN.

LISBON, Oct. 31.—No Masses were celebrated in any churches at Lisbon yesterday. In the morning I went to the arsenal, where 180 nuns from the convents had been placed by the provincial government. There were about thirty nuns from the school near the Jesuit college at Quelhas, but all the children, save one or two, had been sent home. The sisters were quartered in the handsome Salla do Risco, an immense room with the model of a ship at one end.

Among them was an English lay teacher, Miss Lily Pining, of Preston, from the Quelhas Convent, who gave me a vivid account of her experiences of the revolution. She said: "The assault on the Jesuit college evening. There was great din with the rifle-fire, children screaming and shouting from the street, which continued till after midnight. No one of us thought of sleep. Twice during the firing our mother superior went to the door and begged the soldiers through the closed grating to let the nuns and children vacate the convent. About one o'clock we had a great fright, for from the cloister we saw men on the housetop preparing to enter the convent. Then some sister opened the gate and, leading the children by the hand, ran into the street imploring the soldiers to be allowed to go in peace. But there was no officer present, and the men beat the nuns go indoors again.

"Some sailors with two sergeants came in as well and told us to be quiet and they would do us no harm. They accused us of hiding priests, whereupon the sisters gave them leave to search the convent. This they did thoroughly, while we remained in the hall. Of course, no priests were found, for there were none there. Once again the nuns entreated the soldiers to be suffered to go in peace, but the guards replied that they must first convict their officers.

"We spent the rest of the night quietly in the hall parlor, and at dawn we all left the convent for the arsenal in a Government motor car. All morning the nuns from other convents kept arriving. We were given bread and water for breakfast; for dinner a vegetable soup with bread and water or wine; and bread and water for supper. We were respectfully served by sailors. Last night we were supplied with soft straw matresses without sheets. After we were in bed some officers and sergeants passed down the Salla do Risco. I was so nervous that I could not sleep at all. We all got up about 4.30 yesterday morning, and were given bread and coffee for breakfast. The officers always treated us most
