

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown.

E. O. McCallum, city went to Summerside Saturday morning. The Northumberland arrived from Pictou at 8.30 Saturday night. W. A. and Mrs. McDougall, Moncton, are visiting in this City. Victor McMillan, City, was a passenger to Murray Harbour Saturday. T. J. Arling, station master at Emerald, was in the city Saturday. Three schooners with produce from P.E.I. are at New Glasgow, N. S.

J. McLean of this city was in Halifax, last week and registered at the Queen Hotel. John McLeod, City, returned to this city by the steamer Northumberland Saturday evening. The political meeting addressed by the candidates was held at Brackley Point Head Saturday night and will be held tonight at Afton Hall, West River. Miss Laura Gillis, Miscouche, and Miss Lauretta Delaney, Vernon River, have returned to Boston, after spending a very pleasant summer at Woodstock, Vt. As a number of citizens were walking over the Hillsboro Bridge Saturday afternoon a flock of wild geese passed over their heads flying swiftly south but so low that they were easily counted, twenty-one being in the flock. Any reader who receive a dirty or poorly printed copy of any issue of The Guardian, will confer a favor on the management by forwarding some promptly to the subscription department, when a well printed paper will be sent by return mail. The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret Smith took place Saturday afternoon at St. Peter's Cathedral, where the rector, Rev. Canon Strupson, held the funeral services, assisted by the choir. The pall-bearers were S. W. Crabbe, W. S. Stewart, John P. Nicholson, Charles Dalziel, James Stewart and W. W. Stanley. The Moncton Golf Club are to visit Charlottetown and play the local program tomorrow. Twelve players are expected, six ladies and six gentlemen. The play is to begin at ten o'clock, ladies' and gentlemen's singles. Luncheon will be served to the players at the club house at one o'clock and mixed foursomes will be played in the afternoon. At a meeting of the Executive of the Provincial Government on Thursday evening, the following gentlemen were appointed as an educational commission to deal with the whole question of education including the matter of cheaper text books, etc.: Dr. S. N. Robertson, Principal of the Prince of Wales College, D. C. McLeod of the law firm of McLeod & Bentley, E. J. Buote, editor of L'Impartial, Tignish. The Board of Directors of Y.M.C.A. meet this Monday evening, at 7.30 p.m. Important business in winding up the current year which closes end of present month will be discussed. About $600.00 is needed to clear up all expenses of year. The greater part of this amount is in membership tickets and subscriptions not yet renewed. It is urgently requested that the public and those interested in the association assist the directors in their canvas for subscriptions and renewals. At the latest report yesterday James Strain who was accidentally shot on Saturday was resting easily. Mr. Strain, who is about eighteen years of age, was out shooting part of the day with a number of young men from this city, when the gun in the hands of one of his companions accidentally discharged, about eleven of the shots entering the head and thigh of young Strain. The injuries which were attended to at the Charlottetown Hospital are not thought to be serious. The death occurred at New Glasgow Friday afternoon, of Mrs. Albert Laird, after a lingering illness, which she bore with patience and cheerfulness. She was a woman of high Christian character, and much beloved by her large circle of acquaintances. The deceased was the daughter of the late Alexander Laird of Cavendish, and leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband four sons, Alexander, of North Portland, Sask; Ernest, Cecil and William, at home, and one daughter, Elsie, at home; four brothers, James of Cavendish; Rev. George, of Brackley, Sask; three sisters, Mrs. William Simpson, of Malpeque; Mrs. Graham, of Cambridge, Mass., and Miss Mary of this city, besides a large circle of friends and relatives. The annual driving, approaching and putting competitions were held on Belvidere Golf Links on Saturday afternoon. There were a great many entries for each event and much interest was taken as the scores in several cases were very close. The prizes for the ladies' events were kindly donated by President Longworth and were won by the following ladies: The driving competition was won by Mrs. W. A. O. Morson; Miss Pope second, Mrs. A. A. Bartlett, third. The approaching was won by Mrs. A. A. Bartlett, Mrs. W. S. Stewart second and Mrs. Morson third. The putting was won by Miss Mabel Bremner, Mrs. Morson second and Mrs. W. W.
