

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

The Associated Study Clubs of the Holy Redeemer Parish held their regular monthly meeting at the Holy Redeemer Hall on Sunday night. About 250 persons were in attendance.

Miss. Allen MacDonald, the president, was in the chair. She first called upon Miss Nan Leightner, a student of St. Francis Xavier University at home during the Christmas holidays, who spoke on the subject "What I Have Seen at St. P. X."

Reports of the study club leaders followed. Among the leaders reporting were: Mrs. E. Gallant, Mr. Frederick MacDonald, Mr. James Leightner, Mrs. White, Miss Mary Brown, Mr. Henry Dalton and Miss Adele Coyle.

The death occurred at his home, Mt. Edward Road, on December 30th, after an illness of about two weeks, of Miller Matheson, aged 80 years.

He was born at Brackley Point on the Malboro' Peninsula, settled on by the Matheson family 130 years ago. His paternal ancestors came from Scotland and were successfully for a number of years. Mr. Matheson about 25 years ago removed to Mt. Edward Road. As an older in Zion Protestant Church, and a man of the highest integrity and impeccable moral character, he was deservedly held in the highest esteem by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn a widow, two daughters, A.J. Matheson of O'Leary, Ernest Matheson of Vancouver, B. C., and two sisters, Mrs. Tonqui Matheson of Palo Alto, Calif., and Mrs. Edward Shaw of Harrington, Brackley Point.

DEATH OF MR. F. C. BARBER — It was with great regret that many friends heard of the death of Mr. Frederick Courtenay Barber which took place in New York on New Year's day. Mr. Barber conducted two successful subscription campaigns for the P.E.I. Hospital, and an equally successful one for the Protestant Orphanage, and was well known for similar church and charitable organizations elsewhere in Canada and the United States. He had been indisposed for some time; indeed, since the news of the death of his only son, a word correspondent in the Abyssinian war. Mr. Barber began to fail in health. He is survived, by his widow, who made many friends on the three occasions she visited here with her husband and son, to whom The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

The funeral services for Mr. George Frizell were held yesterday afternoon at the United Church, Bedouque, of which the deceased was a member. A short service at the home preceded the church service. Both services were largely attended, showing the high esteem in which Mr. Frizell was held.

Rev. Arthur Organ, pastor, conducted the service assisted by Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson, North Bedouque, Rev. Mr. Fraser, Baptist Church, Bedouque and Rev. Mr. Ayres, Summerside, a former pastor of Bedouque Church. The choir rendered the favorite hymns of the deceased. Mrs. John Stewart presided at the organ. A quartette, "Dear My God To Thee," was sung by Fred Moyle, Dr. Moyle, Thomas Moyle, Arthur MacFarlane. A duet "There is a Land" was sung by Mrs. Charlie Green and Fred Moyle.

The many friends of Mr. David Leurguy will learn with regret of his very sudden passing on Saturday morning. Mr. Leurguy was 81 years of age and was apparently in his usual health the night before he died. He had retired at his usual hour on New Year's Day and was found to have passed away in his sleep. When he did not get up at the usual hour, his housekeeper went to his room and was shocked to find that he had passed away. Death was due to heart failure.

Mr. Leurguy was the son of the late Alexander Leurguy and Mary Murphy Leurguy and was born and lived and died on the old homestead at North Bedouque. He was the last but one of a family of thirteen. His brother Maynard Leurguy survives him. Mr. Leurguy was unmarried but his beautiful farm home was always open to visitors and was a favorite place for picnics. The Anglican and Baptist Churches held their annual Sunday School picnic there for many years and were always given a hearty welcome by the genial host.

Mr. Leurguy was a successful farmer and fox rancher. He was a staunch Conservative and followed the fortunes of the Conservative party with keen interest. His funeral will be held this afternoon at two o'clock from his late residence at North-Bedouque, Rev. J. B. Wilson conducting the service.

INFORMED OF DEATH OF UNCLE

Mr. P. J. MacDonald, Charlottetown, received a telephone message from New Glasgow, N. S. yesterday, informing him of the death of his uncle, Mr. J. S. Jenkins, 76. A well known merchant, Mr. Jenkins had many business connections and friends in this Province to whom his death will be a matter of sincere sorrow.

Dr. J. T. Collins medical practitioner at Vernon River for almost fifty years, received slight chest injuries, slight abrasions on arms, legs and head and a rather severe shaking up when the car he was driving was struck by a train at the Millville Crossing on the Murray Harbor line Saturday morning.

Dr. Collins, taken from the car in an unconscious condition was put on the train and brought to the Charlottetown Hospital. He regained consciousness shortly after removal from the car. His condition was described last night as "better" and he was said to be resting fairly comfortably although not entirely out of danger.

Dr. Collins was driving towards Charlottetown on the 49 Road and the train, proceeding towards Kenyon, was slowing up for the Millville station just beyond the crossing when the accident occurred. The car was mauling the tracks as it was struck by the left side of the locomotive. Although the front of the car was badly damaged it remained on its wheels.

It was believed that Dr. Collins was looking towards the station on his left and did not see the train approaching from the right.

TUESDAY

CELEBRATED 81ST BIRTHDAY — Mrs. Alexander Lockhart celebrated her 81st birthday yesterday, January 4th at her home in St. Eleanors. Many messages of congratulations were received by the old lady who enjoys very good health. Her daughter, Mrs. Bennett, wife of Professor Bennett of Prince of Wales College spent the holiday season with her mother.

ESCAPES DROWNING — Bernard O'Brien, 10, was reported last night as "improving" following a ducking in the waters of St. Peter's Lake when he broke through the ice this New Year's Day. He is the son of Mr. John R. O'Brien, 120, P. E. I. His cries for help were heard by Mr. Lester McVish, mail driver who threw him a rope and fastened it to the shore while he went almost half a mile to the house of Horace McEwen for help. Taken from the icy water and returned to the home of McEwen, the boy was unable to speak for almost two hours.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS — At the regular meeting of the City School Board yesterday the resignation of Miss Ruth Cairns from the teaching staff of Rochford Square School was accepted and the vacancy filled by the appointment of Miss Mary Mullaigh. The Board received a report telling that stairways, providing an additional exit from the assembly halls of Prince Street and West Kent schools, had been completed. Routine business was transacted at the meeting, presided over by the Board chairman, Dr. I. J. Yeo.

Mr. Harry H. Cox, of Morell, member of the Provincial Legislature, is in Ottawa representing the Government of Prince Edward Island at sessions of the fish and game conference which opened yesterday.

The Fish and Game Association of Prince Edward Island met with Mr. Cox before his departure Saturday and recommended he support resolutions dealing with fish and game laws.

ONE was a recommendation from the Association suggesting the present two-season system for trout be abolished and that the season for all trout fishing officially open April 15.

FUNERAL SERVICES

The funeral of Mr. Wm. Henderson was held on Saturday afternoon from the M. D. McLean Funeral Home to the People's Cemetery service at the Home and grave being conducted by Rev. Dr. Moorhead Legate. The pall bearers were: Prof. Patterson, Messrs M. Welsh, Geo. Smith, John Connors, Maurice O'Halloran and S. A. McLeod. Mr. J. S. Sullivan, Ottawa, a nephew and Mrs. Robinson, Iowa, a niece, were present at the funeral.

AT GYRO — The weekly dinner meeting of the Gyro Club last night was devoted to business with the president, Dr. B. C. Keeping, in the chair. The returns from the Christmas tuberculosis seals sale although incomplete indicate that sales exceeded any previous year. The committee in charge of the Christmas trees at the two orphanages brought in a report. Routine reports were submitted by committee chairmen.

Officers of Charlottetown Temple No. 17, Pythian Sisters for 1937 were installed last night at ceremonies conducted by Sister Jean White, past Grand Chief. The newly installed officers were: P. C. Sister Blanche Stewart, M. E. C. Sister Pauline McDonald, E. S. Sister Helen White, P. C. E. Sister Ethel Warren, Past Master, Sister Hilda Pickard, M. E. R. and C. Sister Elsie Ahern, M. P. Sister Evelyn Fraser, Protector, Sister Evelyn McLean, Guard, Sister Margaret Brady. Three year trustee, Sister Mary Burke.

Members of the Royal Edward Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, took their oath of allegiance to King George VI at the regular monthly meeting of the Chapter yesterday.

Special speaker was Mr. Ben Rogers, one of the I.O.D.E. overseas scholars, who has just returned from England where he completed his work. Mr. Rogers spoke on the recent constitutional crisis in England. During his address the speaker referred with gratitude to the I.O.D.E. scholarship which made it possible for him to continue his studies abroad.

Next Monday Mrs. J. A. Macmillan will read a paper on British mandated countries. During the meeting special mention was made of Mrs. Ernest Champion's contribution to the Christmas boxes.

The recent, Mrs. J. A. Mathieson president. Last evening an overflow congregation met in Central Christian Church at the first of the services being held under the auspices of the World Evangelical Alliance. These services are held throughout the world. The past have always attracted large numbers with a marked quickening in the spiritual life of those attending. This year will prove no exception, especially after the splendid beginning that was made last evening.

Those on the platform and taking part in the service were: Rev. S. C. Cooper, pastor of Central Christian Church, who was Chairman; Rev. Hugh Miller, who gave the invocation; Rev. H. L. Denton led the responsive reading; Rev. A. E. MacKenzie led in prayer; Rev. Legate read the Scripture Lesson; Adjutant Lynch also led in prayer while Rev. G. Webster pronounced the benediction. Rev. George Gillespie who is to give the address on Saturday evening was also on the platform.

WEDNESDAY

The angel of death visited the home of Mrs. Eliza MacLeod on November 24th and claimed for its own her dearly beloved son Edward Bruce at the early age of 23 years. Edward had been in failing health for the past fifteen months, but he seemed well on the road to recovery and his death came as a great shock to all. He leaves to mourn his mother, one sister, Mrs. James J. Bryanton, Hartville, P.E.I., and four brothers, Kenneth, George, Allison and Duncan, all of New London.

The annual dinner of the Prince Edward Island Highlanders, affiliated with the Black Watch Regiment of Scotland, was held last night, the anniversary of Red Barchie Day, at the Drill Hall, Charlottetown. Lt. Col. C. Thompson, M.C., V.D., commanding officer of the unit presided. About fifty attended the dinner, described by those present as "probably the best ever held by the Regiment."

The Haggis was piped into the hall by Pipe Major Wilfred Burke. The toast to the King was responded to by singing the National Anthem. Speakers included Lt. Col. Earnshaw, D. S. O., of Halifax, representing Military District No. 6; His Worship Mayor F. W. Turner; Col. U. G. Dawson, commanding the 14th Infantry Brigade; Senator Creelman MacArthur, Summerside; and the following commanding officers of military units in the Province: Lt. Col. J. Blake, 26th Field Ambulance; Lt. Col. P. S. Fielding, Artillery; Lt. Col. G. E. Full, honorary Lieutenant Colonel of the Lighthorse; Lt. Col. R. C. Chandler, Signals; Lt. Col. E. H. Strong, M.C., V.D., Summerside, retiring commander of the Highlanders; Lt. Commander J. J. Connolly; R. C. N. V. R. Other speakers were Mr. H. R. Stewart, Ottawa, and Mr. Walter Grant, Charlottetown.

RECALLS SIMILAR WINTER

Mr. F. E. P. Conroy, Souris, was in the city yesterday and stated that he recalled a similar winter to the present 44 years ago. At that time he was supercargo on a coastal boat between Picou and Dundas, and was able to continue right up till late in January.

ART SOCIETY MEETS — Papers were read by Mrs. D. M. Gass and Mrs. P. A. Creelman at the monthly meeting of the Prince Edward Island Art Society last night. Miss Margaret Irving presided. An exhibition of photographs, loaned by the National Art Gallery at Ottawa will open Saturday and continue next week it was announced.

Ribbons representing 1st, 2nd and 3rd regional prizes for foundation stock seed potatoes have been awarded respectively to Messrs. Douglas Aitken, Bay Fortune; C. W. Townsend, Bay Fortune, and W. H. Townsend, Rollo Bay, by the Iowa State Vegetable Growers' Association, according to word received here by Mr. J. W. Boulter, manager of the P.E.I. Potato Growers Association.

PRESENTATION TO SECRETARY — A presentation was made to Mrs. Samuel Campbell, returning secretary of the Ladies Guild of the Charlottetown Baptist Church, at the annual meeting of the Guild yesterday. Mrs. Campbell, well known as a church and welfare worker, is leaving shortly to take up her residence in Saskatoon, N. B. The meeting was held at the home of the Guild president, Mrs. T. G. Ivey.

The farm home of Mr. Geddie McLeod, Bonshaw, was totally destroyed by fire early yesterday morning. The loss is estimated at $3,000, partly covered by insurance. Mrs. McLeod and three children were forced to flee from the blazing building in their night clothing. Mr. McLeod, who conducts a butcher stall in the Market at Charlottetown, had made a fire in the kitchen stove at 4:30 a.m. and then gone to the barn to prepare to leave for the city. Mrs. McLeod was awakened from sleep by the fire and smoke at 5 o'clock. The flames spread so rapidly that it was impossible to save any furniture. Included in the loss was $200 in cash which was in the house. 1200 bushels of potatoes were stored in the cellar but it is believed that the tubers, except on the top of the pile, will be suitable at least for cattle feed.

It is not known how the fire originated. The funeral of Rev. Theodore Gallant was held yesterday morning at the Church of Notre Dame, Mont Carmel of which he was pastor for many years. The church was filled to overflowing for the service, which commenced at 10 o'clock. About 25 priests from different parishes were present and headed by Rt. Rev. Mgr. MacLellan, V.G., followed the remains to their last resting place in the cemetery adjoining the church.

The solemn High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. F. X. Gallant of Egmont Bay, assisted by Rev. John Caulet of Boomfields and Deacon and Rev. Urban Gillis of Wellington as sub-Deacon. Master of ceremonies: Rev. John Sullivan; Thurifer, Rev. Phelan McKenna. Assisting in the sanctuary were: Rev. G. J. McLellan, D.D., Rev. John A. McDonald, Rev. Clarence Poirer, Rev. V. McDonald, Rev. Basil Croken, Rev. J. Smith, Rev. Theodore Gallant, C.S.C. of Memramcook, N. B., Rev. Walter McQuigan, Rev. Douglas McNeill, Rev. George McDonald, Rev. Leonard McDonald, Rev. George McCabe, Rev. W. E. Monaghan, D.D., Rev. John Kelly, Rev. W. Keefe, Rev. Terrence Campbell, Rev. P. Welsh, Rev. George A. McDonald, Rev. E. Murray, Rev. Bennet McDonald, Rev. George McCabe, Rev. Gavin P. Monaghan, Rev. J. N. Poirer, Rev. M. Monaghan, D.D., Rev. Bernard Gillis, Charlottetown, a lifelong friend of the deceased pastor, took the solo parts of the mass of the Mass.

Frederick Bradley, ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Urban Bradley, Beake Station, was drowned in a milldam a half mile from his home yesterday afternoon.

With his nine year old brother, Jack, he was looking at rabbit snares and muskrat traps and was crossing the ice on the pond when he broke through into ten feet of water. Unable to reach his struggling brother, Jack rushed to his home a half mile away to summon aid. When assistance arrived the boy had disappeared. The body was recovered some time later.

Coroner L. B. Mellish of Montague, who with R. C. M. P. Constables Watson and Strong of the Montague Detachment, investigated the tragedy announced last night at an inquest was held yesterday that the ice a few hundred yards below where the boy was drowned was strong enough to carry horse drawn vehicles. Thin ice over a spring hole was believed to have been responsible for the accident.

Besides his mother and father four sisters and a brother survive.

There passed away on Saturday Jan. 2nd inst. at her home Emerald Junction, Mrs. Catherine Macdonald, widow of the late James Macdonald, and last surviving member of the family of the late Bernard Croken, Summerside. Though advanced in years being in her ninety-first year, her death was keenly felt by many members of her family and her many friends. She leaves to mourn their loss five sons—Rev. Brother A. Walter, Supervisor of Bishop Laughlin Memorial High School, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Joseph W. on the homestead, J. Augustine, K.C., Charlottetown, Daniel and Herbert in Western Canada, and three daughters, Catherine at home, Sister Catherine Helena of the Sisters of Notre Dame, Boston, Sister St. Andrew's of the C.N.D., Miscouche, one daughter, Helena Lucretia predeceased her ten years ago. Her funeral was held on Jan. 4 from her late residence to St. James Church, Summerside, where a solemn High Mass was sung with Rev. Phelan McKenna, celebrant; a nephew, Rev. Wilfrid McCordle, deacon, Rev. Eugene Murray, sub-deacon, Rev. George

THURSDAY

Weather conditions in Prince Edward Island did a right about face yesterday and a temperature of 16 above zero backed by a 32 miles an hour wind turned attention to winter again after several days of spring like weather.

Death under whatever circumstances is a sad legacy of humanity especially when a loving wife and mother has been summoned from this life so suddenly, such a death we are called upon to chronicle today, on November 3rd, 1936, Mary A. Steele, beloved wife of Stephen French, passed from this world of toil and care at the early age of forty-three years. About one week before her death deceased was stricken with pleuro-pneumonia and in defiance of medical skill and tender nursing death's angel crossed the threshold on Monday night to summon her to eternity.

ESCAPES SERIOUS INJURY — Little Donna Currie, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Currie received a severe shaking up late Tuesday afternoon when the tricycle she was driving was caught by a car backing into an alleyway on Kent St. The driver of the car was not aware of the accident until Wm. Chaisson, at work in his shop nearby ran out and lifted the car between the wheels. He carried her into his home in an unconscious condition but was quickly revived. A doctor who quickly arrived, said no bones were broken. The tricycle was badly damaged.

PASTOR HONORED — Rev. A. E. Woodside and Mrs. Woodside of Lot 16 were given a pleasant surprise last Wednesday when their parishioners called at the Parsonage to make a presentation including a purse of money. Mr. Villiers Carr acted as chairman and Mr. Seymour Thompson read an appropriate address after which Mr. Glen Ramsay and Edward Lockhart made the presentation. The latter presented Mrs. Woodside with a pair of beautiful blankets. Mr. Belle Monkley making the presentation. Rev. Mr. Woodside thanked the congregation for their splendid gifts. Remarks were made by Claude Ramsay, Percy Miller, E. M. Lockhart and others. Mrs. E. M. Lockhart then played a hymn and the congregation joined in a chorus of songs.

Blois H. Andrew of Charlottetown, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Allan Cummings and his daughter Jean, following an automobile accident last Dec. 22, was dismissed by Magistrate W. E. Darby of Summerside yesterday, when he appeared for preliminary hearing. It was alleged an automobile which Andrew was driving crashed into the horse and wagon of Cummings and his daughter on the night of Dec. 22, four miles west of Kensington. The horse was also killed. Andrew was only slightly injured, but his automobile was wrecked by the crash.

Dr. J. P. McNeil of Kensington said both Cummings and his 19-year-old daughter had been killed outright. The Cummings were returning to their home in Breadalbane after a visit to Kensington. Andrew was going from Kensington to Charlottetown. It was believed Andrew had been blinded by the lights of an approaching car when he hit the wagon.

The funeral was held from his home on the afternoon of Monday, December 28th, and was conducted by his pastor, Rev. T. R. Goudge, assisted by Rev. H. Stavert. A large number of people attended the funeral in spite of the cold and weather. Burial took place in the Little Sands cemetery.

The funeral of Alfred F. Houson took place Tuesday afternoon from the MacLean Funeral Home to the People's Cemetery. The late Mr. Houson was the last member of a highly respected family long established on Fitzroy Street and well known to our older citizens. Like his father, he was a skilled mechanic and cabinet maker, and a number of years ago was also engaged in boat building. He was also a member of the Hillsboro Boating Club.

His illness extending over many months he bore with calm fortitude, much comforted by the kindly attentions of his lifetime neighbors. His approaching death he welcomed as a summons to the fuller, nobler life with his Redeemer. The funeral service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. G. Carlyle Webster. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Lemuel Winchester, John Anderson, David Carter, F. J. Macdonald, G. F. Hutcheson, W. E. Bentley, K.C.

Officers for 1937 were installed by District Deputy President, Miss Muriel Lowther, at the regular meeting of Alpha Rebekah Lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F., held on Tuesday evening. Assisting Miss Lowther were, Miss Beatrice Lapham as Deputy Marshal and the following staff of Grand Officers: Mrs. Mae Adams, Miss Hilda Harper, Mrs. Sadie Sentner, Mrs. Gertrude Beer, Miss Olive Lowther and Mrs. Bel McLeod.

Officers installed into the chain of the Lodge were: Noble Grand, Mrs. Phoebe Pound; Vice Grand, Mrs. Blanche Stewart; Rec. Sec. Mrs. Isabel Diamond; Fin. Sec. Mrs. Eunice Reid; Treas. Miss Lillian Duchemin; P.N.G. Warden, Mrs. Jean Garnium; Conductor, Miss Mary Jenkins; R.S.N.G. Mrs. Helen McEachern, P.N.G.; L.S.N.G. Miss Helen Finlayson, P.N.G.; G. Chaplain, Mrs. Flora McInnis; R.S.V.G. Mrs. Bessie Holman; L.S.U.G. Mrs. Marjorie Outcliffe; Musician, Mrs. Lulu Nicholson; Outside Guardian, Mrs. Jean Crockett; Musician, Mrs. Inez Laferty; P.N.G.; J. Past Noble Grand, Mrs. Victoria Huestis.

FRIDAY

The death occurred at her home, 77 Upper Prince Street, on December 16, 1936 of Lillian Lavena, widow of the late Wellington F. Burns in her 67th year. The late Mrs. Burns was a daughter of the late Benj. C. Mutch and the late Elizabeth Bishop of Summerside, P. E. I. She had been in failing health for some time, yet when the end came it was unexpected.

DEATH OF MRS. ENSOR — There passed away on Wednesday afternoon after a lingering illness Mrs. Isabella Ensor, aged 70 years. Mrs. Ensor was the widow of Wm. F. Ensor and had resided for many years at Ellerslie, which was her native place. This summer she came to reside with her only daughter, Mrs. Percy L. Bowness who tenderly nursed her during her last illness. Mrs. Ensor possessed many fine characteristics which endeared her to a wide circle of friends. The funeral is taking place this afternoon from her late residence at Ellerslie to the Presbyterian Church at Freeland, Lot 11.—S

By the death of Mrs. Helen Malone, on December 30, 1936, St. Joseph's parish has lost one of its most amiable, Christian and industrious members. She was always in the forefront of those ladies who were interested to do any work in the interests of the parish and most diligent in the success of every movement to better parochial conditions.

Besides her bereaved husband she is survived by one brother, Isadore Smith, Souris, and two sisters, Mrs. J. J. McCarthy, Port Augustus and Mrs. J. P. Murphy, Boston, Mass.

There passed peacefully away on Sunday Dec. 6th Mr. Cornelius Cahill, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Tyrone. Although not in the best of health he was confined to his bed for only about a month previous to his death.

The late Mr. Cahill was born in Kingston eighty-five years ago, where he spent his life engaged in farming, from which he retired six years ago and moved to Tyrone. The deceased was a man of sterling qualities. His kind and jovial disposition won for him a host of friends both old and young. This was evidenced by the large number of people who visited him during his illness, and also came to pay their last respects.

The death of Mr. Angus D. Smith of Hopefield, P. E. I., took place suddenly on Christmas evening. Although in his eighty-second year, he was in fair health until about an hour before his death. The deceased was born in Little Sands, October 31st, 1855, and was the youngest son of the late Alexander and Grace Smith. All his family predeceased him except one sister Mrs. Sarah Fraser of Hopefield. In addition to his sister, he leaves a sorrowful widow, and two sons, Wilfred and James, both of Hopefield.

The funeral was held from his home on the afternoon of Monday, December 28th, and was conducted by his pastor, Rev. T. R. Goudge, assisted by Rev. H. Stavert. A large number of people attended the funeral in spite of the cold and weather. Burial took place in the Little Sands cemetery.

The funeral of Alfred F. Houson took place Tuesday afternoon from the MacLean Funeral Home to the People's Cemetery. The late Mr. Houson was the last member of a highly respected family long established on Fitzroy Street and well known to our older citizens. Like his father, he was a skilled mechanic and cabinet maker, and a number of years ago was also engaged in boat building. He was also a member of the Hillsboro Boating Club.

His illness extending over many months he bore with calm fortitude, much comforted by the kindly attentions of his lifetime neighbors. His approaching death he welcomed as a summons to the fuller, nobler life with his Redeemer. The funeral service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. G. Carlyle Webster. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Lemuel Winchester, John Anderson, David Carter, F. J. Macdonald, G. F. Hutcheson, W. E. Bentley, K.C.

Officers for 1937 were installed by District Deputy President, Miss Muriel Lowther, at the regular meeting of Alpha Rebekah Lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F., held on Tuesday evening. Assisting Miss Lowther were, Miss Beatrice Lapham as Deputy Marshal and the following staff of Grand Officers: Mrs. Mae Adams, Miss Hilda Harper, Mrs. Sadie Sentner, Mrs. Gertrude Beer, Miss Olive Lowther and Mrs. Bel McLeod.

Officers installed into the chain of the Lodge were: Noble Grand, Mrs. Phoebe Pound; Vice Grand, Mrs. Blanche Stewart; Rec. Sec. Mrs. Isabel Diamond; Fin. Sec. Mrs. Eunice Reid; Treas. Miss Lillian Duchemin; P.N.G. Warden, Mrs. Jean Garnium; Conductor, Miss Mary Jenkins; R.S.N.G. Mrs. Helen McEachern, P.N.G.; L.S.N.G. Miss Helen Finlayson, P.N.G.; G. Chaplain, Mrs. Flora McInnis; R.S.V.G. Mrs. Bessie Holman; L.S.U.G. Mrs. Marjorie Outcliffe; Musician, Mrs. Lulu Nicholson; Outside Guardian, Mrs. Jean Crockett; Musician, Mrs. Inez Laferty; P.N.G.; J. Past Noble Grand, Mrs. Victoria Huestis.

FRIDAY

The death occurred at her home, 77 Upper Prince Street, on December 16, 1936 of Lillian Lavena, widow of the late Wellington F. Burns in her 67th year. The late Mrs. Burns was a daughter of the late Benj. C. Mutch and the late Elizabeth Bishop of Summerside, P. E. I. She had been in failing health for some time, yet when the end came it was unexpected.

DEATH OF MRS. ENSOR — There passed away on Wednesday afternoon after a lingering illness Mrs. Isabella Ensor, aged 70 years. Mrs. Ensor was the widow of Wm. F. Ensor and had resided for many years at Ellerslie, which was her native place. This summer she came to reside with her only daughter, Mrs. Percy L. Bowness who tenderly nursed her during her last illness. Mrs. Ensor possessed many fine characteristics which endeared her to a wide circle of friends. The funeral is taking place this afternoon from her late residence at Ellerslie to the Presbyterian Church at Freeland, Lot 11.—S

By the death of Mrs. Helen Malone, on December 30, 1936, St. Joseph's parish has lost one of its most amiable, Christian and industrious members. She was always in the forefront of those ladies who were interested to do any work in the interests of the parish and most diligent in the success of every movement to better parochial conditions.

Besides her bereaved husband she is survived by one brother, Isadore Smith, Souris, and two sisters, Mrs. J. J. McCarthy, Port Augustus and Mrs. J. P. Murphy, Boston, Mass.

There passed peacefully away on Sunday Dec. 6th Mr. Cornelius Cahill, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Tyrone. Although not in the best of health he was confined to his bed for only about a month previous to his death.

The late Mr. Cahill was born in Kingston eighty-five years ago, where he spent his life engaged in farming, from which he retired six years ago and moved to Tyrone. The deceased was a man of sterling qualities. His kind and jovial disposition won for him a host of friends both old and young. This was evidenced by the large number of people who visited him during his illness, and also came to pay their last respects.

The death of Mr. Angus D. Smith of Hopefield, P. E. I., took place suddenly on Christmas evening. Although in his eighty-second year, he was in fair health until about an hour before his death. The deceased was born in Little Sands, October 31st, 1855, and was the youngest son of the late Alexander and Grace Smith. All his family predeceased him except one sister Mrs. Sarah Fraser of Hopefield. In addition to his sister, he leaves a sorrowful widow, and two sons, Wilfred and James, both of Hopefield.

The funeral was held from his home on the afternoon of Monday, December 28th, and was conducted by his pastor, Rev. T. R. Goudge, assisted by Rev. H. Stavert. A large number of people attended the funeral in spite of the cold and weather. Burial took place in the Little Sands cemetery.

The funeral of Alfred F. Houson took place Tuesday afternoon from the MacLean Funeral Home to the People's Cemetery. The late Mr. Houson was the last member of a highly respected family long established on Fitzroy Street and well known to our older citizens. Like his father, he was a skilled mechanic and cabinet maker, and a number of years ago was also engaged in boat building. He was also a member of the Hillsboro Boating Club.

His illness extending over many months he bore with calm fortitude, much comforted by the kindly attentions of his lifetime neighbors. His approaching death he welcomed as a summons to the fuller, nobler life with his Redeemer. The funeral service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. G. Carlyle Webster. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Lemuel Winchester, John Anderson, David Carter, F. J. Macdonald, G. F. Hutcheson, W. E. Bentley, K.C.

Officers for 1937 were installed by District Deputy President, Miss Muriel Lowther, at the regular meeting of Alpha Rebekah Lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F., held on Tuesday evening. Assisting Miss Lowther were, Miss Beatrice Lapham as Deputy Marshal and the following staff of Grand Officers: Mrs. Mae Adams, Miss Hilda Harper, Mrs. Sadie Sentner, Mrs. Gertrude Beer, Miss Olive Lowther and Mrs. Bel McLeod.

Officers installed into the chain of the Lodge were: Noble Grand, Mrs. Phoebe Pound; Vice Grand, Mrs. Blanche Stewart; Rec. Sec. Mrs. Isabel Diamond; Fin. Sec. Mrs. Eunice Reid; Treas. Miss Lillian Duchemin; P.N.G. Warden, Mrs. Jean Garnium; Conductor, Miss Mary Jenkins; R.S.N.G. Mrs. Helen McEachern, P.N.G.; L.S.N.G. Miss Helen Finlayson, P.N.G.; G. Chaplain, Mrs. Flora McInnis; R.S.V.G. Mrs. Bessie Holman; L.S.U.G. Mrs. Marjorie Outcliffe; Musician, Mrs. Lulu Nicholson; Outside Guardian, Mrs. Jean Crockett; Musician, Mrs. Inez Laferty; P.N.G.; J. Past Noble Grand, Mrs. Victoria Huestis.

FRIDAY

The death occurred at her home, 77 Upper Prince Street, on December 16, 1936 of Lillian Lavena, widow of the late Wellington F. Burns in her 67th year. The late Mrs. Burns was a daughter of the late Benj. C. Mutch and the late Elizabeth Bishop of Summerside, P. E. I. She had been in failing health for some time, yet when the end came it was unexpected.

DEATH OF MRS. ENSOR — There passed away on Wednesday afternoon after a lingering illness Mrs. Isabella Ensor, aged 70 years. Mrs. Ensor was the widow of Wm. F. Ensor and had resided for many years at Ellerslie, which was her native place. This summer she came to reside with her only daughter, Mrs. Percy L. Bowness who tenderly nursed her during her last illness. Mrs. Ensor possessed many fine characteristics which endeared her to a wide circle of friends. The funeral is taking place this afternoon from her late residence at Ellerslie to the Presbyterian Church at Freeland, Lot 11.—S

By the death of Mrs. Helen Malone, on December 30, 1936, St. Joseph's parish has lost one of its most amiable, Christian and industrious members. She was always in the forefront of those ladies who were interested to do any work in the interests of the parish and most diligent in the success of every movement to better parochial conditions.

Besides her bereaved husband she is survived by one brother, Isadore Smith, Souris, and two sisters, Mrs. J. J. McCarthy, Port Augustus and Mrs. J. P. Murphy, Boston, Mass.

There passed peacefully away on Sunday Dec. 6th Mr. Cornelius Cahill, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Tyrone. Although not in the best of health he was confined to his bed for only about a month previous to his death.

The late Mr. Cahill was born in Kingston eighty-five years ago, where he spent his life engaged in farming, from which he retired six years ago and moved to Tyrone. The deceased was a man of sterling qualities. His kind and jovial disposition won for him a host of friends both old and young. This was evidenced by the large number of people who visited him during his illness, and also came to pay their last respects.

The death of Mr. Angus D. Smith of Hopefield, P. E. I., took place suddenly on Christmas evening. Although in his eighty-second year, he was in fair health until about an hour before his death. The deceased was born in Little Sands, October 31st, 1855, and was the youngest son of the late Alexander and Grace Smith. All his family predeceased him except one sister Mrs. Sarah Fraser of Hopefield. In addition to his sister, he leaves a sorrowful widow, and two sons, Wilfred and James, both of Hopefield.

The funeral was held from his home on the afternoon of Monday, December 28th, and was conducted by his pastor, Rev. T. R. Goudge, assisted by Rev. H. Stavert. A large number of people attended the funeral in spite of the cold and weather. Burial took place in the Little Sands cemetery.

The funeral of Alfred F. Houson took place Tuesday afternoon from the MacLean Funeral Home to the People's Cemetery. The late Mr. Houson was the last member of a highly respected family long established on Fitzroy Street and well known to our older citizens. Like his father, he was a skilled mechanic and cabinet maker, and a number of years ago was also engaged in boat building. He was also a member of the Hillsboro Boating Club.

His illness extending over many months he bore with calm fortitude, much comforted by the kindly attentions of his lifetime neighbors. His approaching death he welcomed as a summons to the fuller, nobler life with his Redeemer. The funeral service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. G. Carlyle Webster. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Lemuel Winchester, John Anderson, David Carter, F. J. Macdonald, G. F. Hutcheson, W. E. Bentley, K.C.

Officers for 1937 were installed by District Deputy President, Miss Muriel Lowther, at the regular meeting of Alpha Rebekah Lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F., held on Tuesday evening. Assisting Miss Lowther were, Miss Beatrice Lapham as Deputy Marshal and the following staff of Grand Officers: Mrs. Mae Adams, Miss Hilda Harper, Mrs. Sadie