On Thursday night the Montague Curling Club held their annual banquet in the beautifully decorated dining room of the Blue Dome Restaurant. A sumptuous chicken dinner was tendered the curlers who did full justice to the excellently cooked dinner. Mr. F. G. MacIntyre, president of the club, presided over the dinner. At the conclusion of the dinner, the president in the name of the club members, tendered a sincere vote of thanks to Miss Selma Llewellyn the proprietress of the restaurant for the delightful dinner which the curlers so greatly enjoyed. The members then took part in a sing song, and speeches and stories passed the time pleasantly for all. Then followed the presentation of trophies. On behalf of Mr. Walter Beer presented the Junior trophy, and individual cups to Mr. Neil Hoolley, skip, M. G. Patterson, mate, Allister Currie, 2nd. stone, and E. G. MacKinnon, 1st. stone. This president then presented the Clarkson Shield to Mr. Bruce MacLean, skip, A. F. Sullivan, mate, D. H. Coffin, 2nd. stone and Doug George, 1st. stone. On behalf of the curling club a trophy was presented by Mr. Walter Beer to the president Mr. F. G. MacIntyre for his splendid work during the past year. Mr. MacIntyre is a charter member of the club, and has given much of his time and energy to fostering curling in the community. One may say that without him our present new curling building would not have been for his benevolent and overwhelming generosity did much to erect the new building. Moreover, his pleasant disposition, and love of fun has provided many happy evenings at the curling club, and we sincerely hope that he will remain with us for many years to come. At the conclusion of the presentation of trophies, the members sat down to a game of cards to spend the evening in the good fellowship which is so characteristic of curlers.
