Mr. James Arnold of the P. W. D. Dredge Rustico, spent the weekend at his home here.

Miss Norma Sinnott, teacher at the Bray, was a week-end visitor to her home here.

The lobster fishing here is very poor and the weather is bad with only two days' work being done in the plants last week.

Miss Daphnia Perry, who passed from P. W. C. this term is taking her teacher training at Morrell Graded School at present.

Friends of Mrs. Charles Deveau will be sorry to hear of her continued very serious illness which will be removed to the Charlottetown Hospital early this week.

The May procession at the Little Flower Church was held Sunday evening followed by benediction. The little girls were very pretty in their dresses and white veils.

Mr. Cyril Sinnott who graduated from S. D. U. last week left later in the week for Ontario to follow up his army training. Last summer he was stationed in Winnipeg.

Mrs. Joe Donovan and son Jole are at present visiting friends in New Brunswick. They will be away about a week. Mrs. Donovan is recuperating from her serious operation.

Drake Brothers who farm on a big scale and are big potato growers will have one hundred and five acres this season. It is understood the boys have purchased more land in Canada.

Mr. French who had been employed in one of the garages in the city for several months has returned to this vicinity where he plans to open a cannery. Already the building is being fitted up for canning.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald MacDonald and son Reginald Gerard were Sunday visitors to their old homes here. They moved to the city to reside last fall where Mr. MacDonald is on the Charlottetown Hospital engine room staff.

Friends learn with regret of the serious illness of Mr. David Roach in the hospital in Halifax, N.S. A veteran of World War One he conducted a merchant business here for several years before going to Halifax to reside.

Douglas Bros. well digging equipment has been in this vicinity for several days digging pumps where new residences will be erected. Several other pumps will be drilled while the machinery is in this vicinity. Several old timers who watched the power driven drills working sighed as they recalled the older days of boring pumps by hand through solid rock many times.

Mr. and Mrs. Somerset Kelly, Mr. Gerald McAdam, Mrs. A. B. McAdam, and Mr. Ed Rossiter, left this vicinity on Monday morning on a motor trip to Montreal, they will make several stops en route and spend some time at the Shrine of St. Anne in St. Anne de Beaupre, Quebec. Mr. McAdam and Mrs. Kelly are not enjoying very good health and friends sincerely hope the trip will benefit them. Mr. Kelly, stock buyer

FARM HELP FOR HAYING SEASON The National Employment Service brought one hundred men to the Province from the mainland last year for the haying season. Many orders were received at the last minute, and some farmers were obliged to wait for help for several days. Therefore, it is urgently requested this year, that farmers needing help for haying place their orders well in advance if delay and disappointment are to be avoided. Place your order early, by mail or 'phone with the National Employment Office, either at CHARLOTTETOWN OR SUMMERSIDE National Employment Offices This advertisement sponsored by the Provincial Department of Agriculture under the Dominion Provincial Farm Labour Agreement.
