Humor of the Hour
"Say, pa?"
"Well, what?"
"What's the difference between 'filthy lucre' and 'clean cash'?"—New York Sun.
Grieved by the escape of his intended prey, the crocodile wept.
"They may be crocodile tears," sobbed the saurian, "but they are real tears!"—Chicago Tribune.
"Yea, just at present," said the moon, "I'm out late at night because I'm down to my last quarter."
"Therewith you differ from the average man," remarked the morning star. "He is often down to his last quarter because he was out late at night."

Rocksley—I like this place so much that I should like to settle down and make my home here. I have the refusal of the nicest house in town, and, do you know, Miss Alice, I wish I could get the same terms from the nicest girl in town!
Alice—If you want my refusal you can have it.—Chicago Journal.
Her father gave the bride away To the bridegroom rich and old. But all the wedding guests that day Knew quite well she'd been sold. —Philadelphia Bulletin.

While Henry Drummond was calling on a friend on his last visit here he was introduced to a party of American girls. "How very formal you are here when you are introduced," he said. "Now in England we always shake hands. What do you do here when you say good-bye?"
"Ob, we kiss," said the youngest of the party, a charming girl of sixteen.
"Ah, that's charming," responded Prof. Drummond; "suppose we say good-bye right now!"—New York Times.

Jack—I'm not up on these things. Suppose a girl sends you a very beautiful and artistic penwiper—
Tom—Yes.
Jack—Will she feel hurt if you spoil its appearance by using it, or will she feel hurt if you don't?—Brooklyn Life.

Customer—What do you charge for ten cents' worth of camphor?
Druggist (absently) — Twenty-five cents.—Chicago News.

At a fire in a New York tenement building the other day, when some of the inmates saved their lives by jumping and the firemen were credit for heroic deeds, Fireman Murphy, groping through the smoke, heard screams for help. Following the sound, he reached half suffocated himself, the room from whence the cries proceeded, and to his chagrin found that his rescue amounted to saving the life of a parrot, which thanked him in profane language.

"What makes papa so cross?"
"I don't know. Did you say anything to annoy him?"
"Certainly not. I just happened to remark that Christmas was almost here."—Chicago Post.

Dudge—I never deny my wife a wish.
Fudge—Well, that's kind of you, but I didn't know that you were financially so well fixed.
Dudge—Pooh! It doesn't cost anything to wish.—Baltimore American.

"Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Torkins, "don't you think you could find some race-track where the horses are crooked?"
"Perhaps."
"Well, I wish you would. You know every time you play a horse straight it loses."—Washington Star.

When a body meets a body Who is full of rye, Then a body wishes he Might pass a body by. —St. Joseph's News.

"Is your husband a bibliomaniac?" asked Mrs. Oldcastle as she was being permitted to view the treasures in the library of the new neighbors.
"Merely a book," replied Mrs. Packard, "he never bibles a word. Oh, of course, I don't say that he wouldn't take a little at his meals if the rest was done, but that's as far as he ever goes in them kind of things."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Jack—I have a chance to marry a poor girl, whom I love, or a rich woman whom I do not love. What would you advise?
George—Love is the salt of life, my friend. Without it all else is naught. Love, pure love, makes poverty wealth, pain a joy, earth a heaven.

Jack—Enough! I will marry the poor girl whom I love.
George—Bevelly spoken! By the way, would you er—mind introducing me to the rich woman whom you do not love.—New York Weekly.

"We've got a little more room in our flat now."
"That so?"
"Yes, we've just scraped the paper off the walls."—Philadelphia Press.

"I want to see some Brussels," began the prospective customer.
"Carpets, 'troupe' or point lace?" asked the floorwalker, briskly.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Guest—Here's a quarter for you, waiter. Now let me what you can conscientiously recommend for my dinner?
Waiter—Thank a boss. If yo' all wants someth' ter eat, Ah'd recommend dat' yo' hunt a nuther res'trant, sah.—Chicago Daily News.

Motor and the world-motors with you; Walk, and you walk alone, And you can't get into society If you have no auto of your own. —Automobile Magazine.

Representative Williams of Mississippi has a new negro story: "Are you the defendant?" asked a man in the court-room, speaking to an old negro.
"Yo, boss," was the reply. "I ain't done nothing to be called names like that. I've got a lawyer here who does the defending."
"Then who are you?"
"Yo, the gentleman what stole the chickens."—Washington Post.

COLDS SETTLE ON THE KIDNEYS.
Hence the Backaches, Rheumatism Pains and Lumbago.
Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.
Prompt to Relieve and of Lasting Benefit.

It is not only the lungs that suffer during the cold, damp season. The kidneys are almost equally susceptible to sudden changes of temperature, and many a serious case of kidney disease has its beginning with a cold, which settles on the kidneys.
Persons working out of doors are most likely to be victims of such trouble, and suffer from headaches, lumbago, rheumatism and crippled, aching limbs, but anyone is liable to set in a draught or expose his back to a current of cold air.
Cold settling on the kidneys causes congestion, a clogging of the filtering organs, and consequent derangement of the whole digestive and excretory systems. The liver fails to work, the bowels become constipated, and the stomach gets upset.

Because of their diet and combined action on these organs, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are of most prompt and most lasting benefit for such derangements. They are positive in their effects, and are backed by the experience, and integrity of Dr. Chase, the famous receipt-book author.

Mrs. J. Larter, 122 Cross Street, Charlottetown, P. E. I., and whose husband is a contractor, states:—"I had suffered a great deal with pains in the small of my back, my digestion was bad and I was frequently troubled with spells of rocking headache. I have been entirely cured of these distressing symptoms by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and find that my general health is greatly improved since I have been using this preparation.
'I can also testify to the merit of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, as I was cured of a severe attack of bronchitis by the use of this remedy."
Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. One pill a dose; 25 cents a box; at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

PROGRESS ON THE SHAMROCK.
DUMFRIES, SCOTLAND, Jan. 21.—The Shamrock III is now completely framed and more than half plated. Sir Thomas Lipton arrived here this morning to inspect the cup challenger and complete the arrangements for launching here.

Teacher—"What is a farm?"
Bright Little Girl—"A piece of land entirely covered by a mortgage."—Detroit Free Press.

Worms affect a child's health too seriously to neglect. Sometimes they cause convulsions and death. If you suspect them, to be sure, give Dr. Lee's Pleasant Worm Syrup, which destroys the worms without injuring the child. Price 25c.
Ask a connoisseur a question and he will never say "I don't know."

Minard's Liniment is the Best.
It manages to get late very early nowadays.
British Troop of Old Liment is without exception the most effective remedy for Cuts, Wounds, Ulcers, Open Sores, Erysipelas, Bites, Stings of Insects, and a large bottle 25 cents.

Minard's Liniment For Rheumatism.
The average wife dislikes to ask her husband for money almost as much as the husband dislikes to give her dollars. Minard's Liniment Cures Rheumatism.
"Billingham's rheumatism is like his property," said Trivet, to Dick. "How's that?" It's all in his wife's name.

Milburn's Sterilizing Headache Powder contains neither morphine nor opium. They promptly cure Stomach Headache, Migraine, Headache, Headache of Grippe, Headache of denture ladies and Headache from any cause. Price 10c and 25c.
Colonel, would you mind telling me how you made your first $1000? "Not at all, I made it by attending strictly to business—my own business, you know."

Used internally, Hagedorn's Yellow Oil cures Sore Throat, Stomach, Quinsey Pain in the Chest, Gout, and all externally cures Rheumatism, Stiff joints, Contracted Cords, Sprains, Strains, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, and Bites of Insects.
Bobby—"Did God make a new baby pa?"
Pa—"Yes, Bobby, Bobby."
Bobby, about "what does he charge for a kid like Jimmy?"

GOOD HEALTH IS IMPOSSIBLE.
Without regular action of the bowels, Life is the consequence. Hagedorn's Fine Syrup contains the pine bark and cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, hoarseness, and all throat and lung troubles, which I not attended to, lead to consumption.
"Bumps on my head, is it?" exclaimed Pa.
"Begorra there, I think it would give him more of an idea what kind of a woman my wife is."—Hagedorn's.

Minard's Liniment the Best Hair Restorer.
If a man always pays cash he is entitled to a lot more credit than he ever gets.
