BRITISH OFFICERS MUST STUDY MORE

LONDON, Nov. 6.-Lieut. enant-General Sir John French has given his views on the work performed by the troops of the Aldershot army corps during the training season of 1906, in a memorandum just issued.

In it he gives all the credit for the improvement shown by all arms in the sciences and practice of war, to the officers for a yet higher standard, which can only be obtained by officers studying seriously military problems during the winter months.

With regard to the night operations were marked by too much noise and talking and too frequent use of lights for signaling and other purposes.

A fleet of battleships could be taken in and out of dangerous harbor and roadstead in total darkness-an example of what the army ought to try to achieve on land.

IT DOES CURE WOMANLY ILLS.

"I feel it my duty" writes Mrs. S. Mead of Freresville, Ont. "to let you know that sometimes previous to the change of life I suffered more than I could tell. Neighbors told me Ferrozone was the only remedy and their advice was good. Ferrozone put a stop to my pain and sickness, had a direct action on my troubles that relieved from the start. I safely passed the turn, and now enjoy perfect health and rest. No womanly medicine can be better than Ferrozone. Instant relief is found in Ferrozone for female weakness of every kind, 50c. per box at all dealers.
