SUMMERSIDE NEWS

We are glad to have the following account of recent activities of the Guides in Summerside.

Tuesday evening of last week the meeting of the 4th Summerside Guide Company was turned into a Christmas party after the enrollment of fifteen new Guides by the Division and District Commissioners.

Those enrolled were: Shirley Clow, Isabel Arsenault, Juanita Cameron, Marie Perry Gladys Arsenault, Eileen Arsenault, Claire Perry, Irene Gallant, Mary Arsenault, Rena Fitzpatrick, Shirley Arsenault, Marie Doucette, Sylvia Perry, Joyce Cameron, Doreen Arsenault.

The Division Commissioner read a message from the Chief Commissioner, Mrs. Corbett, who has been visiting Guide Companies in Europe.

She emphasized the difficulties overseas Guides had in holding fast to the Guide Promise and Law and yet they all seemed to lay special stress on the observance of the Law and Promise.

Let us all make this a better, more generous New Year. We are do it if we try. My very best wishes go to you all and may God help us and strengthen us to do our part well.

There were gifts on the beautifully decorated tree for everyone, a competition was held for the best Christmas decoration made with pine cones.

It was difficult to choose between them all but the one made by Doreen Blaquiere won the prize.

The Guides were very generous in giving some of these lovely decorations to the Commissioners to take home.

Carols were sung and the meeting ended with lunch and cries of "Merry Christmas and Happy Year" brought to an end a very successful evening.

Miss Carrie Holman has resigned as Division Commissioner for Prince County.

The District Commissioner told of a competition in an essay on Trees in Winter and Spring, open to all the companies in Prince County, with field glasses as prize.

A choir has been formed with five from each company who will sing carols at the hospital and over the radio. They will continue as a permanent choir.

Alberton and Vicinity

Mr. Henry Brown has returned from a brief stay in Halifax where he visited his father.

Among students home for the holidays include, Margaret Leard, Don Pike, Martin Bandler, Herbert Leavitt, Reggie McLellan, Gordon Kerr, Mary Gillis and Larry Caislaghan.

The spirit of Christmas was evident in the shopping parts of the town, in the evening, when passing Main Street many colorful advertisements.

Meanwhile, Eleanor learns of Jack's whereabouts and, thinking he is trying to get a divorce, comes to Reno to stop him.

When she finds Bunny posing as Jack's wife, things get into a vicious tangle of chases and misunderstandings, as Jack tries desperately to explain to his wife and baffle the bandit's determination to regain their loot.

displays attracted the eye. One in particular that caused comment was Mr. Cyril Leard's store. It consisted of a display of attractive, assorted Christmas gifts, colorful lighted trees, with a series of "bubbling" lights in the background which cast a very pretty reflection on the snow white pavement.

The Alberton Women's Institute Hall was the centre of attraction on Monday night when an unusually large number attended the special Yuletide dance, sponsored by the hockey club.

The Hall was beautifully decorated for the enjoyable occasion with colored lights and a trio of Christmas trees. Excellent music was played by the "Western Five" under the direction of Mr. J.F. White. One half of the proceeds were donated in aid of the Western Hospital.
